Northwestern Leaguers With Boston Show No Sign of Letting Up.

White Sox Going Strong, but Daring, so Marked Under Fielder Jones, Is Absent-Cubs in Slump. Reds Aided by Kling.

NEW YORK, May 18 .- The week's play in major league baseball circuits, while productive of few surprises, was featured by several significant devel-opments. The New York Nationals seem opments. The New York Nationals seem to have struck their pace at last and jumped from fifth to third place. Chicago dropped all five games played and there is little indication that their siump will be checked before they return to their home grounds. Evers' suspension, which lasted over into this week, evidently made a big difference in the playing of the Chicago infield. The peppery little manager's crabbed but powerful personality was sorely missed. McGraw also spent three days in retirement, but his absence from the Northwesterners Help Boston.

Boston, the surprise of the League, is going strong with no sign of a letup. Stallings appears to have skimmed the cream of the Northwestern League and his recruit pitchers are being ably supported by the veterans in the lineup.

The feature of the week in the American League was the work of the Chicago team. The White Sox pitchers are going splendidly and the team is hit-ting well behind them. Careless work on the bases still is much in evidence, however, and the team is not turning hits into runs as they should. There is little evidence of the willingness to "take a chance" which caused the Sox under Fielder Jones to be known as the hitless wonders.

Napa Play Snappy Ball.

Cleveland managed to hold its own through the week, in spite of the accidents to Joe Birmingham and Larry Lajole. Birmingham's men have shown snappy work on the bases and over-look no opportunity to advance, while the inning that brings Jackson and La-joie to bat may well be dreaded by any American League twirler. Washington also held its own, but

DETROIT, May 18.—Walter Johnson won his ninth straight victory of the season today when Washington defeated Detroit 2 to 1 in a thrilling struggle before the largest crowd that ever witnessed a ball game at Navin Neither team scored an earned field. Neither team scored an earned run. Johnson allowed the locals but five hits. When possible defeat stared him in the face he pulled himself to-gether and pitched wonderful ball. Zamloch, a recruit from Missoula, Mont., started his first major league game and deserved a shutout. Cobb's game and deserved a shutout. Cobb's daring base running produced Detroit's only tally. As Johnson prepared to pitch to Veach, Cobb streaked home and slid safely around Ainsmith, who appeared to be waster for the runner. Score: Washington | Detroit appeared to be walting with the ball

Hurler Thought to Be All in When He Does 'Come Back.'

BEAVERS HUMBLED THRICE

Los Angeles Pitcher Especially Effective Against Portland-Record for Season Is Three Losses and Seven Victories.

Jack Ryan's no-hit, no-run feat against the Portland Pacific Coast League Club at Venice yesterday morning, pitching for Los Angeles, brings to mind the vicissitudes of a pitcher's career.

Ryan was released by Denver last year and was thought to be through as a high-tensioned gunner. Ryan, himself, had just about given up the ghost and was even then seeking some more domesticated job when Pa Dillon found him pitching good ball in the Califorina Winter league and decided to give him a trial.

Ryan doesn't seem to have much, except a smile and a glove, but he has stepped into the box against Portland three times this year and his wizardry has been wonderful to behold.

On April 19, in Portland, he beat

Chech led the Angels with an average of only 2.35 runs for nine innings, while Tozer's average was 2.54 and Perritt's 2.65.

Some of the Portland pitching run averages up to Thursday follow: West 1.50, Krapp 1.96, James 1.98, Hagerman 2.87, Higginbotham 3.42 and Krause

2.88.
Compare Ryan's effectiveness with his Portland rivals and you will readily see that he does not appear to be in the same class for, with a winning club behind him he has allowed more runs than any of six Portland flingers. Yet, Ryan has only to throw his glove into the box to beat Portland, That's one of the idiosyncracies of
