ROOSEVELT GRIN STIRS DELEGATES

Deafening Uproar, Lasting 57 Minutes, Follows Appearance on Stage.

SPEECH WILDLY CHEERED

Colonel, by Request, Effusively Shakes Hands With 'Teddy Bear' Offered by Admirer-Negro Contestants Barred.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—Songs and party yells whiled away the time at the National Progressive convention today after the delegates assembled and while they were waiting to be called to order. Occassionally there came the long low "moo" of the bull moose. The women delegates in various state organizations stood up on chairs with the men and joined in the cheers and songs that kept things in an uproar until the gavel fell.

Suddenly the Colorado folk sprang a big sign and carried it about the hall. It read:
"No more Guggenheim; no more De-

'No more Guggenheim; no more Devine; no more 'Angel Archie,' for us. Down with the bosses."

The Coloradoans explained that by 'Angel Archie' was meant A. M. Ste-venson of that state, sometimes known as "Big Steve."

The Michigan delegates started new song, which soon was caught up by the other delegations until soon practically the entire floor was sing-ing. This is the way it went:

Follow, follow,
We will follow Receivelt,
Anywhere, everywhere,
We will follow on,
At 12:35 Senator Dixon interrrupted
the singing by rapping for order.

Colonel Nelson Lives in Future. Chairman Beveridge caused to be read a telegram from Colonel William R. Nelson, of the Kansas City Star. It was dated Magnolia, Miss., and was Lord, how I wish I were with you What a great day—the launching of a party of imagination, hope and prospects. We can afford to give the other fellows their memories and disappoint-ments. The past has no interest for us. The future is our fruit. Give Colonel The future is our fruit. Give Colonel Roosevelt my love. I have never missed a chance to place a bet on him, and have never lost when there was a square deal. The Lord is surely with us. He has given us the men, as well as the opportunity. I cannot help but feel what a narrow escape we had in the June convention. Roosevelt might have been nominated there. My congratulations to everybody and regret that I cannot be with you."

Wild applause followed the reading of the telegram.

The delegates cheered for several minutes when Colonel Roosevelt declared that instead of advocating Socialism or anarchy, he really was urging "a corrective to Socialism and an ination."

wild applause followed the reading of the telegram.

It was 12:47 when Chairman Bevaridge announced the arrival of Colonel Roosevelt at the Coliseum. Delegates and the galleries jumped to their feet and cheered. A minute later the Colonel appeared on the stage, almost as if by magic. In the midst of the insulated speaking platform under the big sounding board. He bowed to tight and left with a broad grin and avaved greetings to friends on the stage and floor.

Hysterical Crewd Fills Aisics.
In the midst of the uproar an Oklahoma delegate tore the state's standard from its place and started up the center aisie. In a minute the aisics were filled with a confused hysterical crowd.
