

THAW NOT ALLOWED TO ATTEND CHURCH

Sheriff Thinks Town Has Had Enough—Counsel in Wrangle With Jerome.

CONTEMPT IS INTIMATED

United States Marshal Authorized to Use Whatever Force is Necessary to Prevent Interference With Writ.

COLEBROOK, N. H., Sept. 14.—The protection of the United States courts had not actually come to Harry Thaw tonight. Thaw's counsel obtained a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Aldrich at Concord, but the writ was not served on Sheriff Drew today and the Thaw lawyers said tonight that probably it would not be served until tomorrow.

Thaw spent a quiet Sunday, his fifth away from Matteawan. He did not even go out for a walk. He expressed a desire to attend the Methodist church but the sheriff said that (himself) had not been going to church much of late and feared if he went today it might establish a precedent under which his wife would compel him to attend regularly hereafter.

Sheriff Refuses Parade.

He made this explanation with a smile and said later that his real reason for not taking Thaw out was that Colebrook had been upset enough already over the fugitive and he thought it best not to parade him on Sunday. The corridors of the Monasnook house where Thaw is held were crowded with country folk throughout the day. They had driven or moved in from their homes in the hope of getting a good look at Thaw.

The statement of Moses H. Crossman, of the Thaw counsel, that the Federal writ was obtained only as an emergency measure to checkmate New York State, developed into an open controversy between the factions today. Jerome last night characterized the move as a breach of faith and today he procured affidavits from newspaper men setting forth what Crossman had said. It was understood that he obtained these for use in a possible move to sustain his contention that Crossman and his associates had "trifled" with the Federal courts and perhaps were liable for contempt.

"That is absurd," said Crossman. "I shall go before Judge Aldrich myself on Tuesday. He understands thoroughly my motives and will be prepared to meet any charge that we did not act in good faith. The statement from Mr. Jerome that I agreed not to ask for this writ must have been made under a misunderstanding."

The habeas corpus hearing is set for 11 o'clock Tuesday at Littleton. Thaw lawyers will ask for a continuance, thus leaving the writ hanging over the heads of their opponents, and proceedings will then be transferred to Concord, the capital, for the hearing before the United States Marshal for this district, will serve notice of the writ on Sheriff Drew and from the moment of that notice Thaw will be in the joint custody of the United States Government and the authorities of Coos County, New Hampshire. The Marshal has been directed to protect said Thaw from violence and indignity if such be attempted.

Outlook Pleases Prisoners.

This will be a new experience for the mayor of Standish, White, and he is pleased at the prospect. Having Federal interference in his case, gratified that peculiar love for show and publicity he has shown so often. Besides there is comfort in the thought that any infringement of the writ by anyone whatsoever would mean serious consequences. United States Marshal White in an injunction which says in effect, "hands off."

100 AMERICANS PRISONERS

(Continued From First Page) in a few days after special calls at Mexican ports, and the United States troops at Buford, will be unable to bring a quarter of the men, women and children anxious to leave, according to the accounts of the passengers of a steamer. Stories of the utter chaos of government, business and social life related by refugees coming here in other steamers was reiterated by the Peru's band.

People at Mercy of Looters.

"The United States must interfere," declared William Enright, of the Mexican Petroleum Company, who has been in Mexico several years. "All the people and all the business interests are at the mercy of murdering bands of robbers. Zapatas have demoralized business within a large area around Mexico City and practically stopped all commerce, even in the city. If we would not help matters any further, Huerta to retire. He would only make matters worse. Orozco would get into the field and then there would be a five-cornered fight instead of a four-cornered one."

D. M. Leamer, a mining man of Puebla Nuevo, who was held up three times by different bands of rebels, told of a quasi-government established in the state of Durango by the opponents of the Huerta regime. He believes that the life of every American is in the greatest danger unless all leave within the next few weeks.

M. Lambert, who had been employed in a Tepic mine, told of a night attack by 50 Federal soldiers who had murdered. While he was holding off the whole band so his wife's daughter could escape he was struck in the forehead by the butt end of a gun and a deep gash was made, of which he still bears the scar.

Although the transportation to this port of many of the refugees was paid by the United States, no provision was made for sending them to their homes in various sections of the country. The immigration officials were appealed to by some and they passed the matter along to the State Department. It is expected some arrangements for transportation will be made tomorrow.

Anti-American Feeling Grows.

That the feeling against Americans is growing stronger is indicated by assaults here and there. No concerted movements have been made against the citizens of this country, but those compelled to remain in Mexico are by no means encouraged by the way things are going. George Merino, resident agent of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, at Acapulco was assaulted by a dozen unidentified men the early part of the month. He was seated in front of his office when the crowd came along and when told to get up he was badly bruised, but when the Peru was at Acapulco he was about again.

One Hundred Infants Entered at Clarke County Fair.

