Ex-Champion to Meet Murphy Weighing Under 133, Is Trainer's Promise.

PAIR TO LEAVE WEDNESDAY

Fighter Contemplates Adding His Share of Purse to Fund to Be Invested in Ranch Near Nashville, Oregon.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Wolgaat will enter the ring in better physical condition than at any time in his career. He will weigh between 132 and 133 pounds and will beat Murphy.

Between gasps for breath, following a ten-mile run through the hills west of the city, Jack King, father of Mrs. Hatting Nelson and Wolgaat's new trainer, made his emphatic prediction yesterday about the February 22 Wolgaat-Murphy bout at San Francisco.

Wolgaat stepped onto the scales after his workout yesterday and tipped the beam at 134 1/2 pounds. He is heavier than at a corresponding time prior to any other fight and for once will train down instead of up. Wolgaat and King will leave Portland Wednesday for San Francisco and will have only one or two boxing sessions before changing bases.

Peter Grant, a well-known pugilistic expert, has been watching King's handling of the ex-lightweight champion, and he, too, is enthusiastic over the Cadillac wildcat's condition. He predicts a Wolgaat victory.

At any rate, the coming 133-pound tussle is destined to exert a tremendous influence over Wolgaat's future activities. He announced yesterday that the $25,000 or $10,000 he expects to take in from the Murphy bout will be sufficient to swing the big ranch deal he has been considering since coming to Oregon.

Wolgaat says he intends to purchase 1700 acres near Nashville, 20 miles west of Albany and six miles from the railroad line running over to Newport, on the Pacific coast. He and Mrs. Wolgaat looked the property over a fortnight ago prior to the matching for the Murphy bout, and Ad, virtually abandoned thoughts of coming to the purchase because of the amount involved, something in the neighborhood of $8,000.

The "velvet" from the Washington birthday bout, however, will swell Ad's available cash balance to sufficient proportions to make the "buy" possible. The rough land will cost him in the neighborhood of $15 per acre, but he expects to invest from $15,000 to $20,000 in buildings and stock.

"When I give up boxing as a livelihood I intend to come to Oregon and make this state my future home," said he last night, fingering a $225 14-karat chateleine purse purchased at a local jewelry emporium as a present for his wife. "I had a better idea of a 400-acre ranch near Medford, but this Nashville ranch looks pretty good to me now."

Wolgaat and King inspected a 400-acre tract near Heilens some time ago, but the property did not impress the ex-champion.

MURPHY SAYS HE WILL WIN

"Harlem Tommy" Glad He Is to Fight Wolgaat Instead of Mandot.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—"Harlem Tommy" Murphy, who will meet Ad Wolgaat here in a 20-round fight February 22, arrived here tonight from Chicago. He left the city before receiving Promoter Coffroth's telegram sent Friday, telling him to await final settlement of the match before coming West. Murphy will begin training immediately at a beach resort.

"I am glad I am to meet Wolgaat instead of Joe Mandot," said Murphy, "as it will place me in a better position for the championship. I will begin to get in shape tomorrow and will work hard. I expect to win."

TRAINER PRAISES ANDERSON

Charles Du Puis Says Vancouver Fighter Underestimated by Fans.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 9.—(Special) Charles Du Puis, trainer of Anderson, of this city, aspirant to the lightweight championship of the world, underestimated his ability as a fighter in the opinion of Charles Du Puis, of Vancouver, an early trainer of Anderson, who is now in Los Angeles.

In speaking of Anderson today Du Puis said:

"Of course, I will admit he doesn't know it all when it comes to fighting, but he is one who is always ready to learn. He has a peculiar way of his own in fighting and his peculiar cellular way will make him champion some day. He has a punch that would be a credit to a middleweight, and you will never see him send himself unless he is compelled to do so. There was no more to Bud than the others he has beaten. I trained Bud for more than two years and know him to be a good clean fighter and a game one. Any 133-pounder whom he can hit he can beat."

BENCH SHOW IS DISCUSSED

Meeting of Kennel Club Called for Tuesday to Fill Vacancies.

