

T. R. CHARGES TAFT HAS JOINED ENEMY

Right to Criticise Administration of Which He Was Adviser Is Denied.

DAY IN OHIO IS BUSY ONE

Colonel Makes 16 Speeches, Ending With One in Canton in Which He Favors Workingmen's Tariff Bureau.

CANTON, O., May 14.—The first day of Colonel Roosevelt's campaign in Ohio ended here tonight with his first prepared speech in the state. It was a day of speeches in quick succession, about 16 in all, as Colonel Roosevelt was hurried through the eastern part of the state.

There were large crowds wherever he spoke. Colonel Roosevelt covered part of the ground which President Taft went over and their paths crossed often.

The ex-President renewed his attack upon his successor. He asserted that he would not reply to the things which Mr. Taft said about him, so far as they were personal, but would confine himself to political principles.

A new point which Colonel Roosevelt developed was his denial of the right of President Taft to criticize acts of the Roosevelt Administration. He took the ground that as a member of the Roosevelt Cabinet Mr. Taft was a part of the Administration and as a candidate for President he made his campaign with the record of the Roosevelt Administration as his platform. He charged that the President had "joined the enemy."

Previous Policies to Continue.

President Roosevelt went on to say that the "bosses" who were against Mr. Taft four years ago were not changed, but that it was Mr. Taft who had changed.

"I stand by all my Administration did," he said, "and I am again elected President I shall try to administer the Government in the interest of all of you, the plain people, just as I strove to administer it before."

Colonel Roosevelt referred repeatedly to the tariff. He advocated the establishment of a bureau to inquire into the effect of the tariff upon workingmen with a view of seeing, he said, that the proper share of the returns set into pay envelopes.

The Colonel predicted his victory confidently. After speaking Colonel Roosevelt left for Cleveland. He is to go to Dayton tomorrow.

Colonel Roosevelt in his speech here tonight said it was his desire to open the campaign in the home town of the late President McKinley.

He renewed his attack on President Taft and the men directing the President's campaign. He referred to Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, as "Taft's lieutenant." He strongly criticized Representative McKinley, manager of the President's campaign, for referring, as the Colonel said, in a public statement to the men who opposed President Taft in the Maryland campaign as "the rabble of the cities." In part he said:

"We who stand for real progress within the Republican party have been accused of preaching class hatred and class hatred. I don't believe that even those who make the accusation believe what they assert. As for the allegation that I stir up class hatred, I can only answer that there is not a class in this country against which I war except the class of crooks, financial crooks and political crooks, big crooks and little crooks. Against all these I do preach war. Indefinitely more than an ordinary party contest. I insist that we who stand for the principles of progressive Republicanism and who therefore stand for making the principles of Abraham Lincoln living principles applied to the living issues of today are fighting the cause, not only of sound Republicanism, but of good citizenship."

"Attorney Logic" Condemned.

"We who endeavor to make the Constitution an instrument through which the people can obtain justice and work out their own salvation are its real defenders, its real upholders. Our opponents are the enemies of the Constitution, in that they invert its loyalty to it, when they invert its true meaning by the refinements of attorney logic."

"Do you think I am preaching revolutionary doctrine? Well, I am only preaching the doctrine which Abraham Lincoln preached and which everyone recognizes now as sane and conservative. I stand for the referendum and Mr. Taft is against it."

"I ask for a referendum on a certain type of state judicial decisions. I ask that the court, as well as the executive and legislative, genuinely represent the will of the people. Mr. Taft says he will protect the courts from the majority of the people."

JUSTICE IS ASKED

Taft in Ohio Says He Wants Only "Square Deal."

APPEAL MADE AT CANTON

President Declares Colonel Has Not Had His Elephant Gun Out for Any "Bosses"—Administration Are Compared.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 14.—"I am here to ask you to do justice and give a square deal to an Administration of the Government of the United States by an Ohio man. I do not ask any favors because I am an Ohio man, but I ask justice. And I don't know any place in which I can make that appeal with more force and more right than in the home of that great Ohio President, William McKinley."