ALL BUT 15 ARE EXAMINED

Boys and Girls in Last Year's Competition Profited by Advice Given by Doctor-Judges, Says Dr. Mary Madigan.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—More interest was taken in the eugenics contest at the Clarke County Fair this year than any other single feature, except the six-days racing bill, which was the big attraction. To choose the best 18 babies in the county from the 100 infants entered was no small task, and it required the entire attention of Mrs. Victor H. Limber, eight doctors and several nurses more than two days to arrange for the final results. Entries for the contest closed September 1, and just 100 babies had been entered. There were a number that would have been entered later, but the rule had been made, and was adhered to.

The Grange Hall at the fair grounds was fitted up especially for the occasion, and divided into several curtained rooms. On Thursday the contest began and 52 infants were examined. Thirty-three were examined the following day, making a total of 85 examined out of the 100 entered. Several babies in two or three classes were first place, and in such cases the entries were re-scored, some going a point or so higher and some going a little lower.

Faults Are Corrected. Dr. Mary Madigan, who had charge of the judging, said she had noticed that the babies who had entered the contest last year, and were entered again this year, had benefited by the advice given the parents by the doctors.

Many of the babies were entered that they might be weighed, measured and scored. One woman, when asked why she did not enter her infant in the eugenics contest, replied, "I don't want to find out he isn't."

Winner Scores 999 Points. The sweepstakes baby, James J. Henrichsen, who scored 999 points, was born October 25, 1912, and is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Henrichsen, who live at Seventeenth and Main streets. Mr. Henrichsen is one of the sons of the pioneer Henrichsen family that lived on a homestead in the '60s. Mr. Henrichsen is a bricklayer, 27 years old, and Mrs. Henrichsen is 27 years old.

Isabel Margaret Walter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Walter, is nearly two years old. She scored 998 out of a possible 1000 points. Mr. Walter is interested in a feed company of this city, and is past 40 years of age. Mrs. Walter is a daughter of Mrs. H. C. Funk, and was born here. For 12 years she was a teacher in the public schools, and always took an interest in the welfare of children. She has two children.

J. O. Wing, president-manager of the Clarke County Fair Association, is more than pleased with the great success of the eugenics contest, which he will make an annual event to be held at the fair.

"RADIO" WATER IS FRAUD

GOVERNMENT WARNS AGAINST ADVERTISED PRODUCTS.

Activity Declared to Be Reduced to Almost Nothing After Short Time in Bottles.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The United States Department of Agriculture, through the Bureau of Chemistry, has issued the following warning to the public in regard to the so-called radioactive mineral waters offered for sale in bottles.

"There are indications of the beginning of an attempt to perpetrate a great fraud on the American people through advertising certain mineral waters as possessing radioactivity. These waters, in some cases, are taken from springs the waters of which as they come from the ground do possess certain radioactive properties. Examination of many of these waters by the department's specialists indicate that whatever radioactivity they possess at the spring is due almost entirely to radium emanation, rather than to the presence in the water of any substance possessing radioactivity. These emanations in the form of gas quickly disappear from the water and as a result, after the water has been bottled a short time, it will possess practically no radioactivity.

"If the radioactivity of a water in a spring is 100, four days after bottling it will be only 50, and 12 days after bottling, 10. In a month it will be practically nothing compared with the original radioactivity of the water at the spring. The public, therefore, is warned to regard with suspicion any water advertised as possessing radioactivity. As far as the Government's specialists have been able to ascertain, no bottled water, no matter how radioactive it may have been at the spring, retains this radioactivity for any length of time.

"The department is now investigating a number of the so-called radioactive waters with the object of securing evidence that can be made a basis of prosecution for misbranding. The Treasury Department, acting in cooperation with the Department of Agriculture, now refuses admission to the country of foreign waters labeled so as to mislead consumers as to their real or curative properties. The department feels that unless the public is warned that the fraudulent trade in so-called radioactive waters will develop, just as the fraudulent trade in other mineral waters was developed in this year, then any people with strong imaginations will supply their bottles with all sorts of testimonials asserting that these supposed radioactive waters have effected wonderful cures."

IMMUNITY BATH DENIED

SHERIFF GAGE SAYS HE HAD NO PROMISE FROM CRAWFORD.

Coos County Grand Jury Investigating Serious Charges Against C. H. McLaughlin, Socialist.

COQUILLE, Or., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Sheriff Gage denies any promise or intimation of immunity was made by Attorney-General Crawford, as charged by C. H. McLaughlin in a letter to Governor West. Sheriff Gage held brief meetings with Mr. Crawford and had little idea of evidence gathered by the Attorney-General except that brought out at public hearing at Bandon. Sheriff Gage says he was not influenced by Attorney-General Crawford. He was certain that no blame could be fixed on his office.

Serious accusations against C. H. McLaughlin are under investigation by the Coos County grand jury. He is a resident of Marshfield. A few years ago McLaughlin married the divorced wife of his brother, who was then in the insane asylum, and who is said to be now at liberty at Silverton. Mr. McLaughlin is an ardent Socialist. Formerly he was employed as fireman at the Smith mill, but for some time has not been employed. He spends most of his time advocating reforms.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Mayor E. E. Straw, of Marshfield, who is here visiting his mother tonight, denied having a hand in the Marshfield deportations. He says he does not know what crime he has committed that would give a semblance of an excuse for court proceedings. He says the whole thing appeals to him as a joke.

