

GARDEN PARTY IS GIVEN FOR VISITORS

Mrs. and Miss Jones, of Los Angeles Are Complimented by Mrs. Caswell.

MANY OF ELITE PRESENT

Grounds Present Attractive Scene and Guests Smartly Gowned—Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Bauer Due in City Sunday.

Mrs. Edwin Cassell was hostess on Thursday afternoon at a garden party at which she complimented Mrs. William L. Jones and Miss Alice Jones, of Los Angeles. During the hours a large number of guests were entertained. Mrs. Caswell was assisted in receiving by her honored guests. The grounds presented an attractive scene. Tea tables, prettily decorated, were placed in the garden and were presided over by daintily gowned matrons while a bevy of pretty girls assisted.

Those who served refreshments were Mrs. Arthur C. Emmons and Mrs. H. C. Wortman; tea was poured by Mrs. Joseph Nathan Deal and Mrs. Charles E. Rummel, and at the punch table were Mrs. Julia Marquam and Mrs. Amedee Smith. The young girls assisting were Miss Katherine Emmons, Miss Louise Emmons, Miss Marjorie Norman, Miss Helen Wortman, Miss Rhoda Rummel, Miss Josephine Richardson and Miss Sara McCully.

Assisting about the grounds were: Mrs. Augustus W. Payne, Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley, Mrs. Paul E. Froehlich, Mrs. A. L. McCully, Mrs. Louis Burke, Mrs. Robert Wayne Wilson and Mrs. Charles W. Hodson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Bauer, who have been in San Francisco, will arrive in Portland on Sunday and will remain at the Hotel Oregon for a short stay before going to Chicago to make their home. Mrs. Bauer was formerly Miss Essie M. Block.

Dr. and Mrs. George E. Koehler and daughter, Kathryn, have gone to Seaside for the season and are occupying "Oxford cottage."

Miss Grace Williams has gone to Cannon Beach for a fortnight's visit.

Mrs. J. A. Martin and daughter, Miss Jean Martin, left Friday for Seaview, Wash., where they will pass the month of August.

Mrs. W. B. Yost, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting Mrs. Jay Smith at her hospitable Portland Heights home. Mr. Yost will accompany her to England in September to join Mrs. Yost and they will accompany Miss Mary Stuart Smith on her Eastern trip when she returns to school in New York.

Wallace Craig Smith is here for a short stay at the home of his brother, Jay Smith. Mr. Smith will leave next week on a trip combining business and pleasure.

MAN YELLS SEVEN HOURS

Joseph Volk, Alleged Insane, Puts in Noisy Day in Jail.

Joseph Volk, adjudged insane by Judge McGinn and sent to Salem last night, yelled constantly for seven hours, without stopping longer than to get breath, in the County Jail yesterday.

Volk, whose home is at 500 Marian avenue, this city, is a wife and nine children, the oldest of whom is 21 and the youngest one year. Previously he has been confined in a private sanitarium. Recently he became violent following a fit of depression due to losing his job, and he was taken into custody.

With 21 cases of insanity already on the records of the local courts, the insanity record for July bids fair to exceed that of any month in the history of Portland. The average monthly total is from 25 to 30, but with 21 already on record and several days left in this month, it is believed the hot weather had something to do with the large number of cases.

COURT OFFICER GIVEN BEAT

Patrolman Transferred Following Reprimand by City Judge.

Patrolman Sherwood, whose efforts to advise Judge McGinn led to him being reprimanded in Municipal Court Tuesday, yesterday received an order from Chief Clark taking him from the Municipal Court and transferring him to a beat on the first night relief.

Sherwood, who is one of the oldest policemen on the force, was detailed to keep order in the Municipal Court some time ago, after he had been a member of a moral squad. When he tried to coax Judge McGinn he was ordered to withhold his aid.

In place of Sherwood Chief Clark appointed C. W. Inskip as court officer.

OREGON DOGS QUARANTINED

Washington State Veterinarians Bar Canines From Their State.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 25.—(Special.)—No dogs from Oregon will be permitted to be brought into the State of Washington until the quarantine established today by the Washington State Veterinarian is raised.

In Vancouver Barracks an order has been issued to allow no stray dogs, muzzled or unmuzzled, to enter. Dogs entering will be taken up, and if the owner is not found, will be kept in the pound.

The police are annoyed by the large number of calls caused by "mad dog scares." Several dogs showing signs of madness have been shot.