Another meeting of the Portland Kennel Club has been called for Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the offices of Dr. George B. Story in the Selling building.

The filling of the vacancies caused by the resignations of Frank E. Watkins, president, and W. E. Fechtelmer, secretary, will likely be filled at this meeting, and final action taken as to whether Portland is to stage the annual bench show.

"The matter will have to be settled this week or Portland will have no show at all," declared J. J. McCarthy, last night. "It requires five or six weeks of hard plugging to arrange for the show, and it will have to be held the last week in March or the first week in April to get in on the circuit."

The site being most widely discussed is the present location of the McCredie Billiard Parlors, which will be vacated on April 1. The building may be razed but the Kennel Club officials believe they can squeeze in a week before the demolition process begins. The building is ideal for show purposes.

Club Meeting Postponed.

The Portland Motorboat Club will not hold its meeting tonight, owing to the absence of several moving spirits. Commodore C. W. Boone set March 10 as the date for the meeting of the club members, and the site committee will make its report then. Changes in the present by-laws will also come up for discussion.

Universities of Oregon and Washington Call Off Proposed Berkeley Trip.

DATE CONFLICT IS CAUSE

Northern Track Men to Compete at Eugene May 9 and Meet in California Is Scheduled for May 10--Change Impossible.

Portland will not entertain the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate track and field championships this summer, and will with the Universities of Oregon and Washington send athletes to the fourth Coast championships at Berkeley, Cal., May 10.

This important announcement was made by Arthur M. Geary, graduate manager of athletics at the University of Oregon, last night upon his arrival in Portland from Eugene en route to Seattle.

The southern colleges have refused to come north and have also backed out of a change in the date selected, and, as it conflicts with the dates of the dual meet between Washington and Oregon at Eugene, there will be nothing doing on a California jaunt.

"We meet Washington May 9 at Eugene and hold the state intercollegiate meet May 10, so cannot give those events up for the California meet," said Manager Geary. "I have done my utmost to have the Californians come north, but Donald's letter just received seems to indicate that more efforts will not meet with success. Donald, however, is only one of four in charge."

The letter manager Donald, of California, says in part:

"I have talked over the matter of going north to Portland with the other colleges, and all agree that it would be a mistake to leave the San Francisco Bay district for the reason that the Universities of California, Stanford and Nevada, Pomona and Occidental College and the University of Southern California would have to travel through San Francisco to reach Portland. And, vice versa, they would have to travel through San Francisco to go to Los Angeles."

Last year Oregon took second place to California in the meet and Washington fourth. It was in that meet that McClure established the new Coast record in the 440-yard dash, 4 minutes 24.5 seconds. He also beat Crabbe in the two-mile run. Hawkins defeated both Beeson and Kelly, the latter the Oregon high-jump champion, in the high sticks that day. Oregon had only five men entered against a dozen entry for Stanford and California.

Charles T. Clark Apprehended by Federal Authorities Alleged to Have Obtained Pass for Affinity in Spouse's Name.

By a Federal indictment for a violation of the Interstate Commerce Act, the alleged double life of Charles T. Clark, clerk in the O.-W. R. & N. Company's ticket office at the Union Depot, is revealed a necessary element of the offense charged against him being that the woman with whom he has lived in Portland for three years, is not his wife. Following an indictment by the Federal grand jury, Clark was arrested at his home by Deputy Marshal Lorne McCourt, and furnished a $1000 bond for his appearance.

The offense charged is a violation of the anti-pass clause of the Hepburn act, which penalizes the giving of false representations to obtain free transportation to a person not included in the classes to whom passes may be furnished. It is specified that Clark obtained for his supposed wife, transportation between Spokane and Walla Walla, representing that she was the wife of an employee, to whom the Interstate Commerce Law permits such transportation to be given.

Clark has made frequent use of the privilege, which is accorded generally to employees, but only recently the railroad officials learned of the alleged lack of legal relationship between him and the woman who was receiving the passes. As a continuance of the privilege, but only recently by the railroad officials learned of the alleged lack of legal relationship between him and the woman who was receiving the passes.
