

BEVERIDGE TELLS NEW PARTY HOPES

Modern American Business Laws One Aim, Says Key-note Speaker.

BOSS SYSTEM IS LASHED

Child Labor, Equal Suffrage, Tariff Revision and States' Rights Big Factors in Purposes of Bull Moose Organization.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 5.—Declaring that parties exist for the people and not people for the parties and assailing the Democratic party as too neutral, ex-Senator Alfred J. Beveridge sounded the keynote of the new Bull Moose party here today in his opening address as temporary chairman of the Progressive National convention.

"We stand for a nobler America. We stand for an advance nation. We stand for a broader liberty, a fuller justice. We stand for social brotherhood as against savage individualism. We stand for an intelligent co-operation instead of a reckless competition. We stand for mutual helpfulness, instead of mutual hatred. We stand for 'equal rights' as a fact of life instead of a catch-word of the party."

"We hearken to the call of the present. We mean to make laws fit conditions as they are and meet the needs of the people who are in earnest for them."

"The root of the wrongs," continued the speaker, "which hurt the people is the fact that the people's Government has been taken away from them. Their Government must be given back to the people. And so the first purpose of the Progressive party is to make the rule of the people."

"What then must we do to make American business better? We must do what other nations have done. We must end the abuses of business by striking down those abuses instead of striking down business itself. We must try to make little business big and all business honest instead of striving to make big business little and yet letting it remain dishonest."

"Under the decrees of the courts, the oil and tobacco trusts still can raise prices unjustly and already have done so."

"A tariff high enough to give American producers the American market when they make honest goods and sell them at honest prices but low enough so when they sell dishonest goods and at dishonest prices foreign competition can correct both evils; a tariff high enough to enable American producers to pay our workmen American wages and so arranged that the workmen will get such wages; a business tariff whose changes will be made as to reassure business instead of disturbing it—this is the tariff and the methods of its making in which the Progressive party believes."

"The Payne Aldrich law must be revised immediately, in addition to these principles."

"Abolition of child labor in factories, mines and sweatshops; a plan for old-age pensions were included in the progressive platform by the speaker, who incidentally favored woman suffrage."

"Modern industrialism has changed the status of women," he said. "Women now are wage-earners in factories, stores, and other places of work. In hours of labor and all the physical conditions of industrial effort they must compete with men. And they must do it at lower wages than men receive—wages which, in most cases, are not enough for these women workers to live on."

"The care of the aged is one of the most perplexing problems of modern life. How is the workingman with less than $500 a year and with earning power waning as his own years advance, to provide for aged parents or other relatives in addition to furnishing food, shelter and clothing for his wife and children?"

"The Progressive party is the helping hand to those who are victims of industrialism has maimed and crippled. We are for the conservation of our natural resources, even more so we are for the conservation of human life. Our forests, water power and minerals are valuable and must be saved from the spoilers, but men, women and children are more valuable, and they, too, must be saved from the spoilers."

"Because women, as much as men, are a part of our economic and social life, women, as much as men, should have the voting power to solve all economic and social problems. Votes for women are theirs as a matter of natural right alone; votes for women should be theirs as a matter of political wisdom also."

"The Progressive party asserts anew the vitality of the Constitution. We believe in the true doctrine of states' rights, which forbids the Nation from interfering with states' affairs, and also forbids the states from interfering with National affairs. "From certain sources we hear precepts about the danger of our reforms to American institutions. What is the purpose of American institutions? Why was this Republic established? What does the flag stand for? What do these things mean? "They mean that the people shall be free to correct human abuses. They mean that men, women and children shall not be denied the opportunity to live freer and nobler. They mean that the people shall have the power to make our land each day a better place to live in. They mean that the rule of the people shall be the rule of the people."

"The boss system is unknown and impossible under any other free government in the world. In its very nature it is hostile to the general welfare. Yet it has grown until it now is a controlling influence in American public affairs. At the present moment notorious bosses are in the saddle of both old parties in various important states which must be carried to elect a President."

"Under this boss system, no matter which party wins, the people seldom win; but the bosses almost always win. These special interests which suck the people's substance are bipartisan. They use both parties. They are the invisible government behind our visible Government. Democratic and Republican bosses alike are brother officers of this hidden power."