Mrs. H. V. Litherland Buried.

Carrie J. Litherland, wife of H. V. Litherland, was buried Thursday in the Riverview cemetery, the funeral being held from Skewes chapel. The Rev. J. P. Chormley officiated. Mrs. Litherland died Wednesday at the Good Samaritan Hospital after a long illness. She was about 89 years old. She was the daughter of Andrew and Carolyn Goetzman, of Bethany, who have been residents of Oregon for many years.

Elevator to Rise at Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 25.—(Special.)—The Vancouver Flour Milling Company is erecting an additional elevator to hold 50,000 bushels of wheat. When it is completed, with the other elevators and warehouses, the company will be able to store 200,000 bushels of grain.

The children fairly wiggled with eagerness whenever they thought of the coming outfit.

"It just seems like I can't wait a whole night to start," said one little fellow to Mr. Manning.

Silverton people are enthusiastic in the preparations for the entertainment of their guests. From 10 or 12 miles out in the surrounding country or mountains they are to drive in today to meet the "fresh air" special and take their guests out home with them. Mrs. George W. Hubbs, head of the Woman's Social Service Club, which originated the movement, sent a message yesterday to Mr. Manning, telling him that everything is ready and that they will

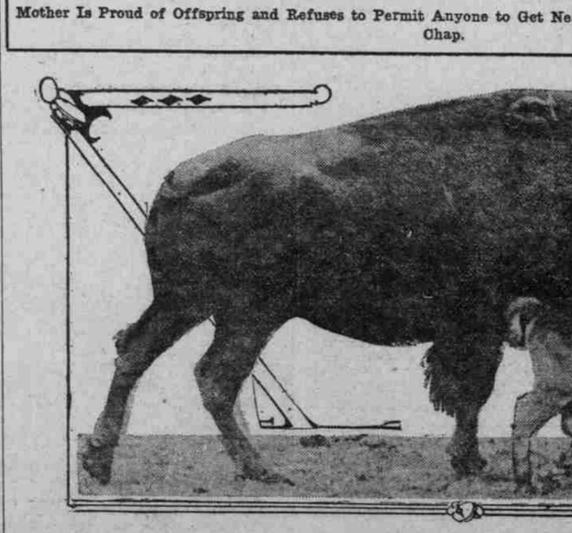

AMERICAN BUFFALO CALF IS BORN

IN CITY ZOO AT WASHINGTON PARK

Mother Is Proud of Offspring and Refuses to Permit Anyone to Get Near the Little Fellow, Who Is a Healthy Chap.

A full-blooded American Buffalo, the first of his kind to be born in the city zoo in Washington Park. The youngster, standing about two pounds, was first seen at feeding time yesterday when he came around the largest of the herd of six buffalo at the park.

The baby is a perfect specimen of the American buffalo. His father is "Old Joe," a big buffalo which has been here for many years. The old folks seem to be decidedly proud of their side continuously and refusing to permit anyone to get near. There is but this is the first full-blooded.

"NANNY," THE MOTHER, AND HER NEW BABY.

Portland, came into the world yesterday feet in height and weighing about 25 with his mother, "Nanny," one of the Old Joe," a big buffalo which has been here for many years. The old folks seem to be decidedly proud of their side continuously and refusing to permit anyone to get near. There is but this is the first full-blooded.

CABINET MEMBERS TO VISIT PORTLAND

Four of President Wilson's Official Family to Tour Northwest.

LANE PLANS WEEK'S STAY

Secretary of Interior Will View Big Irrigation Projects Throughout State—Mr. Daniels First to Be Entertained.

Portland soon will entertain four members of President Wilson's Cabinet—Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior; Josephus Daniels, head of the Navy Department; Secretary of War Garrison and Secretary of Agriculture Houston.

Nearly a week has been set aside for Oregon by Secretary Lane. The itinerary will bring him twice to Portland. Before coming to Oregon Secretary Lane will pass two days in Yakima Valley, following a full week at Yellowstone and Glacier National Parks. Leaving the Yakima country, he will go to Rainier National Park Saturday and Sunday, August 27-28.

He will pass through Portland Tuesday morning, August 19, at 7 o'clock, on his way to Central Oregon to inspect the Hornum and the West Umatilla irrigation projects.

On Wednesday, August 20, he will return to Portland, passing the night in all parts of the Willamette Valley, containing offers to receive one or more women or children for a Summer outing. Mr. Manning will visit Gresham and Hood River tomorrow and endeavor to organize a movement to assist in the fresh-air work there.

