

HEAD OF SCHOOL FOR FALSEHOOD

District Attorney Claims to Have More Evidence Against Mrs. Teal.

MANY GIRLS TO TESTIFY

Two Members of "Mimic World" Chorus Among Those Said to Have Been Approached in Gould Conspiracy Case.

NEW YORK, July 30.—(Special.)—Alice Fleming, encouraged by the advice of Richard McCabe, her fiancé, and embittered by the treatment she has received since her confinement in the Tombs on the charge of being a party to the plot to furnish false testimony to aid Mrs. Helen Kelly Gould in obtaining a divorce from her husband, Frank Jay Gould, has given to Assistant District Attorney Hart the names of two other women, said to be members of the chorus in "The Mimic World," now at the Casino, who are alleged to have been approached by Mrs. Gould and offered financial inducements to give false testimony concerning alleged relations between Mr. Gould and Beanie De Vos, the actress, as would entitle Mrs. Gould to obtain a divorce.

The preliminary hearing of Mrs. Teal and her alleged fellow conspirators was concluded last Tuesday night. At that time Magistrate Corrigan announced that he would render his decision Friday, intimating that he would hold the defendants to trial. It is said the two chorus girls refused to go into the witness box, as a reason their fondness for Beanie De Vos. The information is piling up in the District Attorney's office, it is said, which establishes that Mrs. Teal was the instigator in the school for the manufacture of false testimony. Mabel Maccaulian's story of how she was induced to sign a false statement by Mrs. Teal has not been contradicted in any way except by the denial of Mrs. Teal, and it is contended by Mr. Hart that the strongest possible corroboration of the testimony of Miss Maccaulian lies in the fact that the incriminating statement made by her, with original notes admitted to have been written by Henry S. Mousley, a private detective, and dictated by Mrs. Teal, were found in Mousley's pocket when he was arrested. Blanche Hale's statement, wrung from her by Mr. Hart, is in direct corroboration of the charge that Mrs. Teal tried to induce this young woman, a hairdresser of the Hotel Lincoln, to give false testimony for money. The statement of Miss Maccaulian as to the nature of the attack to be made upon Mr. Gould's conduct to aid Mrs. Gould in her suit for divorce. Subenas have been issued for the two chorus girls, whose names are withheld in the District Attorney's office for judicial reasons. It is said in the District Attorney's office that the number of persons approached by Mrs. Teal, as alleged, with the proposition to testify against Mr. Gould will make it difficult for her to sustain the defense as outlined by Lawyer Blumenthal, that Mrs. Teal was induced to go into this scheme through the designs of Miss Maccaulian, the 13-year-old girl, to make herself famous as a witness in an important divorce suit and lay the foundation for a successful career upon the stage.

BUDD CALLED BY DEATH

Ex-Governor of California Passes Away After Long Illness.

STOCKTON, Cal., July 30.—James H. Budd, former Governor of California and long prominent in politics, died at his residence in this city early this morning after an illness of a fortnight, of uraemia, due to Bright's disease. He was 58 years of age. The deceased had been a sufferer from rheumatism and kidney troubles for years, and although he visited European health resorts, was able to obtain little more than temporary relief. He was at the point of death several times, but rallied with wonderful vitality. About 10 o'clock last night he lapsed into unconsciousness and the physicians saw that the end was only a matter of hours at best. Death came early this morning while surrounded by his family. His aged mother and his devoted wife were in constant attendance during his last hours. The deceased was born in Jonesville, Wis., May 13, 1851, and came to California in his boyhood. He graduated from the University of California, where he was a member of the Zeta Psi Upsilon fraternity in 1881. He was admitted to the bar and settled in Stockton for the practice of his profession. Elected to Congress, he served from 1882 to 1885, but declined the re-nomination. He was Democratic Governor of California from 1894 to 1898. He held minor political positions such as library trustee and police and fire commissioner in Stockton's earlier history and before his election as Governor was Colonel of the National Guard of California. The funeral will take place Sunday morning, Rev. R. F. Sink, of the Congregational church, officiating. The body will be placed in the receiving vault at Rural cemetery. The deceased did not belong to any fraternal orders other than a college Greek society.

Dissatisfaction Among Liberals at Sultan's Delay.

WANT NEW MINISTRY

Situation Is Badly Muddled and Developments Cannot Be Foreseen. Master Hand Is Directing Semi-Revolutionary Move.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 30.—Although the demonstrations in the streets of Constantinople over the granting of a constitution have practically ceased, there are signs of much dissatisfaction among the liberal element at the delay in the reconstruction of the Ministry. Scenes of the wildest description continue in the cafes, where officers and civilians embrace each other and express their delight at the ending of the tyrannical regime. The situation still lacks clearness, and it is impossible at present to foresee the next development with any degree of certainty. The Young Turks are masters of Constantinople, and the European provinces, and except in the Ottoman Empire, and made use of the boat to get away. They say further that had Selim Pasha applied for the protection of the Italian flag on the ground that his life was in danger, he could not have been reduced. The whole Melhamed family is exceedingly unpopular, especially Tenlib, who has not been seen for several days. The constitutional party is anxious to call them to account for many alleged reprehensible deeds in enriching themselves. Some of the foreign Ambassadors are blamed for the protection and friendship extended to the Melhameds, without which, it is argued, they never could have attained the position and influence they did. Two of Selim Pasha's daughters married German officers, while a third is the wife of an Italian officer. No further news has been received of the fate of Habib Melhamed, who while trying to escape from the country was arrested by Young Turkey officers under Mustafa Pasha. According to advices from Salonica, Iskender Melhamed was condemned to death by the Young Turk Committee, but this sentence subsequently was suspended.

