Cities in Washington Assure Support and Need for Immediate Action Is Seen.

Assured of substantial support from the State of Washington, A. D. Charlfor the Northern Pacific, who recently visited the cities on Puget Sound, is more firmly than ever convinced that the states of the Northwest should unite in establishing, immediately, in the East a bureau for the purpose of inducing visitors to the World's Fair in San Francisco in 1815 to travel through Portland, Tacoma and Seattle. He said the Wathinster pacific with the cities Portland, Tacoma and Seattle. He said the Washington people think the cities should get together immediately. Mr. Charlton outlined his plan to the Washington people of using a part of the appropriations from each state to establish and maintain a bureau at some central point in the East from which information concerning the which information concerning the Northwest shall be dispensed and from which shall be directed the work of in-ducing prospective travelers to buy tickets that will provide a trip through the Northwest on either the westbound or the eastbound journey.

He points out that this work is necessary in addition to the work that the railroads naturally will do. It will give the efforts of the Northwest in this direction an official tone, and in turn will give the travelers more confidence in the intentions of the Northwest in ask-ing them to some here. About $25,000 to be contributed by the several states in the Northwestern
