Increases for the year and the some thrashed out. Mayor Rushlight is of the opinion that there should be some rises, but he favors the morit system, as he says some employes are worthy and some not of advanced pay. Councilman Daly is fighting for in-creases for the laborers, ahead of all other simployes, as he says they stand most in need of help. He describes their condition as "a tragedy." They now are paid $2.75 a day and are ask-ing for $3. They work eight hours daily. Councilman Baker, who is one of the Mayor's political licutenants, probably will take a leading part in the debates this morning. He will support the Mayor's contention for application of the merit system for all of the city employes. Ho declares that he be-lieves, however, that the same rate of pay should apply to all laborers. In other baranches of the sarys of he sarys