Letters coming in from individuals in all parts of the Willamette Valley, contain offers to receive one or more women or children for a Summer outing. Mr. Manning will visit Gresham and Hood River tomorrow and endeavor to organize a movement to assist in the fresh-air work there.

IRRIGATION WORK TO BE VIEWED

On Sunday, August 24, Secretary Lane will inspect the Klamath irrigation project, after which he will leave for San Francisco and Yosemite.

Secretary Garrison is due in Portland August 2, and the fourth member of the Cabinet to visit this city will be Secretary Houston, who will be here some time in September.

Secretary Daniels has revised his programme so that on his return to the North he will not only pass several hours in Portland but will have an opportunity to examine the harbor and the Columbia River at Astoria.

A telegram received from his aide yesterday announced that he will leave Oakland, Cal., at 10:50 Saturday night and arrive in Portland at 7:40 Monday morning. This will give him nearly an entire day for his visit in Portland and Astoria.

WEST TO ESCORT PARTY

Governor West will meet the Daniels train at Ashland, and E. W. Wright, representing the Portland Commercial Club, will greet the Secretary and join his party at Grants Pass. Upon his arrival in Portland the reception committee, headed by the Mayor, will accompany the Secretary and his wife at breakfast at the Multnomah Hotel and afterwards take them on a trip about the city in an automobile.

A special train bearing representatives of commercial organizations of Portland and Astoria and members of Secretary Daniels' party will leave the North Bank station at 9:45 A. M. and reach Astoria at 12:30. After luncheon at the Astoria Chamber of Commerce the Government launch will take the party to view the mouth of the harbor. The special will leave Astoria at 3 P. M. and reach Portland in time for the dinner at the Commercial Club.

AGITATORS ARE DENOUNCED

Spanish War Veterans Commend Authorities for Action.

At the regular meeting of Scout Young Camp No. 2, United Spanish War Veterans, held Tuesday night, by unanimous vote the following resolution was adopted, and the committee directed to send a copy to the Mayor of the City of Portland, the Sheriff of Multnomah County and the press:

Whereas, the United Spanish War Veterans is essentially a patriotic order formed for the purpose of fostering fealty to the United States of America, and in the interest of teaching patriotism, love of country and respect for our glorious flag, and Whereas, during the past two years a certain class of agitators and soapbox orators have been permitted to denounce the things for which our order stands and holds sacred, and Whereas, the present city and county authorities have taken a firm stand on this question and have in their power to stop such abuses to the right of free speech be received. That we, the members of Scout Young Camp No. 2, do so on record and heartily commending the present city and county authorities for their effective work in suppressing all such utterances and that we assure them our support in all their efforts to that end.

COYOTE ATTACKS REPTILE

Sparta Man Bitten But He Succeeded in Slaying Animal.

LA GRANDE, Or., July 25.—(Special.)—Ray Boyd living near Sparta, is suffering from a coyote bite, but he succeeded after his cows when a full-grown coyote sneaked up behind him and bit him on the calf. The healthy part of the coyote had difficulty in scaring the animal away and when he had driven the cow home, he found that the coyote had whipped his dog and was busy devouring a chicken.

Mr. Boyd killed the coyote with his shotgun while the animal was enjoying his feast.

COMMISSION TO GET DATA

Washington Body for Industrial Welfare Adjourns to September 1.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 25.—(Special.)—Determining to pursue individual investigation before attempting to hold hearings, Washington's Industrial Welfare Commission yesterday ended a two-day session and adjourned until September 1.

In the meantime, Mrs. Jackson Silbaugh of Seattle, will pursue her investigation into the cost of living. Labor Commissioner Olson will gather data on the needs for apprentices. He will be exempt from the minimum wage prescribed in various industries.

Troutdale Man Drowns.

Henry Seid, 37-year-old son of Jacob Seid, a rancher who lives near Troutdale, died yesterday in Brook Creek, near that place. The young man was riding a raft of logs, which were being towed to the plant of the Water Sawyer Company, for which he worked, when he fell in the water. The body was recovered and given into the charge of an undertaker at Graham. Deputy Coroner Goetsch, of Portland, investigated the death and pronounced it accidental.

H. L. Peterson Is Dead.

H. L. Peterson, 72 years old, a shoemaker and recluse, who lived in a shack at 48 East Seventy-fourth street, was found last night by neighbors. It is thought from natural causes. Peterson is supposed to have been dead since Monday when he was last seen by neighbors. Deputy Coroner Goetsch, investigated the death and pronounced it accidental.

