COURT WARNS SPEEDERS

Maximum Fines to Be Imposed in the Future.

A warning to automobile and motortyple specifiers was given by Judge Taxwell in the Municipal Court yesterday morning, when he announced that he would impose the severest penalties the citrumstances warranted in all cases of exceeding the speed limit.
The announcement came when Deputy District Attorney Hennessy told the court that L. Inglebrock, a stationary engineer in the Goodnough building, who was arrested Tuesday by Patrolman Sims for crossing the Morrison bridge at an excessive speed, was willling to plead guilty and recommended to the court that in consideration of this action a fine of $5 be imposed.
"This court can't begin the practice of imposing $5 fines for such offenses as that," announced the Judge, "Some courts might do it, but this court will not. There have been altogether too many accidents of late due to excessive speeding, and the practice is becoming far too common. The maximum fine is $250 for the offense, and a suggestion of a $5 fine cannot be considered."

Upon his representations and those of the District Attorney, the case was continued indefinitely, with a warning that a severe fine would be imposed if he repeated the offense.

The west-bound husiness has been on the gradual in-crease for many years and is maintain-ing its usual gain this year. The lum-ber movement particularly is encour-aging. In view of the discouraging situation in the lumber market for the last two years this is a most welcome sign to all transportation interests.