AMNESTY FOR ALL FUGITIVES

Turkey May Take Back 200,000 From United States.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The Sultan of Turkey, through the Turkish Consul-General in this city, Mundeji Bey, today proclaimed general amnesty to all political fugitives, regardless of race, in this country. This relates to about 200,000 Armenians and others in the United States. The message received by the Turkish Consul-General was as follows: Inform all fugitive Turkish citizens in New York City and in all the United States, including political fugitives, without regard to race or nationality, whether Greek, Armenian, Turkish or Albanian, that after the promulgation of a constitution for the Turkish Empire, his Majesty, the Sultan, upon request of the government, has granted general amnesty, and all political fugitives may go back to Turkey after having the necessary passports verified at the office of the Turkish Consul-General, 59 Pearl street, New York City. The reading of the announcement to a number of his countrymen by the Consul-General was greeted with cheers. Mundeji Bey said: I regard this as the most important step forward that has yet been taken, inasmuch as it relates to Turkish citizens in the United States. There are some 400,000 Turkish citizens in this country and more than 200,000 of these are political fugitives, men who have often labored to return to their old homes, but have feared to do so. These men may now go back to their country without fear. The amnesty applies to political, not criminal, fugitives. I am sure that those who have offended politically, and have sought an asylum in this country, will now return and help in the work of constructing a united nation. Turkey will now be as free as the United States. Sharif, if I mistake not, will be a Turkish Ambassador at Washington. Our aim will be to maintain their closest relations with the United States. The escape of Selim Pasha is regarded as an act of cowardice, in that he abandoned his sovereign at a critical juncture, a course which, it is held, testified to his guilty conscience. Italians explain that the embassy was not aware that Selim Pasha meditated flight. He requested the use of the embassy launch to embark his son Nihad, who was coming to Rome to take the post of first secretary in the Ottoman embassy, and made use of the boat to get away.

TOO EARLY TO FORM OPINION

Leishman Says Little Bloodshed Was Caused by Revolution.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—American Ambassador Leishman to Turkey, in a dispatch to the States Department regarding recent events in Turkey and the proclamation of a constitution, says: "The change has been brought about with comparatively little bloodshed, although it is too early to determine whether the new ministry of the government will run without conflict or disturbance. The constitution is limited and is the same as that granted at the beginning of the present reign. Changes in the ministry are taking place and efforts are being made to have some of the palace entourage displaced." Mr. Leishman says the populace openly charge the palace camardillo with unscrupulousness. The dispatch adds that a general amnesty for political prisoners has been proclaimed and that the imprisoned are being released. Swindler Gives Himself Up.—NEW ORLEANS, La., July 30.—Moses Schwartz, former president of the Schwartz Iron Foundry Co., has surrendered himself on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences, and has been released under $10,000 bond. Schwartz's financial trouble came to light a few months ago, when he went to Honduras with William Adler, former president of the State National Bank. They were shipwrecked in sight of the land they were headed for. Schwartz soon returned to New Orleans, but Adler is still in Honduras. Fairbanks Takes Outing.—DETROIT, Mich., July 30.—Vice-President Fairbanks and Mrs. Fairbanks arrived here this evening from Quebec and left three hours later for Mackinac Island, where they have taken a cottage for the remainder of the summer.

PORTLAND FIRM LOSES OUT

Willamette Iron Works Falls to Secure Seattle Contract.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 30.—(Special.)—Though the Willamette Iron Works of Portland, was in reality the lowest bidder for Seattle's new fire boat, the award will be made to local contractors. After a troublesome week with the Northwest Industrial Association and the Manufacturers' Association, the Board of Public Works today aggregated all bids and awarded contracts as follows: Puget Sound Shipbuilding Company, the hull, machinery by Fulton Machine Works; four Mosher boilers, by Pacific Engineering Company; pumps, by A. G. Long of Portland; generators, by General Electric Company. A small amount of machinery will be secured direct from manufacturers and the city shops will build the two-inch monitors. A $5000 saving will be effected.

Tailors Threaten to Strike

NEW YORK, July 30.—Unless the employers restore the nine-hour day and the scale of wages prevailing prior to the beginning of the money stress of last October, the 20,000 tailors comprising the National Brotherhood of Tailors in this city, will go on a strike. This was decided upon last night.

since in regard to the Russian Douma. Turkey will now take its rightful place among the nations of the world.

The Consul-General said he would be surprised if at least 100,000 Turkish subjects did not return to their native land within the next month or so. Of the 90,000 Armenians and other mixed nationalities in this country he estimated that 5000 at least would depart within a very short time. Of Turkish refugees he said there were none here, but a large colony had settled in the provinces.
