Measure Providing for Cutting of Weeds Is Re-referred.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Jan. 23.

(Special.)—That the House will pass another of the vetoed bills of the 1511 session over the Governor's evto is indicated by the vote today on the recommendation of the committee on roads and highways that action on vetoed House bill No. 13 be indefinitely postponed. The bill requires that farmers must keep certain kinds of weeds cut on roads contiguous to their property. The five varieties of weeds named in the bill are more prevalent in the wheat districts of the motion cacept the condemned the bill to the limbo of lost legislation, was more than the two-thirds that which would have been required to pass the bill over the vero had it been up for passage. The bill was re-referred to the committee on agriculture, which was suggested as a more fitting committee to consider it, inasmuch as its provisions affect farmers entirely.

Water Power Expenditures.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Jan. 23.

(Special.)—Rechamation of srid lands and development of water power are given constitutional recognition as part of the state's activities in a resolution introduced in the Senate by Thompson today, carrying a constitutional amendment to be referred to the people.

The proposed amendment is alteration of section 7, article XI, of the state constitution, which limits the credit of the state to $50,000, except in the case of rebellion or invasion, or for the construction of public highways.

The proposed amendment also excepts from such limitation the reclamation of arid lands or the development of water power.
