CHERRYVILLE SEEKS PUBLISHER

Cherryville, Clackamas County, the latest addition to the organization of commercial clubs of Oregon, known as the Oregon Development League, A. B. Brooks, secretary of the Cherryville Commercial Club, yesterday sent to the office of the league in Portland, Oreg., for the first year and an application for a membership certificate and a supply of the organization stationery. Into which he desires to have inserted as quickly as possible some of the facts and figures about the prosperity of Clackamas County in general and Cherryville in particular. The first announcement of the intention to organize such a club was received in July. The short time that intervened between this announcement and the news of the organization and application for membership in the Oregon Development League, led C. C. Chapman, secretary of the league, to feel that, though young, the new club was not in any wise lacking in enthusiasm.

EVANGELICAL CHURCHES AWAIT ACTION

Ministers and laymen of the Evangelical Association and United Evangelical churches of Oregon and Washington are waiting for the action of the sub-commission on organization now in session at Linwood, O. A strong petition was sent to the sub-commission from these two branches of the Evangelical church, asking that the organization be provided for at once. Rev. C. C. "Oling, commissioner from the general conference of the United Evangelical churches, said he had no doubt of the outcome and expressed the opinion that the sub-commission will report a basis of organization which will be accepted by both branches. M. C. Mayne represents the Pacific Coast on the sub-commission.

MAYOR INSPECTS BRIDGE

Mayor Threlkeld made an inspection yesterday of the new Steel bridge to ascertain the amount of work to be done before the upper deck will be ready for use by the public. "The bridge is merely of curiosity on my part," explained the Mayor. "I wanted to see how much more the workmen have to do before the bridge can be opened and to ascertain if it will be ready for use by the time the old bridge is closed. I also wanted to get some data regarding the bridge to make use of when I and City Attorney confer with the railroad officials again regarding the leasing of the upper deck by the city. A conference of the Mayor and railroad officials probably will be held Monday.

REMONSTRANCE HALTS GRADE CROSSING WORK

A remonstrance signed by nine property owners in the vicinity of Sandy Road Road yesterday by Attorney M. A. Zollinger, postpones any further operations in the change of grade of the O-W. R. & N. crossing that highway to the east and west improvement proposed provided for the lowering of the railroad tracks to such a grade as will permit viaducts to be put in and do away with the present grade crossings. The remonstrance is signed by S. P. Lockwood, B. M. Lombard, Caroline S. Lombard, Laurelhurst Company, W. W. Dugan, Jr., George J. Perkins, Louise Strube, C. R. Tater, A. H. Stinson. SWIMMING POOLS PAY—So popular were the public swimming pools in the parks and playgrounds of the city during July that the cost of maintenance exceeded all expectations. On all days that were warm it was found necessary to use all the bath towels and suits and to employ every afternoon during July the pools were crowded with bathers for hours at a time.

AT BOTH THE MORNING AND EVENING SERVICES OF THE First Presbyterian Church, Rev. August S. Bruske, late president of Alma College, Michigan, will preach. Morning topic, "The Essential Thing in Religion," evening theme, "The Man of Might." The public is cordially invited to attend.

CLUB MEETINGS OMITTED

During August the East Side Business Men's Club will omit its regular meetings owing to the absence of many of the members. The board of governors will transact any business that may come up during the month.

noon and I have hopes of his recovery now.

"There are symptoms of brain trouble, but in his case it is impossible to say yet whether there is a fracture of the skull."

A severe contusion on the right side of the head, which may cover a fracture, was the most serious injury sustained by Dr. Vincent, who was thrown from his automobile to the track, falling on his head.

He was rendered prompt assistance by men on the train, a stretcher being hastily improvised, in which he was carried to the train and rushed with all speed to Portland. From the North Bank depot he was hurried to the Good Samaritan hospital, where he now lies.

Dr. Vincent is 50 years of age. He has a wife and two children, who were immediately notified of the accident. He has been in practice in Sherwood a number of years and is held in high esteem by the residents there. Dr. Byron E. Miller, who is a personal friend, is attending the case.
