NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Cocktails and cigareties, which have been figuring prominently in the suit for separation brought by Mrs. Harry Blair Brokaw against her husband, W. Gould Brokaw, again assumed importance today in the trial at Mincola, L. I.
Sidney Woods, the Brokaw butler, testified for the defense that he had served cocktails to Mrs. Brokaw in a teacup, in tumblers, in a shaker when she was up that Brokaw had always been kind and affectionate towards his wife.

Quarrels with her husband, which Mrs. Brokaw said were brought about by Brokaw's jealousy and ill temper, have been asserted by guests of the Brokaws at High Point, N. C., and elsewhere to have been trivial for the most part, and as much the fault of Mrs. Brokaw as of her husband.

Mrs. Brokaw's repeated tales of trouble so annoyed Mrs. H. B. Gilbert. Mr. Brokaw's sister, that Mr. Gilbert forbade her coming to their house, Gil-bert testified. The troubles, in their inception at least, were largely imagin-ary, Gilbert thought. So far as actu-ally barring Mrs. Brokaw from his home was concerned, Gilbert said on cross-examination he could not recall an instance when she was refused ad-

SLAYER, SUROUNDED, DIES Man Hunt Ends in Negro Taking His Own Life.

ABBEVILLE, La., Dec. 30.—A thrill-ing man hunt terminated yesterday af-ternoon, near here, when Roy O'Haro, a negro desperado killed himself after a chase lasting since Tuesday, when the negro shot Officers Holly and Thomas.

At the entrance to the Chotawhatchie Swamp a cordon of a hundred men surrounded the negro. Wounded, barefooted and tired, he saw that escape was impossible, and placing the barrel of his shotgun to his breast, he pushed the trigger with his big toe. His body was tied to a hussy and dragged to Abbeville and placed in the courthouse, where it may for several nours.

Will Moore, president of the Commercial Association, and Attorney R. J. Siater also went to Walla Walla and publicly gave the lie to the published reports and to the pictures on display in that city alleged to represent vacant storerooms in Pendleton.

President Moore demanded of the president of the Walla Walla Commercial Association that the pictures of the alleged vacant buffdings be removed from the display window, on the ground that they were false and misleading. When the Walla Walla man refused, Moore sent a photographer to Walla Walla, who took pictures of 31 vacant buildings in that city, and he says these will be sent broadcast throughout the Northwest to show the actual condition of affairs in Walla Walla, and in retailation of the wrong he believes has been done Pendleton.

In his public address at Walla Walla President Moore pointed out that whereas there were ten vacant buildings in Pendleton before the 28 saloons were voted out there are only nine at present. dleton before the 28 saloons were voted out, there are only nine at present.

Black Suspected of Shooting Two Streetcar Employes in East St. Louis, in Danger - Sheriff and Deputies Prepared.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 20 .- Eight companies of militia were ready to start for Belleville, Ill., tonight, and Sheriff Cashel was awaiting at the St. Clair County jall with a heavily armed force of deputies.

Rumors that an attack would be made upon the jail because of the pres-ence there of Will Clark, a negro sus-pected of shooting two streetcar em-ployee in Fast St Louis Saturday night, caused the preparations for an emergency.

The Sheriff asked Governor Densen to have troops in readiness when reports reached him that friends of the East St. Louis men were planning a descent upon Belleville. The towns are only 15 miles apart and are connected by steam and trolley lines.

Little was observed in East St. Louis to indicate that the warlike preparations were needed. Friends and fellow employes of E. V. Goudy, the dead motorman, and M. P. O'Brien, conductor, seriously wounded, were outspoken in their condemnation of the negro, especially after it was reported that Clark had confessed. A denial of the latter rumor, however, served to dispel many evidences of the mob spirit.
