Many American Women Are Seen in Brilliant Audience-Despite Rain, Great Crowds Walt in Street

LONDON, June 16 .- One of the most magnificent spectacles in connection with the coronation was the com-mand performance tonight in Covent Garden, the interior of which was transformed into a floral palace wreathed about England's fairest flower.

Those present will long remember the which were occupied by guests of royal rank. Flanking the royal box were two other targe boxes, each occupied by 100 representatives of the dominions. About half of the stalls were allotted to the suites of the distinguished guests.

In point of picturesque attire, the Indian princes, glittering with jewels, were easily first, eclipsing the royalties in their most splendid uniforms. Special American Ambassador Hammond sat in the second row of the royal box, between the Duke of Con-naught and the Grand Duchess of Hesse, his plain evening dress rendering him conspicuous by contrast. Mrs. Ham-mend sat in the diplomatic box to the right.

American Women Present.

Among other American women present were: Mrs. Mackay, Lady New-borough, Lady Granard, Lady Cheyles-more, Lady Cooper, the Hon. Mrs. Comore, Lady Cooper, the Hon. Mrs. Coventry. Lady Dufferin, Mrs. Burns, Lady Speyer, Viscountess Parker, Mrs.
Christie Miller, Mrs. Helke, Mrs. Newhouse and Mrs. Singer.

The King was in an admiral's uniform and wore the Order of the Garter. The queen's gown was of delicate pink,
over which the blue ribbon of the Gar-

WASHINGTON, June 25.—President Samuel Gompers, Vice-President John Mitchell and Secretary Frank Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, under a ruling issued today by Justice Wright of the District of Columbia Supreme Court, were cited to appear Monday, July 17, and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court.

The court's action followed the filing of the report of a committee of lawyers appointed to investigate the charge that an injunction granted by the court in favor of the Buck Stove & Range WASHINGTON, June 26 .- President

The Best Treatment for Itching Scalps and Falling Hair

To allay itching and irritation of the scalp, prevent dry, thin and falling hair, remove crusts, scales and dandruff, and promote the growth and beauty of the hair, the following special treatment is most effective, agreeable and economical. On retiring, comb the hair out straight all around, then begin at the side and make a parting, gently rubbing Outicura ofnument into the parting with a bit of soft fannel held over the end of the finger. Anoint additional partings about half an inch apart until the whole scalp has been treated, the purpose being to get the Cuticura ontiment on the scalp skin rather than on the hair. It is well to place a light covering over the hair to protect the pillow from possible stain. The next morning, shampoo with Outicura soap and hot water. Shampoos alone may be used as often as agreeable, but once or twice a month is generally sufficient for this special treatment for women's hair. Notwithstanding Cuticura soap and olutiment are sold everywhere, those without expense by sending to "Cuticura." Dept.
