

MISS EMERSON IS FREED FROM JAIL

Mother Takes Daughter to Hospital and Foils Militant Friends.

KIDNAPING ATTEMPT FAILS

American Suffragette Liberated Earlier Than Expected and Radicals Are Unable to Get Interview Before Parent Sees Her.

LONDON, April 8.—Miss Zelle Emerson, a suffragette, of Jackson, Mich., was released from Holloway Jail at 9 o'clock tonight. She was taken by her mother to a nursing home, where she will receive medical treatment.

Mrs. Emerson feels grave anxiety for her daughter's condition and will not permit her to see anyone.

Kidnaping Is Frustrated.

Certain of the more militant friends of Miss Emerson, including a number of Americans who were displeased with Mrs. Emerson's abandoning the campaign to force intervention by the American Embassy, planned to take away the daughter without her mother's knowledge, in an automobile, so that they might get an interview without the mother's moderating influence.

International Issue Sought.

The more radical among the Americans held the belief that the case offered a chance to make the question of forcible feeding an international matter, while the militants generally welcomed it as another opportunity for getting the political government into hot water.

Mrs. Emerson, who was taken from the jail in a motor ambulance, was followed by a large number of suffragettes, who had gathered in momentary expectation of the release of Mrs. Emmaline Pankhurst.

$100 IS ADDED TO RELIEF

Chamber of Commerce Fund Rising Toward $15,000 Mark.

More than $100 was contributed to the flood sufferers' relief fund at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, bringing the total amount now available for distribution in the stricken districts of the Middle West near the $1000 mark.

Inasmuch as the Chamber of Commerce committee already has sent $12,500 to the Governors of the flooded states, this balance makes it more than probable that the aggregate collected through the local organization, will exceed $15,000.

Many communities outside of Portland are sending their collections to the committee for transmission. The following contributions came in yesterday: Everett, Wash., $14,370.05; Elsie Wagoner, $200; Club of St. Helens, $4.19; H. Elliott, The Dalles, Ore., $10; and O. J. ... $200.

POPE'S CONDITION ALARMS

State, his sisters and a niece, had received no visitors.

Chemist Gives Stimulants.

At 7 o'clock Monday night the Pope retired to his study. He had complained of feeling over-tired. At just what hour he was overcome by a fainting spell has not been ascertained, but members of the household rushing to his assistance realized that his condition was serious and became greatly alarmed, as no physician was present. Father Presdicino, the Vatican chemist, was called and administered stimulants, which revived the pontiff.

Physicians Order Complete Rest.

By order of the physicians, all audiences were suspended and the Pope remained in bed throughout the day. On his last visit, Dr. Marchisafa found condition satisfactory, although the pontiff was extremely weak.

Fainting Spells Not New.

For years the Pope has suffered from fainting spells, with uraemic symptoms and fainting spells, the latter gradually increasing in intensity and frequency. It must be remembered, however, that only a few days after his election to the pontificate, Pope Pius XI had been taken to the Pauline chapel, while hearing mass. If the Pope, as is hoped, succeeds in recovering from the present attack, it is announced he will definitely abandon all fatiguing ceremonies, even audiences, which, the doctors declare, in his condition would result in grave consequences.

Informed that he must suspend all audiences, as he was to have received today 1500 pilgrims.

Frequently today he repeated how sorry he was not to see so many old friends, adding with a melancholy touch, in the Venetian dialect: "I am no more use, either to myself or others."

Pope Jokes With Visitor.

On Monday the Pope, who had resumed his ordinary routine of life, received, among others, Cardinal Katschthaler, archbishop of Salzburg, with whom he joked, remarking that the newspapers had attributed to him all kinds of illnesses and disabilities. He said: "They have written that my legs are so affected that I cannot walk, while I look at me." So saying, he walked about the room.

They have printed that my throat, bronchial tubes and lungs are so bad that I cannot speak, while now you hear. Besides, my whole trouble could hardly be called illness, as my temperature never rose above 98. The fact is my real disease is old age."

To this, Cardinal Katschthaler replied that he himself was suffering from the same disease, in an aggravated form, but that he was two years older than the pontiff.

Fever Has Exceeded 100.

When they parted, the Pope again referred to his temperature as not having gone above 98 degrees. Cardinal Katschthaler, later called on Monsignor Bressan, private secretary to the Pope, and learned that his fever had gone above 100, thus drawing the conclusion that the truth had been concealed from the Pope in order not to alarm him.

3000 MILITIAMEN OUT

THREE REGIMENTS CALLED FOR BUFFALO STRIKE DUTY.

Rioting in Connection With Suspension of Work by Carmen Assumes Serious Aspect.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 7.—Orders were issued tonight for 3000 state militiamen to report at once for strike duty in connection with the carmen's strike on the International Railway Company's lines. In addition to the Seventy-fourth and Sixty-fifth regiments, all of the Third Regiment, except two companies now on strike duty at Auburn, were ordered out.

The Buffalo militiamen, the Sixty-fifth and Seventy-fourth regiments, were ordered out by Justice Brown of the Supreme Court on application of the company's attorneys after a day of serious rioting, which affidavits presented declared the police force was unable to prevent.

Later General Welch, commander of the Fourth Brigade, ordered the available companies of the Third Regiment to report for strike duty at once.

The survey shows that it is only a distance of eight and a half miles and that there is about a 10 per cent grade. If this road is built it will open up a rich territory, the residents of which will be given access to a good market and transportation facilities. As it is the people of Wildwood and vicinity have to go nearly 20 miles for their supplies.

PROFESSOR FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

Jury Acquits Olson for Killing Alleged Wrecker of His Home.

EDUCATOR WEEPS IN COURT

Wife and Daughter Await Liberated Man, Who Tells of Happy Family Reunion Soon to Be Held. Emotion Is Keen.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 8.—The jury in the case of Professor Oscar M. Olson formerly of the University of Minnesota farm school, charged with the murder of Clyde N. Darling, alleged wrecker of the Olson home, returned a verdict of not guilty at 8:30 o'clock tonight.

As the words "not guilty" fell from the lips of the foreman, Olson, who had been brought in a courtroom, started to rise, staggered and dropped back into his seat. He recovered his self composure and with tear-dimmed eyes shook hands with the jurors and the judge.

Wife and Daughter Await.

"There is going to be a happy reunion at the Olson home tonight," was all Professor Olson would say as he started for his home, where his wife and daughter were awaiting by his wife and little daughter.

The case went to the jury late today after a session of court which was filled with surprises.

In charging the jury, Judge Orr ruled that a verdict of manslaughter might be brought in as well as a verdict of first or second degree murder or acquittal.

The first sensation was sprung today by Prosecutor O'Brien, who secured permission to reopen the taking of testimony. John Keefe, manager of the laundry, where Darling formerly worked, testified he had heard Olson threaten to "shoot Darling like a dog."

Prosecutor Assails Olson.

In his closing statement Prosecutor O'Brien made a biting arraignment of Mrs. Olson, saying that "it taken two days to bring about a verdict. He declared that Olson was a coward without a spark of manhood to permit his wife to bare her dishonor as she had done in this case."

Darling was shot by Olson at the rear door of the Olson home on March 5. Mrs. Olson testified that in April, 1911, Darling had begun to pay her attentions, her husband being out of the city a large part of the time.

After several meetings had been going on for some time, she declared on the stand, she begged Darling to stay away from her. He refused, she said, and when she threatened to tell her husband all he replied that she would not dare, and threatened her husband's life. Mrs. Olson finally confessed to her husband her relations with Darling.