"The first invisible government which is the real danger to American institutions. Its crude work at Chicago in June, which the people were able to see, was no more wicked than its skillful work everywhere and always which the people are not able to see."

"We have more than enough to supply every human being beneath the flag. There ought not to be in this Republic a single day of bad business, a single unemployed workman, a single unfed child. American business men should never know an hour of uncertainty, discouragement or fear; American workmen never a day of low wages, idleness or want. Hunger should never walk in these thinly peopled gardens of plenty."

"And yet in spite of all these favors which providence has showered upon us, the living of the people is the problem of the hour. Hundreds of thousands of hard-working Americans find it difficult to get enough to live on. The average income of an American laborer is less than $500 a year. With this he must furnish food, shelter and clothing for a family."

"We mean to remedy these conditions. We mean not only to make prosperity but to give to the many who do not earn it a just share of that prosperity instead of helping the few who do not earn it to take an unjust share. Our progressive motto is 'Pass prosperity around.'"

"What, then, is the progressive answer to these questions? We are able to give it specifically and concretely. The first work before us is the revival of honest business. For business is nothing but the industrial and trade activities of all the people. Men grow the products of the field, cut pipe timber from the forest, dig metal from the mine, fashion all for human use, carry them to the market place and exchange them according to their mutual needs—and this is business."

man, of Salem, candidate for Representative in Congress from the First Oregon District, on the Prohibition ticket, concluded their first day's tour of the principal towns of Washington County by a well attended meeting here tonight. At each of the eight towns visited respectful attention was given the speakers. Probably the most successful meeting in point of interest was that which inaugurated the campaign at Sherwood this morning. The speakers were introduced by J. E. Morbank, leading merchant of the town and Prohibition candidate for the Legislature. Accompanied by O. E. Shephard, editor of the Sherwood News-sheet and candidate for County Recorder, Paget and Sullivan traveled in an auto to Tualatin, where they addressed a large audience in front of the postoffice. They spoke also at Tigard and Beaverton this morning, and at Reedville, Cornelius, Hillsboro and Orenco this afternoon. A clear presentation of the principles of the Prohibition party was made at each place. Paget pointed out that the Prohibitionists were the first to favor women's suffrage and said the perplexity of a woman's vote and Republican parties is indicative of popular unrest. Their tour tomorrow will end at Forest Grove.

MRS. McNAMARA FLEES RECONCILIATION SOUGHT BY HUSBAND NOT DESIRED.

Wealthy Woman En Route to California to Avoid Meeting and Protect Her Interests.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—(Special.)—Although Nicholas J. McNamara and his daughter, Miss Gladys, are expected to reach this city tonight or tomorrow, after a hurried journey from San Francisco in an endeavor to effect a reconciliation with Mrs. Margaret I. McNamara, they will be disappointed, for, according to Mrs. McNamara's attorney, John J. McCauley, she left early today for California.

"Mrs. McNamara does not want a reconciliation with her husband," said Attorney McCauley this afternoon. "She has gone to her home in San Mateo, Cal., to avoid meeting him, and also to protect her own interests there. During her stay here she was at the Knickerbocker Hotel, but we permitted no one to see her."

"Mrs. McNamara has been advised that an effort is to be made to have her adjudged incompetent to manage her own affairs, and she wants to fight that proceeding. She is accompanied on her trip homeward by her two sons and a nurse, who has been with her constantly since Mrs. Perkins was torn from her."

Mrs. Perkins and Walsh are still in custody, having been unable to get bail, and their case was adjourned today until Thursday, when it said officials will arrive from San Francisco with an extradition warrant to take them there.

Victim's Money Missing. Disappearance of $50 or more, supposed to have been in the pockets of Maurice N. Costello at the time when he was run down and killed by the police automobile Thursday night, is being made the subject of an investigation by his friends. The supposition of the loss rests upon the fact that Costello telephoned to his wife before starting home, that he would bring the money, while the cash found upon him at the hospital amounted to less than $1.

HANFORD NOW OUT

Taft Accepts Seattle Jurist's Resignation From Bench.

