of Irving, members of the legislative committee.

The session rounds out 15 years of service as secretary for Mrs. Mary S. Howard, of Multino. Her service of 15 years breaks all records for continuous service in any office in the Oregon State Grange. She has attended every session of the State Grange during this time.

That the Grange has had a most successful year is shown by the report of Mrs. Mary S. Howard, the secretary, which was presented this afternoon. This report shows that 11 new Granges were organized in Oregon during the past year and that there are now 158 Granges in good standing in this state, 29 of the 34 counties of the state having Granges. The total membership of the order in Oregon at the close of the last fiscal year, April 30, 1913, was 19,182.

The total receipts of the State Grange, as set forth in the secretary's report, were $29,041. Of this amount $237 was received in dues from subordinate Granges and the remaining amounts were realized from the following sources: From the National Grange for Grange extension work, $150; refund from the Federation of Labor for amounts expended on initiative and referendum bills, $118; from conferring the sixth degree, $90; from the Secretary of State, refund on amounts paid account initiative measures, $25; from organizing Pomona Grange, $7.50; from

Sellwood Wants Good Men

The Sellwood Board of Trade, which met last night in the Sellwood Young Men's Christian Association building, adopted a resolution instructing its secretary to request the committee of 100 to recommend 12 competent candidates among those who are running for the position of Commissioner. It was the sense of the meeting that none but efficient men should be elected to the position of Commissioner. No candidate for Mayor was endorsed.

Knights of Columbus Elect Officers at Convention.

Delegates Entertained at Luncheon by Past State Deputy Sinnott, Appointee to Memphis.

Sinnott, past state deputy, was chosen delegate to the National convention to be held in August at Memphis, Tenn., with J. L. Kelly, of The Dalles, as alternate. Following the election the state officers named Father E. W. O'Hara, of Portland, as state chaplain, to succeed Father J. M. O'Farrell, of Medford.

Delegates to the convention were entertained at luncheon at the clubhouse by Mr. Sinnott, and each was presented with a Portland-grown rose. Before the session opened they called on Archbishop Alexander Christie and paid their respects to him.

ALBEE TALKS FOUR TIMES

Addresses to Be Made Before Women During Day.

Majority Candidate Will Be Among Number Speaking at Woodstock Tonight.

Four speeches in one day is the pace set for H. R. Albee, candidate for Mayor, by B. E. Kennedy, his campaign manager. Mr. Albee, who has announced that he will devote as much time as is necessary to see the people and tell them of his views on public questions, today is scheduled to talk at 12 o'clock, 2:30 o'clock, 4 o'clock and 8 o'clock. All but the 8 o'clock meeting are of women's organizations.

At 12 o'clock Mr. Albee will address the Rose City Park Presbyterian Church, East Forty-fifth and Hancock streets, to the women of Rose City Park, at 2:30.

From the church he will rush to the home of Mrs. B. E. Kennedy, 232 Killingsworth avenue, where he will address the Naomi Club at 4 o'clock.

At 8 o'clock Mr. Albee will address the Woodstock Good Government Club in a hall at Forty-fourth street, Southeast, and Woodstock avenue, at 8 P. M. Mr. Albee will be among a number of candidates who have been invited to speak.

New York—Johnny Evers, manager of the Chicago National League team, has been suspended for three days by President Lynch as a result of Evers' removal from the game with New York by Empire Orth.

Under the direction of Mrs. Millie Trumbull, secretary of the Child Labor Commission, the young women were apportioned certain charitable institutions, organizations and lines of work upon which they were to devote their energies as a means of gaining information for their own benefit, to fit them to serve as board members, and to understand fully the conditions that the working girl meets.

Girls Assume Roles.

So intensely did the members of the league enter into the roles allotted them that they made every effort and practiced much self-denial and showed a wonderful amount of tact in gathering together data for their "experience meeting." They played the part so well that they almost believed themselves to be as poor and friendless as they represented, and in so doing they learned "the other half of the world lives."