Losier "Beats Up" Judge

Sifton, Wash., Merchant Pays $50 for Privilege of "Revenge."

For the privilege of "beating up" Judge G. L. Davis, justice of the Peace in Vancouver, Wash., because of a decision rendered against him some months ago in an account suit involving $50, by A. Powers, a merchant of Sifton, Wash., yesterday paid the maximum fine of $50 after having pleaded guilty in Judge Jones' court in Portland.

The punishment for the adverse decision which Mr. Powers meted out to Judge Davis, took place on the Oregon side of the Columbia a few days ago, after which Powers returned into Washington. Yesterday, however, he came across the ferry into Multnomah County again and was taken into custody as soon as he entered this jurisdiction.

ADMINISTRATOR IS NAMED

Tom Richardson to Have Charge of Frank Griffith Estate.

Tom Richardson yesterday was appointed administrator of the estate of Frank Griffith, who died from rabies. Griffith was the proprietor of the "Portland" touring cars. The estate is valued at about $6000.

A petition was filed in the County Court yesterday for the appointment of Arthur H. Hand as administrator of the estate of his father, Charles B. Hand, lumberman, who died last night at 14 from blood poisoning, caused by a splinter in his hand.

The will of William Sheehy, who died July 15, was probated yesterday. His estate goes to the widow except $10 to each of his children and $20 a month to each of his brothers and sisters.

ENTIRE COAST THREATENED

Demand for $100,000,000 From Oregon Held Exorbitant by West.

SALEM, Or., July 25.—(Special.)—If the threat of A. R. Exley, formerly a resident of Portland, but now an officer of the Alibon Land Corporation, Tacoma, is carried out, Oregon, Washington, California, Iowa and a part of Canada will soon be wiped off the map. Mr. Exley writes to Governor West that because he was arrested in Portland and held pending an inquest into his mental condition, the states named and a part of Canada owe him a great deal of money. The letter says if Oregon does not pay him $100,000,000 and the other states and Canada $500,000,000 each, he will have the combined fleets of Great Britain, Germany and Japan force the payment or devastate the countries.

"I am now a subject of the King of England," writes the real estate man, "and he has decreed that justice is done. I started a life insurance business in Portland for the good of the people, and they tried to put me out of the way by threatening to send me to the Penitentiary. This caused my business to become busted, and when I was paroled I came to Tacoma."

The writer suggests, if the state has not the money, that the life insurance companies, which he roundly scores, be forced to produce it.

Governor, after reading the letter, announced that the demand of Mr. Exley was exorbitant, and that the state would not pay the money.

LIFE OF BIRDS IS DEPICTED

Dr. Clifton Hodge Says Feathered Beings Save Millions.

Dr. Clifton F. Hodge, assistant professor of Clark University, delivered an illustrated lecture last night at the Portland Library on "Our Children and Our Birds," under the auspices of the Academy of Science and the Oregon Society of Naturalists. William State Game Warden, introduced Dr. Hodge.

Hodge declared that there was nothing so instructive and interesting for children as the study of bird life, and that the annual loss to the country from insects was more than $1,000,000,000, and that the birds as destroyers saved $500,000,000 annually to the country.

SCHOOL IS LAUDED

Teaching of Trades Pleases National Commissioner.

"About the best school that I've seen in a long time I saw right here in Portland, Oregon," said E. Claxton, National Commissioner of Education, who visited for a few hours in Portland yesterday.

"I refer to the School of Trades, where practical education is brought into the lives of the little folks. That's what we need more of in this country—schools of practical worth—schools that will make useful citizens of our boys and girls."

"So far as I have been able to observe in my brief stay in Portland, I believe that the schools of this city are well up among the leaders in this modern educational work."

Mr. Claxton Declares Most Progressive Idea Advanced Recently Is That of Superintendent Alderman on Home Credits.

Mr. Claxton was the guest of Superintendent Alderman at dinner. Later they visited the several high schools and the new fireproof buildings that have been erected in the last few years.

"It isn't so much the kind of building," he said, "as what you have in them, the content, but we certainly should have fireproof buildings whenever we can—the more nearly fireproof the better."

O. M. Plummer, a member of the board, told him proudly that Portland is building nothing but fireproof structures now and that soon the dangerous frame buildings will be a thing of the past.