PROCEEDINGS ARE DROPPED

President Acts Upon Recommendation of Committee Which Was Making Investigation of Judge's Conduct.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—President Taft today accepted the resignation of Federal Judge Hanford of Seattle, tendered while Judge Hanford's conduct on the bench was being investigated by a Congressional committee.

The committee advised acceptance of the resignation and the dropping of impeachment proceedings.

HANFORD GIVES HIS OPINION Judge Calls Attention to 85 Witnesses Testifying for Him.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 5.—(Special.)—Judge Hanford, this morning following the receipt of the President's action, discussed for the first time the evidence, which was introduced against him at the trial and his own future intentions. He said he took satisfaction in knowing that he had incurred the ill-will of disappointed litigants and others, who care nothing for the principles of right and justice. Judge Hanford said: "In his testimony before the subcommittee, Judge Thomas Burke answering a gross slander, said: 'I have seen him in my residence here weekly and almost daily, and I never saw him under the influence of liquor of any kind in any way. The 150 volumes of the Federal Reporter issued since he became judge contain the conclusive proof of the enormous amount of work he has done. In quality and quantity I believe that volume of work has not been surpassed by any Federal, District or Circuit Judge in the United States in any period of our history.'"

"Eighty-five other witnesses testified in my favor including lawyers and business men of Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Bellingham and other localities, giving me as clear a vindication as possible in a proceeding declared to be for the purpose of securing incriminating evidence."

"My chief compensation for the service rendered is in the consciousness that my work has been well done and that those best able to judge of its merit approve it. The pecuniary reward which I have received has been inadequate."

"I have a right to feel that I have rendered my share of service to the public and to reserve some of my energy for the benefit of myself and my family. I am not broken down nor incapacitated for work. The best years of my life are still ahead of me."

Perry was appointed Assistant District Attorney in 1895, and in 1911 was mentioned as a candidate for Justice of the State Supreme Court.

FUND FOR BECKER WILL BE $50,000

So-Called Police "Sytem" Is Collecting Money for Accused's Defense.

INDICTMENT IS ATTACKED

Lieutenant Withdraws Plea of Not Guilty to Offer Motions for Invalidating Charges—Trio of Lawyers Helping.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—A police fund of $50,000 is being raised for the defense of Charles Becker, the police lieutenant charged with instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, according to information in the hands of District Attorney Whitman.

The money is being collected, it is said, by the so-called "system" which is to be investigated by the District Attorney, who believes that between the "system" and the "gambling fraternity" there is a corrupt alliance founded on graft and blackmail. Information of the $50,000 fund came to the prosecutor in connection with the arraignment today of Becker to answer the indictment against him. In the legal proceedings, which included the withdrawal by Becker of his plea of "not guilty" to offer motions to invalidate the indictment, the prisoner was represented by three lawyers, one of whom mysteriously withdrew, while the others seemed doubtful of their own status when the proceedings were over. It was said the lawyers were not satisfied with the collectors of the defense fund.

Move to Dismiss Made. John W. Hart, who conducted today's proceedings, moved to dismiss the indictment on the ground that it was irregular. He also moved to review the grand jury minutes and to take evidence to show whether the ground for the indictment was sufficient. Judge Mulqueen set the case over until Wednesday.

The fact that Becker was to appear for arraignment attracted an immense crowd. Among them were many gamblers and characters of the underworld. The crowd became so dense that the corridors were cleared and only persons having business were admitted to the courtroom.

While the police are searching the Catskills for "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie," two of the alleged murderers of Rosenthal, private detectives employed by the District Attorney are looking for them in Boston. The District Attorney heard today a voluntary witness who accused two policemen of failing to arrest the missing men when they were arrested. He also moved to review the grand jury minutes and to take evidence to show whether the ground for the indictment was sufficient. Judge Mulqueen set the case over until Wednesday.

Police to Be Investigated. The Board of Aldermen adopted a resolution this afternoon providing for an investigation of the police department. A special committee headed by Alderman Curran was appointed to conduct the investigation, while $25,000 was appropriated to bear the expense. Six Republicans or fusionists and three Democrats comprise the committee.

Coos Bay Gets Public Hearing. WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Congressman Hawley has been advised that Major Morrow has been instructed by General W. H. Major Morrow is also called upon for a report and recommendation regarding the route's application to cross the Umpqua River near Reed's Point.
