

SEER MAKES PROFIT POSING AS LAWYER

Dual Existence Gives Clairvoyant Chance to Make Startling Revelations.

DISGUISES ARE EMPLOYED

Chicago Grand Jury Learns of Methods Used by De Alvandros, Who, as Attorney, Sent His Clients to Necromancer.

CHICAGO, May 15.—Interesting evidence of the operations of Charles De Alvandros, alleged leader of the clairvoyant ring now under investigation, was presented to the grand jury today.

According to State's Attorney Hoyne, De Alvandros is a clairvoyant, posing as a lawyer and operating as a seer. As a lawyer he had an office downtown; as a clairvoyant he is said to have maintained three mystic parlors in which he appeared disguised to those who had met him in his capacity as an attorney.

De Alvandros owed his leadership largely to his legal ability, and usually handled court matters for members of the ring when they ran afoul of the law.

He is at large and the police are searching for five other clairvoyants, among them Frank S. Ryan, alias Professor Robert L. Milton, whose brother, James, is in jail here and has furnished the State's Attorney with a great deal of the evidence being used by the grand jury.

The State's Attorney related some of the testimony given by one woman victim of the clairvoyants. "I went to one fortune-teller," she said, "and gave him $100, which he said he would invest. Afterward he closed his office and I could not find him.

"Then I went to another clairvoyant and he wanted $250 to get back the original $100. So I gave it to him, and never saw him again. Then I went to a third and fourth and gave them smaller sums, as my funds were nearly exhausted. One day I disappeared, and I complained to the police, but it did no good. None was ever arrested.

State's Attorney Hoyne said: "I have direct evidence of collusion between police officers and criminals; that is, direct connection without the aid of a go-between, and some of them will escape punishment."

GASOLINE BREAKS WINDOWS

Tank Containing Over 500 Barrels Scatters Havoc Over Wide Area.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—(Special.)—A gasoline tank containing 500 barrels of gasoline exploded today in the yards of the Standard Oil Company across the bay at Richmond, throwing sparks and flames in every direction, and striking by concussion the windows of many homes in the vicinity.

The cause of the explosion has not been ascertained, although the fire department responded promptly and succeeded in keeping the flames from spreading. Sergeant McGowan was assisted by many citizens in fighting the fire.

The police and fire departments in Oakland were aroused by the explosion and offered assistance, but received assurances that their aid was not needed.

NO COMPROMISE POSSIBLE

There had been rumors that concessions of some kind would be made on the principal schedule in order to satisfy opposition in the Senate. The President had been told by friends that in some sources there was a confident expectation that a duty would be put on raw wool or that the provision for free sugar after three years would be dropped.

It was to counteract these statements that he took occasion to make his position clear. It is expected that minor changes in the bill made by the finance committee, certain equalizations and corrections which have been approved by the House leaders since the bill left their hands, but in the principal schedules, such as wool and sugar, the President is determined that there shall be no change if he can prevent. There were even intimations that he might veto a bill that came from the Senate with amendments on wool or sugar.

Senate Agrees on Vote.

The agreement in the Senate was for a vote on the motion to refer the Underwood bill to the finance committee and the Penrose-LaFollette amendment for public hearings at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Republican leaders accepted this proposal from Chairman Simmons after Senator Stone had attempted to force an immediate vote by moving to lay all amendments to the Simmons motion on the table. This he withdrew at Senator Simmons' request.

The sugar schedule again was the subject of enlivened debate. Senator Ransdell, of Louisiana, answering the assertion of Senator James, of Kentucky, that the Democratic platform warned Louisiana to expect free sugar, Mr. Ransdell submitted records in an effort to show that the party was not committed to free sugar.

The Senate resumed consideration of the tariff late in the day.

DARLING HE OF FEW CLOTHES, IS HOME

Cultist Admits Overpowering Effect of Odor of Cooking Bacon and Coffee.

FOLLOWERS NOT SINCERE

With Fruits, Vegetables and Nuts in Plenty, Visitors Still Insist on Eggs—Search for Complaisant Bride Goes On.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—(Special.)—He of few clothes and wont to live close to nature—Ernest William Darling, who left San Francisco eight years ago for Tahiti to set up a new cult to be known as "nature people," arrived in San Francisco today on the Royal Mail liner Tahiti, somewhat more emaciated than when he left, but still insisting that clothing is an abomination and that man was intended to subsist on fruits, nuts and vegetables.

Darling complains that on numerous occasions during his residence in the South Pacific island he departed from the covenant with himself that he would eat nothing but fruits, nuts and vegetables.

He excuses himself on the plea that the odor of frying bacon and boiling coffee is enough to make any half-starved man forsake a creed.

Darling admits that the cultists who followed him down to his plantation in Tahiti were insincere.

"They came to me with the belief that they could be under spreading tropical trees and be fed on fruits from the trees," he said. "There were fruits, nuts and vegetables in plenty, but my 'visitors' wanted me to bustle bacon and eggs and coffee for them."

The nature man said he had turned over his plantation to Eugene Dufour, a young Frenchman, who hopes to work the land as a private enterprise.

Darling announced that he intended to tour Italy and Germany, after he had remained in San Francisco and its environs a while. He attended Stanford University in 1902-3. He says he will make a world-wide quest for a woman who shares his belief in costume, diet and marriage by contract, which he regards as the only sensible style of wedding.

When he finds such a woman he will invite her to repair with him to the banana plantation in Tahiti.

