The Jacobs-Stine Co. LARGEST SUBDIVISION OPERATORS ON THE PACIFIC COAST 148 FIFTH ST. Opposite Meier & Frank PORTLAND, OR.

Lillian Atwood plays the somewhat unattractive role of Phyllis, his wife, in a commendable manner and the author, Charles Vernon Finlay, contributes very largely to the success of the performance as the whole-hearted and thoroughly likeable Irish laborer, who afterward becomes a sergeant of New York's "finest."

John Storm, whose personal charms warrant some rhapsodies, is quite at home as the wife of a young Gotham millionaire, and brings excellent acting ability into the impersonation of the part.

Pretty Mattie Cleveland and Charles A. Figg contribute a most pleasing little dialogue while dressed as children, and the song, "I'm Sorry," is a decided hit.

Marguerite La Ponte makes a stunning leading woman in musical comedy, and her Indian romantic song, "Red Bird," is most fetching.

SOME EXCEPTIONAL VERSE

Poets, with and without National reputations, contribute some excellent verse to the July Sunset. "The Master of Magnificence," by Herman Schaefer; "Lines on a Loving Cup," by Charles Warren Stoddard; "The Irreconcilable," by Jacob Brown; "To a Sequoia Forest," by Clarence Urm; "Invitation," by Mahel Potter Pitts; "As through a Glass Darkly," by Mira Abbott Maclay; and "Poco Tiempo," by Thomas Grant Springer, are some of the poets and their offerings that tend to make the July Sunset an exceptional number.
