NEW PASTOR ARRIVES.—Rev. W. T.
Euster, new pastor for the Sunnyside Methodist Church, and family, have arrived from Portland and are occupying the parsonage, at East Thirty-fifth and East Yamhill streets. Rev. Mr. Euster comes with the reputation of being a great church builder. He has built churches at nearly all the charges he has held for several years past, in Montana and the Columbia River country. He comes to the Sunnyside Church, which is now one of the largest and most prosperous in the Oregon conference, mainly for the purpose of conducting the construction in the erection of a modern edifice, which is greatly needed, as the congregation for over a year has been crowded into the auditorium. Rev. Mr. Euster will preach his first sermon next Sunday.

STREET IN BAD CONDITION.—The plank roadway on East Morrison street, between the Morrison bridge and the avenue is badly broken up and there is much complaint about the condition of the street. This road was laid two years ago, immediately following the completion of the hill, and the city was to maintain it in repair for several years.
According to the terms of the contract, a permanent improvement can not be put down on East Morrison for two years. The East Side Business Men's Club is trying to get the street repaired before winter.

HIGH SCHOOL SOCIETY MEETING.—The following is the programme of the Burkinson Debating Society for the East Side High School for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock: Resolutions, J. L. Bozorth; Voluntarily, H. Cooke; literary report, Mr.
Blair; debate, "Resolved, that Washington did more for his country than did Lincoln." Affirmative, H. Morris and H.
Fowler; negative, R. Baughman and M.
Brooks. English and composition, Friday the society will discuss political questions, taking the platform of the two leading parties as the basis of their debate.

CLASS FOR DEAF CHILDREN.—Seven deaf children were enrolled in the class organized in the Hawthorne building Monday, and there have been five regular attendances, two being absent because of illness. Miss Florence Metcalf is the teacher. A large attendance is expected when it becomes generally known in the city that there is such a class in the Hawthorne school. The oral system is being used, the children being taught to understand what is said to them by the improvement of their hearing.

EXHIBIT AT ART MUSEUM.—The Winters' exhibition of engravings and etch-ings is now hung in one of the upper galleries of the Museum of Art, Fifth and Taylor streets. Fine Mezzotints and line engravings, never before exhibited here, are included and the progress of this branch of fine art from the sixteenth to our own time is illustrated in the 150 examples shown. A few Japanese prints are also exhibited. Admission is free Thursday and Saturday afternoon.

PROTEST AGAINST PAYMENT.—Property-owners along East Ankeny street, from Union avenue to East Twenty-fourth street, are protesting against the laying of bitulphic pavement, as they declare it is a "patented" article and cannot be laid under the provisions of the city charter.
They also question the quality of the material and hesitate at the high prices charged for it. The matter has been referred to the street committee of the Council.

DEATH OF JOHN KAERCHER.—John Kaercher died yesterday at the home of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Hickman, 861 Clinton street. Mr. Kaercher had been a resident and postmaster at Canto, Wash., for the past 15 years. With his wife he came to Portland several weeks ago for medical treatment. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from Dunlap's undertaking chapel, 414 East Alder street.

ments for holding a mass meeting in United Artisans' Hall, at Portsmouth, meeting will be held to acquaint the people of the Peninsula with the plans for distributing 50,000 rose bushes in that district.

yesterday. The new president, Mrs. C. at his home in Sellwood, Monday, was Sellwood Presbyterian Church. Interment was in Mt. Zion cemetery. The officiating Wyler, who is 17 years old and had been sick for several weeks.

BIG WOOL-SOURING PLANT.—In its large advertisement in today's paper, the Gordon Falls Electric & Manufacturing Company says that $1,000,000 worth of wool will be soured at its works next year. This means $20,000 invested in that plant alone. Within 30 days the Pendleton woolen mills will be removed to Gordon Falls.

portant meeting concerning Sunday clos-

VERDICT CHARGES NEGLIGENCE.—In the inquest over the victims of the recent catastrophe of the Brooklyn sewer, the Coroner's jury yesterday brought in a verdict in which they found that the victims came to their death because of the negligence of someone, but were unable to fix the blame upon any one in particular. The victims were Robert Kayho, Frank Matison and John Jantzen, all of whom were killed by the sudden collapse of tons of rock and gravel in a cut in which they were working. The body of Jantzen has not yet been recovered.

FOR GROCERS' CONVENTION.— Tentative dates for the National Grocers' convention, which meets in Portland in 1909, have been fixed for the first week in June. This will bring the grocers of the country here just before the Rose Festival, so they can stay over and see this event, while at the same time they will be on hand to visit the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle, which will have thrown open its gates by that time. The exact dates will be fixed later.

highway robbery at Tacoma and, after being placed in custody by the Portland

He may also have been implicated in a more serious crime and the police are awaiting further instructions from Tacoma.

AT THIS season little thought is given to life at Seaside, but attention is sometimes directed that way. Just now Mr.
Sweet, in the Corbett building, is offering one of the most attractive and comfortable furnished cottages on the ocean front at a remarkable sacrifice. Some watchful person will pick up this beautiful summer home and be ready for next season.

HEAD OF GANG SENTENCED.—Joe Cohen, known to the police as a yeoman, was yesterday convicted of vagrancy before Judge Schneider, and looking at it found that he was at liberty to hunt all the birds in the season. As he thought the matter over, he remembered a report at First and Clay streets, which has been broken up by the police.

BURNS BACK BOY'S REMAINS.—Clement Gibson, the brother of Roy Gibson, the 15-year-old lad who fell from a freight

FRANKLIN BAKER TO SPEAK

WILL PRESENT VIEWS OF THE FELLOWSHIP MOVEMENT.
Member of Cult Founded by B. Fay Mills Will Talk on "How to Love Everybody."

Franklin Baker, of Denver and Colorado City, Col., will deliver an address in behalf of "The Greater Fellowship" at 501 Yamhill street at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon. His subject at that time will be "How to Love Everybody." The "Fellowship movement" was established in this city by B. Fay Mills, of Los Angeles, for many years one of the leading evangelists of the country.
Mr. Baker, who since associated himself with Mr. Mills.

Mr. Baker comes to Portland as a special representative of Mr. Mills, who is now lecturing to San Francisco to large audiences. It will be remembered by those attending the Lewis and Clark Exposition in 1906 that Mr. Baker is the minister who marched 519 miles with 15 boys between the ages of 11 and 20 years, from Humboldt County, Cal., to this city. It was upon Mr.
Baker's return from this march that he became a liberal in religion and identified himself with the Fellowship movement. All who heard Mr. Baker in his address of acceptance of the banner which was presented to him by the Exposition management at that time will recall his remarkable ability as an orator.

Mr. Baker expects to be in this city for some time, and will conduct study classes during the week in "The Bible of the World," "Emerson," "Whitman," and "Life Problems." To these classes the public will be welcome.

When at home, Mr. Baker addresses two large audiences every Sunday, one at 11 A. M. in the Women's Club Auditorium in Denver, and at 8 P. M. in the Central Theater, Colorado City. He is now assisting Mr. Mills in the organization of "The Greater Fellowship," which is a world-wide conception of religion, irrespective of creed, cult or denomination.
The guiding thought of "The Fellowship" is "What is the Loving Thing to Do?" It seeks to criticize only by creation.