That was the appeal that formed the mainstay of President Taft on the second lap of his campaign tour for support in next Tuesday's primaries largely on the achievements of his Administration and the danger he said lay in the re-election and re-election of Colonel Roosevelt.

The President began the day in East Liverpool and made his last speech here tonight.

Snafes Lighten Programme.

Although Mr. Taft's arguments were not greatly different from those of previous days, there were many incidents that brought a smile to his face and the faces of others who heard him.

The President himself created amusement for his hearers at Akron when he took up his discussion of the bosses and made his usual reference to Colonel Roosevelt's relations with them.

"I didn't see Mr. Roosevelt get out his elephant gun and get after any bosses," the President said.

"I may be puzzle-witted," he said at Canton. "That is a question that you cannot discuss any more than you can discuss whether you are good looking or not. But whether I am puzzle-witted or not, I know the difference between truth and fiction. I know what a square deal is and I know that he doesn't resemble Abraham Lincoln in any respect."

"I hope that when you go back home you will go over the facts that I have stated, and then examine, so far as you may, other sources of information. Listen to Mr. Roosevelt's speeches and see how he specifies; how many indictments he draws are on facts."

Combine Declared by Witness in Suit Against Steel Corporation to Have Admitted Its Desire for Control.

NEW YORK, May 14.—That the American Tinplate Company deliberately suppressed competition and paid rebates to jobbers upon condition that they should handle the trust's goods exclusively was testified today by James T. MacFarland, a Philadelphia lawyer, in the Government's suit to dissolve the United States Steel Corporation.

Later, he said, the American Tinplate Company made an arrangement with jobbers whereby the company offered rebates on condition that the jobbers purchase their tinplate entirely from it. The rebate was from 1 to 3 per cent, he said, and was subsequently based on 90 and then 85 per cent of the total amount the jobber bought.

RUEF'S TALE TO BE TOLD

SAN FRANCISCO BULLETIN TO PUBLISH CONVICT'S STORY.

Detailed Account of Graft Following Earthquake to Be Given When Indictments Are Quashed.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—As the result of the action of the State Court of Appeals late yesterday in dismissing the indictments against Abraham Ruef, former political boss of San Francisco, who is serving a sentence of 14 years in San Quentin Penitentiary for complicity in the corruption which followed the earthquake and fire here, the San Francisco Bulletin announced today that it would resume the publication of Ruef's own story of the inner history of the graft ring.

After publishing one chapter of Ruef's story a few weeks ago, the Bulletin printed the statement that the remainder of the story would be withheld until indictments still standing in the Superior Court should be dismissed.

Under the mandatory writ of the Appellate Court, Judge Frank H. Dunne must dismiss the indictments and it is believed that no action can be taken by the prosecution to prevent their dismissal when they are called in his court Saturday. The Bulletin's statement today said that the narrative would be resumed Monday.

Where Skill Counts Much

Two cameras may take exactly the same picture of a bit of landscape, but let two painters put it upon canvas, at once individuality and character and skill in execution become a great factor.

So with optical prescriptions. The grinding of a lens is largely a matter of the operator's skill.

Here in our prescription department we use the latest electric lens-grinding machinery, which insures promptness and accuracy. But nevertheless the skill of the operator is of the greatest importance. And you may be sure that in gathering knowledge in the school of experience we have not been letting our buckets down into an empty well.

He testified as an expert on conditions in the tinplate industry at the time Mr. Reid and Judge William Moore brought about the consolidation under the control of the American Tinplate Company of New Jersey.

Combine Largely in Control.

"What per cent of the industry was controlled by this combination?" Davis asked.

"My recollection is about 95 per cent."

When R. V. Lindabury, attorney for the Steel Corporation, objected to Davis' answers as "hearsay evidence," on the ground that the witness had not attended the Gary dinners, Mr. Dickenson retorted:

"We'll establish the dates of those dinners later. We are going into that subject quite thoroughly."