Miss Coraella Cook, president of the league, as "Miss Katzenjammmer," assumed that she was a professional enquirer looking for a position or for an organization to stand sponsor for her. With the others she took the diagnosis and lack of encouragement she met.

Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, as Mrs. Sheminsky, was served with a notice from the trunk of a woman whose son, Peter, could not go to school because he couldn't afford the books, his father being out on a strike. It was found that the boy might get his books from the Board of Education. The rehearsal of Mrs. Corbett's efforts to underhand the numerous departments she came in contact with was most instructive.

Two Become "Centrals."

Miss Cecily Cook and Miss Katherine Hart were delegated to find out how the telephone company treated the girls at the switchboard, and to this end they secured positions as operators. They found the work difficult and that there was much to be learned. As their experiences in being questioned and tried out were a revelation to the society girls, who had never realized what the working girl faces, and their sympathy for her is greatly increased.

Miss Frances Bradley, as a reporter on conventions, showed that she has abundant and gifted. In her excellent resume of the work accomplished at Reed College recently she proved that if necessary she might hold her own as a newspaper woman.

Miss Ruth Small in her rounds of investigation was assigned to the Associated Charities, where she found out just what would happen if she were a poor woman seeking help. The painstaking efforts of the association in her supposed case were reported, and as she had become so thoroughly familiar with the work, she was honored by being appointed chairman of the case committee for the Associated Charities.

Mrs. Elliott Collett visited the Detention Home and try and make life brighter and the outlook better for the young girls of the home.

The reports at the recent meeting were all full of knowledge that rarely comes to girls whose lives are made easy by their social position and wealth, and the members are all lighted over having had the actual experiences. The membership was divided into two groups—those who told of the theoretical and others of the practical side of work.

The Baby Home, Children's Home, Detention Home, Boys' and Girls' Aid Society and Park Place Baby Home were among the charities visited. Among other good results will be a day nursery established during the Rose Festival. This will be under the direction of the Fruit and Flower Mission, assisted by the Junior League.

The committees who have been busy since the educational crusade and have had actual experience in dealing with

STATE GRANGE MEETS

This session than at any session for many years. The most sweeping change proposed is to do away entirely with the present method of electing delegates to the State Grange, abolishing the county convention system and placing the election of not only delegates but officers of the State Grange as well directly with the subordinate granges.

Portland Men Talk.

The forenoon was passed in perfecting the organization and the afternoon was devoted to reports of officers and resolutions. Besides the address of national Master Wilson, talks were made by H. G. Parsons, of Portland, and T. A. Logsdon, of Corvallis, who are attending the Grange as fraternal delegates from the Federation of Labor and Farmers' Co-operative Union, respectively.

Tonight the delegates were the guests of the Albany Commercial Club and

They invigorate instead of weaken; they enrich the blood instead of impoverishing it; they enable the stomach to get all the nourishment from food that is put into it. Price 25 cents. All Druggists.

A HAPPY, LAUGHING CHILD IN FEW HOURS

If Cross, Irritable, Feverish, Tongue Coated and Sick, Give Delicious "Syrup of Figs."

Your child isn't naturally cross, irritable and peevish. Mother! Examine the tongue; if coated, it means the liver and stomach is disordered. Little ones' stomachs are disordered, liver inactive and their thirty feet of bowels clogged with foul, decaying waste.

Every mother realizes after giving delicious "Syrup of Figs" that this is the ideal laxative and physic for children. Nothing else regulates the little one's tender stomach, liver and bowels so effectively, besides they dearly love its delicious fruit taste.

For constipated bowels, sluggish liver, biliousness, or sour, disordered stomach, feverishness, diarrhoea, sore throat, bad breath or to break a cold, give one-half to a teaspoonful of "Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile, undigested food and constipated matter will gently move on and out of the system without griping or nausea, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drug-giving your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatic fruit. It is not a medicine.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package. Ask your druggist for the full name. "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. from its delicious fruit, being genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.
