NATIONS JOIN IN PEACE CONGRESS

Every Civilized Country Sends Delegates to London Assembly.

EDWARD SHOWS SYMPATHY

Receives Delegates for First Time. British Cabinet to Give Banquet-Anglican Bishops Approve of Purposes.

LONDON, July 30.—Many signs of the increasing importance of the peace movement have developed during the progress of the present Universal Peace Congress, said Ben J. Trueblood, of Boston, president of the American Peace Society and head of the American delegation now here, in an interview tonight.

First, we have seen the number of dele-gates grow until every civilized nation of the globe new is represented at the con-gress, and by men of standing in their own countries. The meetings of the congress have been greatly attended and the greatest interest has been displayed in the discussion the most important of which was that of today on the subject of the arrest of arma-ments.

Make it clear that we are not urging im-mediate disarmament, but a scheme by which the increasing expenditures for arma-ments can be stopped.

Banquet by British Cabinet.

Another incident showing the growing importance of the congress was the reception of the delegates by King Edward, a precedent which doubtless will be followed in the future. The British government has ably seconded his malesty by inviting the delegates to a hanquet Friday evening, when daubtless there will be speeches which will advance the cause which we have so much at heirt. These and other attentions we are receiving from the official heads of Great British insure the success of the undertaking

Congressman T. E. Burton, of Ohlo, who is here with the Waterways Commission, has registered his name with the delegates to the Universal Peace Congress. Beside attending the meeting in Albert Hall next Tuesday night when David Lloyd-George. Chancellor of the Exchequer, will speak, he will be among the 50 American guests at the Government's banquet tomorrow

The 17th Universal Peace Conference today received a deputation consisting of the Bishop of Ripon, the Bishop of Massachusetts and the Bishop of Perth, Australia, who submitted a resolution passed by the Lambeth Conference, as follows:

That the Lambeth Conference, while "That the Lambeth Conference, while acknowledging the moral gains sometimes won by war, rejoices in the growth of the higher ethical perceptions evinced by the increasing willingness to sattle difficulties among nations by peaceful words:

 "Finally, realizing the danger inseparable from National and commercial progress it urges upon all Christian people the duty of allaying race prejudices, of reducing by peaceful arrangements the conflict of trade interests and the promoting among all races of brotherly love for the good of all mankind."

The three bishops briefly addressed the conference. The Bishop of Massachusetts said he believed America could be depended upon because of her government and her position, to stand whatever she could stand with justice for international

After conveying its appreciation to the hree bishops, the conference adopted a esolution thanking King Edward for having established a precedent by receiv-ing the delegates to the conference in audience. Another resolution was passed expressing the opinion that for the moment a practical method to arrest the growth of armaments would be an agreement for a short term of years, not to exceed the average total expenditure for almy and navy made by each country during the period which had elapsed be-tween the helding of the first and second Hague Peace Conferences.

A resolution for the general arrest of armaments was adopted after the ac-ceptance of an amendment by Stanley R. Yarnell, of Philadelphia, urging the Britsh government to cell a conference for this purpose at the earliest possible moment. Another resolution congratulating the people of Turkey on the recent events people of Turkey on that have resulted a granting them a constitution also was adopted. This measure was introduced by Ahmed Riza, the leader in Paris of the Young Turkey party.

Mistaken Signal Incident in British Maneuvers Explained Away.

LONDON, July 30.—The Admiralty, after a full investigation, has exenerated both Admiral Lord Charles Beresford and Admiral Sir Percy Scott from any blame in connection with the mistaken signal incident of the last Naval maneuvers. It seems that Lord Charles gave the signal for an evolution which, if obeyed, apparently would have brought the cruisers Argyll and Good Hope into collision. Sir Percy, who was on board the Good Hope, doubted the accuracy of the signal and refrained from obeying it.

The Admiralty finds that the maneuver order was not dangerous, but at the same time, as Sir Percy thought there was risk, he was justified in turning his cruiser the other way and Sir maneuvers. It seems that Lord Charles

AGAINST RULING

Illinois Manufacturers Propose to Test Decision on Export Rates.

