EMANUEL ACCAME HEADS NEW LIST

Italian Bark Clears With Cargo of Wheat for United Kingdom.

FIRST CARGO FOR SEASON

Grain Year of 1908-9 Opens in Good Shape-Flour Shipments Fair. Increase in Lumber Exports Foreign - Shipping News.

With 199.948 bushels of wheat valued at $33.455, the Italian bark, Emanuel Accame, cleared yesterday for the United Kingdom. The vessel will leave down today and will be ready to proceed to sea the first thing Monday morning. The cargo was dispatched by Kerr Gifford & Co.

The Emanuel Accame is the first vessel to clear for a foreign port with grain since the opening of the new cereal year. While she carries old crop grain she will head the list of vessels for the year 1995-5. The craft reached the Columbia River from Hamburg, May 19. She brought a full cargo of cement. She discharged slowly and no attempt was made to make a record on her.

During July of last year there was not a pound of wheat sent foreign. The grain shipments consisted of two part cargoes of flour which were carried by the Manshu Maru and the Alesta to ports in the Orient. The Nicomedia, now discharging at Portland will clear before the end of at Portland will clear before the end of the month and she will carry out a full cargo, principally of flour. Lumber shipments for July will also be heavy. In addition to the cargoes cleared so far, there will be several more. The steamship Tabor will be ready Tuesday and by the last of the week the Kilburn

England's Fourteen Bound Here.

That the French are rapidly crowding the British sailing ships out of the Pacific Ocean sailing ship trade is shown by the fact that of the 46 windjammers bound or loading for this port, 25 of them fly the tri-colored ensign of the Land of Vineyards and Songs, whereas but 14 are owned in King Edward's domain. There is but one lone American ahip on the list, and it has the appropriate name of Homeward Bound. Three German vessels have been listed, two that are owned in Norway and one Russlan. The total grain carrying tomage bound for Portland is $7.097 tons, whereas but 28.553 tons are bound and listed for Puget Sound.

TO BE BUILT BY DAY WORK

Open River Company Will Construct Boats by New Plan.

Officials of the Open River Transporta tion Company have practically decided to construct the new steamers, planned to construct the new steamers, planned for the Upper Columbia River, by day work instead of contract. The construction will be under the immediate supervision of a representative of the Company. It has been decided to proceed immediately with the work and it is expected that at least one of the boats will be ready for service the latter part of October.

Sufficient money for the construction Sufficient money for the construction of the boats has been subscribed. The hollers have been ordered and work on them is under way. Shafts have also been ordered and by the time that the hulls are ready the boilers will be on the ground. As yet the machinery contract has not been awarded. This will be done either today or the first of next week.

No little regret was expressed by residents of Couch Addition, in the vicinity of Twenty-fourth and Flanders streets, when on Wednesday last the fir tree in the yard of G. W. Bates was cut down. The tree was one of the few native trees remaining in that district, and on account of its height and graceful outlines was the pride of the neighborhood. It invariably excited the admiration of tourists visiting that section of the city. Mr. Bates had the tree cut down because it littered the lawn with foliage and conge
