WEATHER OUTLOOK GOOD FOR GAME TODAY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Rain is not likely to interfere with the playing of the fourth game of the world's series here tomorrow, according to the local weather bureau.

THE PITCHING BEING DONE BY WAGNER, DEVORE AND FLETCHER.

The largest crowd that ever saw a ball game in Boston passed through the turnstiles of Fenway Park.

ALL STANDS JAMMED.

All the stands were jammed and hundreds stood behind temporary fences in the back field.

PLAYERS TO GET $4000 EACH.

This compares with $127,510 for their entire share last year.

CROWD YELLS AT MARQUARD.

The crowd began to stamp their feet and yell at Marquard, but the Sox pitcher kept his nerve.

MURRAY FIRST TO SCORE.

Murray started the New York contingent to cheering when he came up in the second inning and drove a hit to right center for two bases.

DEVORE AVERTS DEFEAT.

Devore, at bat, struck out O'Brien, but he was not out of the game.

SOX WHO LOSE, 2-1.

The Sox were defeated by the Giants, 2-1, in a thrilling game at Fenway Park.
