INFANT'S JAW IS BROKEN.—A broken jaw and severe bruises were sustained by a 1-year-old child of Mrs. Mrs. S. A. Harmon at their home, 443 1/2 Centre avenue, Sellwood, while being carried down the street. The child was thrown out of the carriage started down the sidewalk, where the infant was thrown out. The carriage started down the sidewalk, where the infant was thrown out. The carriage started down the sidewalk, where the infant was thrown out.

NEW JURY SYSTEM DEBATED.—Believing that the present method of selecting juries in the Municipal Court is defective, City Attorney L. A. Johnson and Municipal Judge Stevenson have planned to work out a new system more nearly like the system employed in the Circuit Court. The present panel of 12 veniremen is selected and attorneys on both sides of a case have the right to challenge. If a jury is not selected from the panel offered, the court go on the street and select jurors. It is said that this may lead to trouble.

INSURANCE MEN'S SUGGESTION WINS.—Following an investigation of fire insurance policies covering city buildings of Portland, the City Commission yesterday authorized Mayor Albee to appoint a committee to make an appraisal of the buildings and to fix a rate to cover a blanket policy taking in all city buildings and property. This action was taken at the suggestion of insurance men who met with the commission to consider the question of policies. At present the buildings are covered by single policies and different rates are paid for different classes of buildings. These rates are said to be unfair and improper in many cases. The Mayor appointed on the committee the following insurance men representing both the old line and the mutual companies: J. N. McCune, I. L. White, H. Billings, H. D. Wagon and Burt W. Richards.

FALL DOES NOT HURT NEGRO.—At Good Samaritan Hospital they say that Samuel Hicks, living at the Trinity Apartments, has recovered from a fall from the roof of the building. Hicks is a negro aged 22 years. Yesterday he was washing windows at the Trinity Apartments, on Trinity street, and was working with the window washer's harness provided by law. He fell from a second-story window, landing squarely on the top of his head, on a sidewalk. Supposed to have been fatally hurt, Hicks was rushed to Good Samaritan, where an examination showed that the injury amounted to nothing more serious than a monster lump. Hicks wasn't even stunned.

PAVING NOT TO BE DELAYED.—Under the Commission form of government it will be possible from now on for property owners to put their own paving proceedings in 60 days, according to an estimate which has been prepared by City Engineer Hanson. Under the form of government the proceeding of the kind were seldom put through in less than 120 days. The saving in time will be made by the more frequent meetings of the City Commission. The elimination of a great deal of the "red tape" which was a part of the old system.

SHACKS MUST GO.—A campaign was started yesterday by City Health Officer Marcelus against the maintenance of a lot of tumble down shacks in the various parts of the city. Sanitary inspectors were instructed to make reports of all buildings in dilapidated condition and to notify the owners to remove them. A report received in the campaign was regarding a building on Corbett street in South Portland. The owner was notified to tear it down and he complied at once.

FRANZMANN IS SENTENCED.—For telling the court lies, A. H. Johnson, shoreman, was sentenced to five days imprisonment in Municipal Court yesterday, under a vagrancy charge. His attorney had appeared as a witness for Herman Smith, accused of beating his wife, and made statements which were disproved so convincingly that the court had no doubt the man had committed perjury. Smith, who struck his wife with a curtain rod, received a sentence of ten days.

ODDFELLOWS' HOME INCORPORATED.—Articles of incorporation were filed at the Courthouse yesterday as follows: Linton Athletic Club, J. P. Rath, C. J. Rath, John Neville and F. M. Judge Gaters will work through to August before taking his vacation. Judge McGinn, who has been absent two weeks, probably will return through the summer months after his return Monday. Judge Davis will start his vacation after next Wednesday. His health has improved and an operation may not be necessary.

COUNTY EXHIBIT IS DESIRED.—A letter received by the County Commissioners from C. C. Chapman, of the Oregon Development League, asking if the county will stand sponsor for a Multnomah County exhibit at the state fair to be arranged and financed by that organization, has been received. The exhibit will be a permanent display of the Chamber, has been placed on file. Some time ago the Commissioners had received a communication from the fair management asking that an exhibit be made. It was decided not to deviate from a policy previously announced, of making no more appropriations and the request was refused.

LARGE BLACKBERRIES GROWN HERE.—Blackberries more than an inch and a half in length were brought to the Portland Chamber of Commerce yesterday to be processed and placed in the permanent display of the Chamber. The fruit was grown by Julius Alexander, at Forty-seventh and Belmont streets. The bushes were planted only three years ago, but their growth has been rapid and their bearing so heavy that from the few planted in his lot he is able to gather more berries than he can sell. The fruit is uniform in shape and are nearly the size of the average man's thumb.

WAR STARTS ON MOSQUITOES.—City Health Officer Marcelus yesterday ordered sanitary inspectors to take steps to prevent the accumulation of mosquitoes in the lowlands of the city.