CANADIAN ROAD STAYS OUT

Says Ruling Cannot Apply to It, but Other Roads Dispute Statement. Roads Object to Traffic With Tramp Steamers.

CHICAGO, July 30.—(Special.)—The Hilmois Manufacturers Association took up the Asiatic export problem today and asked Levy Mayer for an opinion as to the best method of procedure. Members of the association throughout the state are slarmed over the prospect and purpose to use every effort, both legal and otherwise, to change the situa-

The Canadian Pacific today declared that it was not a party to the new tar-iffs which the American transcontinen-tal lines have put out. In railway circles here the understanding is different. It does not matter, however, so far as the effect of the new tariffs is concerned, for no railroad originating traffic here would maintain a traffic agreement with the Canadian Pacific except upon the same terms as traffic is maintained with American lines. s maintained with American lines.

The fact developed today that the railroads are aggrieved even more by the Commission's ruling that "such rates or fares must be the same for all, regardless of whether ocean car-riage may be designated by the ship-per or passenger." This would compel the railroads to deal with tramp ocean steamers, which they positively refuse to do. It is the consensus of opinion that there is no power which can compel the railroads to engage in this busi-ness if they do not see fit to do so.

RULING IS LIKELY TO STAND

Commission Fully Advised in Making Export Rate Order.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The report that the transcontinental railroads, controlled by J. J. Hill, Edward H. Harriman, the Berwind Syndicate and the Canadian government, have determined to surrender their export trade to China, Japan, New Zealand and Australia on November 1, has created a great deal of interest at the office of the Interstate Commerce Commission in this city. If this merce Commission in this city. If this action is taken, it will merely fulfill the prediction that has been made by railroad officials who have resisted the enforcement of the rule of the commission by which they are obliged to publish the rate on that portion of their export trade which goes to the railroads for hauling shipments to scaports and to give notice of any in crease or decrease in their rates. Th crease or decrease in their rates. The purpose of the transcontinental roads to take this action has not been brought to the attention of the commission, which has power to modify its ruling in order to meet the objections of the carriers, should it care to do so.

But as this matter has been very fully considered by the commission, it is not regarded as likely that its rulings in this respect will be changed. The rall-roads have claimed ever since this rule roads have claimed ever since this rule became effective that they could not com-ply with it and conduct their export trade. James J. Hill gave an example of the dif-ticulty that confronted him in a matter of this kind when before the commission, saying he had an opportunity to bid on the delivery of 60,000 barrels of flour to the Orient. But as he could not quote a rate without formally giving notice, he was unable to make a bid for the business, and the delay caused the order to be placed in Australia. Constantly changing ocean rates and the demands of trade, which the carriers have represented, which the carriers have represented, makes it necessary they should be free to quote a rate on export business without a moment's delay. They have frequently declared that the commission's rule would put them out of the export trade, with the result of causing an immense lose to the foreign trade of the

This subject was discussed when the case of the Cosmopolitan Shipbullding Company vs. the Hamburg-American Packet Company, was before the company, was before the mission for a hearing. It was the consideration of this case that gave rise to the rule which the transcontinental roads now declare is making it impossible for them to continue in the export trade. In this case complaint was made against the operation of what was termed the "Baltic Pool," which it was alleged controlled land and water rates from inland points in the United States to the destination of shipments.

The commission asserted inability to control water rates, but insisted on a separation of the inland rate to the place of export from the through rate and applied to that portion of the rate the provisions of the law making mandatory both publication and notice of changes of the rate. As the question was passed upon after the most complete hearing, and as predictions were then made that I would put the railroads out of the expor trade, it is not considered likely that the commission will readily reverse its rulings.

Bosworth, fourth vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, referring to a dispatch from Chicago to the effect that the trade with the Orient had been dealt a severe blow by the determination of the steamship companies sailing from the Pacific Coast to aban-don that business, thus making it pos-sible for Japan to realize her ambition to become first in the trade on the Pa-
