WHO'S WHO AT TRAINING CAMP

L. William Henry James, Pitcher.

HEN-"BILL" James abandoned college for the pitcher's box after one year of higher learning.

He looked good enough to Harry Davis for a trial last Spring, however, and remained on the bench, occasionally finishing an inning or two when, in response to appeals from Toledo for help, James was shunted back to his old love.

He broke about even in wins and losses the rest of the season.

Now "Bill" is with Portland and at once jumps into the limelight as a claimant for the Pike's Peak championship of the Pacific Coast League.

Monseigneur James has often been labeled as a "wild" man, but he denies liberal propensities.

"I have never walked in a run since I began pitching," he insists. "Last year I walked only 78 men in 36 games and that certainly doesn't show me up as lacking control."

One thing, sure, I never let up and never will let it have to walk in a row."

Glancing the big fellow from the sidewalk and looking him squarely in the face from the story window, it must be said that he appears to possess enough goods in bulk to make some of the rival coast batsmen emulate that much abused silhouette seeking quadruped, the ground porker.

William Henry James? Yes, that's the fellow.

ENGINEER FINDS THE VERY LATEST METHOD

To Keep the Machinery of the Body in Condition Is the Use of Plant Juice.

Here is a statement from another San Franciscan regarding Plant Juice. Mr. R. Cummings, a marine engineer, whose home is at 1101 O'Farrell street, San Francisco, and who is very well known in that city, told the following:

"I want two more bottles of Plant Juice, as I expect to sail the last of the week and want to continue taking it. I have suffered for a long time with catarrh and stomach trouble. My stomach would bloat after meals and I had dull headaches, had a bad taste in my mouth in the mornings and an accumulation of mucus that was very disagreeable. I have come to the conclusion that I really had catarrh of the stomach also. I began taking Plant Juice about ten days ago and was surprised at the quick results. It began to help me right away. My stomach is in good shape and my appetite is good; my head does not ache and feels clear in the mornings. I feel sure that I have struck the right treatment at last."

Few people realize that the hawking and spitting that they do in the day is not kept up at night, thereby permitting the catarrh to creep into the stomach until the bowels and stomach are also affected. Plant Juice is taken up by the circulation and by its wonderful curative and healing powers relieves catarrh of any part of the body. This is the time of the year for treatment of catarrh. The rains and dampness are a constant irritation to the mucous membrane. Plant Juice keeps the mucous surface clean and so guards against this disagreeable disease. Plant Juice is a vegetable remedy and the most marvelous tonic of the age for nervous debility, stomach trouble and ailments of the liver and kidneys. It revitalizes and tones up the entire system. If you have indigestion, loss of appetite, rheumatism, pains in the back, joints, malaria, and general run-down condition, you should try Plant Juice. It has cured others and will do the same for you. For sale at The Owl Drug Co., Seventh and Washington. Your money back if it does not help you.

Williams, the Kansas white hope, knocked out Jack Leon, the former wrestler, in the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round bout. It was an easy victory for the Kansan.

Leon clinched often in the first three rounds and the Kansan found it difficult to land effectively. In the second round he closed Leon's left eye. The fighters were mixing fiercely in the fourth round when suddenly Willard's left shot out to the jaw and Leon dropped. The knockout was a clean one and it was fully three minutes before the defeated man was able to walk to his dressing-room.

BOXING DATE MAY BE SHIFTED

Probable Coming of Olympic Club Men Requires Another Change.

The date of the city boxing championships is on the verge of another shift. This time from March 27-28 to April 17-18.

Edgar E. Frank, of Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, which is to stage the city mitt title affair, received word yesterday from Phil Wand, boxing commissioner of Olympic Club, San Francisco, that every effort will be made to send a squad of boxers to Portland for a programme on March 28.

As originally scheduled the Olympic club boxers were billed to appear in Portland on March 28. Nothing was heard from the Californians and Frank, as a last resort, decided to switch the April city championships to March and fill the April date with boys from the James Bay Athletic Club of Victoria, B. C. New Wand telegraphed that he has been in Mexico for several weeks, thus accounting for the failure of the Olympic Club to continue negotiations.

Frank sent a telegram to Wand yesterday asking for three boxers for the March 28 bill, naming four weights, 115, 125, 135 and 175 pounds, for the athletic clubs. The Winged "M" boys are Belmont, 108-pound; Powers, 125-pound; Schmeer, 135-pound, and Miesbus, light heavyweight.

Tommy Tracey and four of his boxers leave today for Victoria, B. C., where they clash with James Bay Athletic Club boxers tomorrow night in the first interclub meet between the two ship began when the two were students at Oregon Agricultural College, were married today by Dr. J. C. Rollins, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal Church. They left for Portland.
