tall Portland right-hander chalked up his fifth consecutive vic-tory of the season over the Senators yesterday, 7-1, and swelled his record against Sacramento for two years to 10 out of 11 games pitched.

Superb batting by Lober, Lindsay and Rodgers featured, Lober registering three with a home run.

Up to the sixth inning it was a mighty battle of good right flippers. Sacramento scored one tally in the first half of the inning on Young's double and a sacrifice, and this one-run lead seemed to spur the Beavers to a bushwhacking tension. At any rate.

Arellanes, the Spanish don, was not himself after that plunk and Portland tallied a couple more in the seventh on a walk, Lindsay's three-bagger into center and a wide chuck to third by Kenworthy battle. Every molecule of it bristled with action.

Walter Doane opened the fireworks by doubling down the right field line. Rodgers walked and then Lindsay drove Doane across the registry rubber with the tying score 1-1. Kores spliced in a single to center, tallying Rodgers, and, after Speas had filed out, Lober took up his trusty war bludgeon and strode to the plate.

Notes of the Game.

Arelianes knocked down a screaming are by Lindsay, in the first inning, robbed ill of a hit and saved one score, as Rodgers sneed around second base. Gus Fisher's excellent backstopping has sen one of the features of the series. Klawitter batted for Arelianes in the ninth and popped out to short. Sacramento's pitchers for today's games ill be chosen from Munsell, Kinsella and dvely. Krause will twirl the forenoon game or Portland and West the afternoon instruce.

"Bring Krueger back," shricked one facetious fan, following Lober's circuit cleaner.
Kenworthy cheated Fisher of a third hit by a thrilling one-hand stop on a line drive, retiring Gus at first.

Despite the fearful pounding given Arclanes, Welverton had no warm-up pitcher on the lines. With two games coming up today and Williams on the hespital list, Harry figured he had better let Arellanes ride.

Shinn will likely join the Senators next week at Oskiand. He is laid up at home with injuries, but Van Buren is doing great work in right.

Renworthy received a gift of a hit in the second when Doans. Rodgers and Speas let a high fly fall untouched between them. Kenworthy tried to stretch it into a double and was caught on a throw, Speas to Kores.

Split Finger Will Keep Star on Supreme Court Decides Baseball called today at the latter's office, "What is your figure for the Seals' franchise?" Bench 2 Weeks or More.

Needed in Outfield.

When Bill James blew up in the inth inning of Wednesday's Portland-Sacramento battie, Portland lost more than a 7-4 game. Big Bill James, star boxman, rated by McCredie as the greatest prospect in the Coast League, smashed the middle finger on his pitching hand and will be out of the lineup perhaps for two or three weeks.

James sat in the grandstand yester-day and while his finger was unhand.

perhaps for two or three weeks.

James sat in the grandstand yesterday and, while his finger was unbandaged, it was swellen to twice its normal size. He expects to have an X-ray photograph taken to ascertain if any thing serious has happened to his digit.

The accident occurred at the start of the fatal ninth inning, when Sacramento overcame a 4-2 lead and bat-ted out five runs for a 7-4 final. James had gone over to cover first on a ball that both Speas and Rodgers attempted to trap. Rodgers finally winged it and threw to James, who off to the stand.

"I should have quit the game right there," said James, ruefully, yesterday. "I should have known what to expect with a smashed finger, but I didn't. I wanted to finish that game 8 1 2 2 0 3 0 1 8 0 1 0 0 0 0 wanted me to leave. Next time I will 1 0 0 0 0 know better."

The incident, costly though it was to Portland, shows that James is game to the core.

The James accident, together with the absence of Fred Derrick from the lineup, puts the Beavers in a bad way. Derrick consulted a doctor yesterday Derrick consulted a doctor yesterday and was informed that it would be foolhardy to attempt to play with his bruised finger for another 10 days. Meanwhile Speas is playing a good game at first for the Beavers, but he is not a natural first-sacker of Derrick's caliber and furthermore his aid is needed in the gardens against southpaw pitchers.