MAN'S ASSAILANT SOUGHT

Percy S. Nicholls Is Beaten Up and Left in Shadow of House.

Knocked down and seriously injured by a man whose identity the police have not yet determined, Percy S. Nicholls, 26 years old, son of Rev. A. B. Nicholls, of Swisshill, Pa., is lying in an unconscious condition at St. Vincent's hospital and detectives Hyde and Vaughn are endeavoring to find his assailant.

Early this morning they arrested Robert Grogan in the Blackstone Hotel, on Stark street, near Twelfth, and are holding him as a witness. He lays the crime upon an unknown person, who, he says, came up behind him and Nicholls and struck Nicholls at Twelfth and Stark streets, about 11 o'clock, when Nicholls was going to the Clyde Hotel, where he is registered.

Nicholls was discovered in the shadow of a house at Twelfth and Stark streets about 11 o'clock by pedestrians who telephoned the police. He is suffering from a blow on the head, but until he regains consciousness the seriousness of his injuries cannot be determined.

Grogan, who fled after his companion had fallen, went directly to the Blackstone Hotel, without informing the police, of the affair, and was taken to court later by Detectives Hyde and Vaughn. He is uncommunicative.

FACTORY CAMPAIGN IS AIM

Progressive Business Men's Club to Adopt Sioux City Plan.

The Progressive Business Men's Club met at the Mullanbah Hotel yesterday and voted to adopt the plan of bringing factories to Portland such as is used by Sioux City. James J. Sayer, chairman of the committee appointed to investigate the plan, reported favorably on it to the club.

Professor E. O. Sisson, of Reed College, delivered an address on the problem of educating children. He gave a number of figures showing that 45 per cent of the amount spent in the United States for public education. He said that $1,200,000,000 is spent here annually for tobacco and $2,000,000,000 is spent for liquor. He claimed that many children are retarded by lack of discipline at home.

OMAHA INSURANCE GROWS

Tornado Followed by Rush to Protect Property.

"Tornado insurance agents have been doing a rushing business ever since the Omaha storm on Easter Sunday," says R. D. Johnston, of the Union Pacific accounting department, who is in Portland on a visit.

Mr. Johnston lives in Omaha and was close to the tornado's path. He says fewer than 5 per cent of the people who lost property in the storm carried tornado insurance.

"The offices of the insurance companies were filled with applicants on the morning following the disaster," he said yesterday, "and the rush for policies has not ceased. It's another exemplification of the old proverb about locking the stable door after the horse is stolen. We don't expect Omaha ever to have another storm like that."

Habeas Corpus Hearing Goes Over for Week in Chicago Court.

HEARING WAITS INDEFINITELY

NO LAND SHOW VERDICT

FAILURE TO BUILD AUDITORIUM REASON ASSIGNED.

Proposal Is to Have Big Exhibit in 1914 and Establish Important Annual Feature.

Because the auditorium has not been built and because no other building is available the Pacific Northwest Land Products Show, which was so successfully launched last fall as an annual event at Portland, will be abandoned this year with the hope of reviving it in 1914 if the auditorium can be used.

This conclusion was reached at a meeting yesterday of the board of directors which handled last year's show. The men gathered at the Commercial Club for luncheon and heard a report of the committee to investigate the availability of a suitable place for holding the exhibition this year.

The building at East First and East Main streets, which housed the exhibits last fall, has been leased, so that is out of the question. The Gipsy Smith auditorium is considered too far from the city to be a desirable site for the show for a year. It was the understanding that if the auditorium is in shape to permit it, a show will be held at the fall of 1914 that will establish the exhibition as a yearly event of importance to the agricultural interests of the entire Northwest.

John S. Beall presided at yesterday's meeting. Others who attended were A. C. Martin, W. C. Wilkes, W. J. Hoffmann, R. W. Raymond, A. P. Bateham, E. C. Giltner, H. J. Ottensmeyer, J. Fred Larson, A. C. Callan, Walter F. Burrell, Wilfrid P. Jones, Julius L. Meier and Francis Seal.

It is the intention to continue the organization and to make it the agency for gathering a worthy exhibit of Oregon agricultural products for exhibition at the World's Fair in San Francisco in 1915.

THE HABEAS CORPUS HEARING ON THE CASE OF E. C. VON KLEIN, ACCUSED HERE FOR THE ALLEGED SWINDLING OF ETHEL NEWCOMB, HIS PURPORTED WIFE, HAS GONE OVER TILL NEXT WEEK, TO BE SET THEN FOR FINAL HEARING, THERE WAS MUCH FUMING ABOUT THE OFFICIAL CIRCUIT AS A HEALTHY MOVEMENT IS ON FOOT TO RECALL DAY FROM THE QUART.

It is five weeks since Von Klein was arrested in Chicago, after a dramatic denunciation by his alleged wife, who ran upon him in a restaurant, and more than three weeks since Detective Day, then in St. Louis after another prisoner, went to Chicago to begin extradition proceedings. A Governor's warrant was issued without delay, but habeas corpus proceedings were postponed and have been put off from time to time ever since. Day, in his reports here, has given no explanation of the means used to procure the many postponements.

District Attorney Evans, when informed yesterday of the new delay, asked Chief of Police Slover to recall his office matter in order of adjustment. The proceedings are complicated by the fact that the Milwaukee authorities, after Portland had secured a Governor's warrant, procured another, on a similar charge, under another alias. It is understood that Von Klein intends to offer an appeal at the time of the alleged crime.
