

VOTES for WOMEN

"I go for all sharing the privileges of government who assist in bearing its burdens, BY NO MEANS EXCLUDING WOMEN." —Abraham Lincoln.

"Colorado has the sanest, the most humane, the most progressive, most scientific laws relating to the child to be found on any statute books in the world. ★ ★ ★ And not one but owes its inception or its success to the voting woman." —Judge Ben Lindsay.

"I personally believe that it would be for the good of US ALL for women to be enfranchised." —John Mitchell.

"It is un'air that women should be governed by laws in the making of which they have no voice." —Samuel Gompers.

Women are, by nature and training, housekeepers. Let them have a hand in the city's housekeeping, even if they introduce an occasional housecleaning.

Eighty per cent of the women voting in the last election in Seattle were married—the women of the home.

Voting takes but a few minutes and can be done on the way to market.

If only one woman wanted the ballot, why should any other woman's objection prevent her from having it?

"Woman needs the ballot; but more than that, the time has now come when the ballot needs the woman." —Clifford Howard.

Suffragists do not believe so poorly of women as to think the bad would out-vote the good. It would put a low estimate upon the women of Oregon if they did.

"Because women, as much as men, are a part of our economic and social life, women, as much as men, should have the voting power to solve all economic and social problems." —Senator Beveridge.

"The most urgent demand for woman's suffrage should be from the men, who need the help of the best portion of the race in the effort to make good government." —Professor W. H. Carruth.

OREGON LEADS THE WEST AND THE WEST LEADS THE EAST in most things, but in Equal Suffrage, while the West does lead the East, Oregon does not lead the West. Let Oregon be loyal tomorrow and make a solid West for suffrage, by voting 300 X YES.
