Only One of Any Piece to a Customer-NoPhone Orders

THE woman who prides herself on the contents of her Linen chest shouldn't fail to visit Portland's best Linen Store—here in our first floor section!

And the finest Linens the Old World produces are here for your selection! From Austria, Belgium and Ireland they come! The famous John S. Brown Linens here exclusively.

Included among the new patterns for Cloths and Napkins are the elegant plain and medallion centers with satin band borders, the handsome sunburst pattern, new polka dot in round design, the famous Queen Household pattern on hand-loom damask, said to be the same quality and weave as used in the olden days.

High quality and moderate prices, aside from varied and complete assortments are the factors that make this the popular section it is. See the new patterns today!

Notes From the Receiving Room

EVIDENCE enough that our department managers are in Eastern markets when we view the immense shipments of new Fall merchandise that arrive daily at the Big Store. Just a hint here. For Men—There's a splendid array of nobby Fall Hats in all the smooth or rough fabrics that bespeak Fall and Winter days to come. Soft Hats and Derbies, smart blocks of the John B. Stetson, Mallory cravenetted, Schoebel & Roelof's Smile. New blocks on our guaranteed $3 Hat. Others range from $2 to $5. And the Women's Hats were never more charming! Included in the early showing are creations from such modistes as Phipps, Gage, Buggesser, Hyland. Plenty of the smart soft and stiff felts in white and colors. Tailored Hats with jaunty trimmings. The new Veils are of such weaves that add to milady's beauty. Predominant among them are the fine though firm shadow and mesh veilings in white and colors to match the new Fall millinery. Priced at 35c to $2 a yard. See, too, the favored Drape Veils of handsome Chantilly lace, in white and black. For the hat and face, fashion says correct. $2.50-$5.
