FEW CLIPS SELLING

Trading in Oregon Now Is on Free Wool Basis.

CONSIGNMENTS BEING MADE

Majority of Growers Are Dispose to Hold Back for Public Sales Days-Operations in Neighboring States on Small Scale.

The little livelness that is possing in the bregen wool market now is practically o might in the past few days at prices rangting from 15 wile under last year's market, from consignments are also being made to Boston. No large quantity has been either sold or consigned, however, and it is only odd lote that are being disposed of.

The growers are not showing a general inclination to let go at this time, prefering to hold their clips for the public sales days. then the dealers believe the efferings will

Southern Utah but little wool remains be sold. California buyers have bought vada wool at 12 cents. Another Newada mated clear cost of about 50 cents landed. Commenting on the Eastern situation, the Beston Commercial Bulletin says:

"The market for wool and wool textiles is still hedged about with much uncertainty, and the majority, both of manufacturers and wool merchants, are indisposed to un-dertake new contracts at the rates at which deriake new contracts at the case of the case of the this rule is found either in the case of the faking a little wool again this week in the case of those few man Vest, or else in the case of those few maninfacturers who have some immediate needs to cover, and for the wools they want will pay rates considerably higher than those which the new clip wools are likely to bring. To complicate the price question still further, the new clip wools are beginning to arrive, although not in large quantities as yet. For these woels manufacturers are very joth, against the price of the price question of the as yet. For these woels manufacturers are very loth, apparently, to pay a price in exess of a half dollar clean basis. Some new talks have been offered at 17 cents, which could probably exceed this cost, and it is industroed that no sales have been made.

the volume of trade is evidently small. Club was quoted firm at 99 cents. Binestem was quiet, although there was more disposition

This year prices started up with mills almost bare of feed and retail and warehouse trade buying from hand to mouth, as at present. Only about half a dozen mills today are running in the entire Northwest, and of these, three contemplate shulting alows this month. Owing to the long drouth in California, the demand is increasing rapidly and prices rising, with almost no stuff to offer. The outlook is that prices will the price of the price to offer. The outlook is that prices will rise to $25 and 530 within the next 30 days. Retailers and warehousers in the valley and elsewhere are waking up to the fact that there will be no feed to be bought in a short time, as none is being made, and they are putting in stocks. on the stock exchange was upward today, and while the volume of business remained small and the movement was nothing more than a slow, creeping advance, the close of the sension found not a few of the leading shares a point or so higher than at the close yesterday. Speculation still reflected the rejuctance of traders to commit themselves heavily on either side of the market.

An important feature of the day's trading was the absence of selling pressure. Stocks were scarce and it was inferred that the market was again in a sold-out condition, which made the technical position comparatively strong. The horrowing demand for steel in particular was unusually heavy, and estimates of the size of the short interest in this speculative favorite ran into large figures.

Traders took advantage of conditions to force a raily at the expense of the bears, whose efforts to cover aided in placing stocks on a higher range.

Resumption of trading on the European exchanges after a triple holiday was of influence on this market.

Notwithatanding the firm undertone of the market, there was some further selling of stocks which have exhibited marked heaviness recently. Several stocks, including Pennsylvania and Jersey Central, touched new low records for the movement. Canadian Pacific was sold persistently, at one time falling back more than two points. Trading in Consolidated Gas was unusually active, and that stock was one of the strong features of the list.