HOP KILN IS DESTROYED

Women Pickers Save 23 Bales From Burning Building at Mossy Rock.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—A hop kiln on the farm of W. J. Livingston, at Mossy Rock, burned at 8 o'clock this morning, destroying the kiln and four or five tons of hops. The fire started in the wall between the siding and plaster and had gained such headway that it could not be put out when discovered. Only a few men were about at the time. Women pickers rushed in from the field, and, largely through their efforts, 23 bales that had been made were carried out of the building and saved.

The yard is being operated by J. C. Bush, who will sack the remainder of the hops, about 150 boxes, as fast as they are picked and haul them to Chehalis to be dried. The building was covered by insurance and it is thought there was enough insurance to cover the hops that were burned.

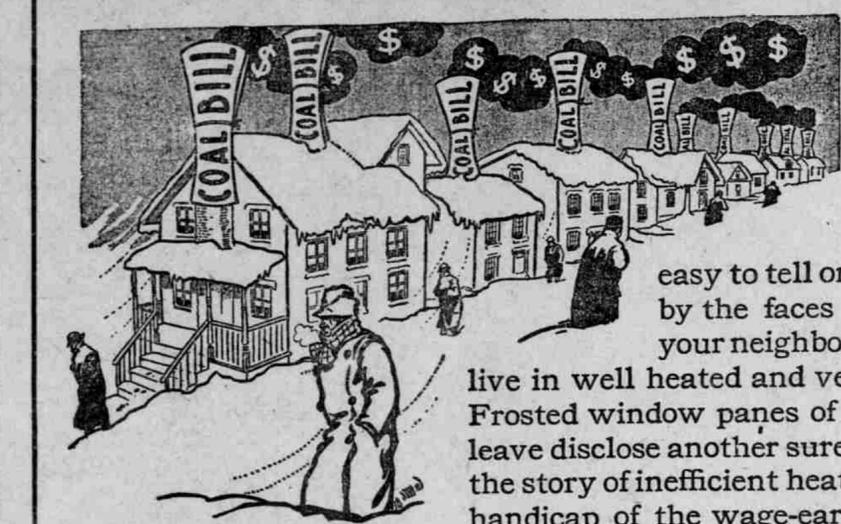

WEDDING FOLLOWS KILLING

Man Who Shot ex-Convict Marries Victim's Divorced Wife.

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., Sept. 14.—Mrs. Joseph Gurr, of Vernal, Utah, was married here Saturday to Frederick Wade, who three weeks ago shot and killed her divorced husband.

Mrs. Gurr secured a divorce while her husband was in prison. On serving his sentence Gurr traced his wife to Vernal, and as she and Wade were leaving a theater he shot Wade, the bullet wounding the latter's arm. Wade fired five shots in return. Gurr died the following day. A coroner's jury exonerated Wade.

Settle the heating question NOW!

NOW!

The heating question must soon be faced in every home. It is usually easy to tell on bitter cold days by the faces and bearings of your neighbors which of them live in well heated and ventilated houses.

Frosted window panes of the houses they leave disclose another sure tell-tale story—the story of inefficient heating—the serious handicap of the wage-earner in the business competition where so much depends upon starting the day in physical comfort—well warmed and ventilated bedroom, bathroom, breakfast room, and a warm hall in which to say good-bye.

AMERICAN & IDEAL RADIATORS & BOILERS

or in which to study, write or discuss comfortably as preparation to improve one's position or earnings.

A No. 4121 IDEAL Boiler and 420 sq. ft. of 38-1/2" AMERICAN Radiators, costing the owner $195, were used to heat this cottage. At this price the goods can be bought by any reputable, competent fitter. This did not include cost of labor, pipe, valves, freight, etc., which are extra and vary according to climatic and other conditions.

IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators are noiseless, absolutely safe and will outlast the building in which they are set. They require far less care-taking in heating 5 to 25 rooms than to run and keep clean a stove for one room. They spout no ash-dust, soot or coal-gases into the living-rooms. This cleanliness saves the wear and brightness of household furnishings and reduces house-work one-half.

WOMEN MAY ADVISE

Baldwin Would Admit Sex to Republican Councils.

EARLY ACTION SUGGESTED

Selection of Woman as Vice-Chairman, Together With Advisory Committee of 5, Recommended to Chairman Moores.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Sept. 14.—In a letter to C. B. Moores, chairman of the Oregon Republican state central committee, E. D. Baldwin, secretary of that committee, who also is private secretary to Representative Slinott, suggests that one of the women voters of Oregon be selected as Vice-chairman of the state central committee prior to the next campaign, and further suggests the creation of an advisory executive committee to be filled by five of the leading women voters. Mr. Baldwin writes: "Political good sense as well as justice demands that we should seek to enlist as soon as possible this big new force which was brought into our state politics last November. The Republican party is fundamentally a party of high ethics as well as sound economic principles. For this reason it is the party to which women will naturally belong. We should make them welcome to our party organization without delay. We need their counsel as well as their votes."

"The problem is how to do this to the best advantage. My idea is for the state committee to create the office of vice-chairman and elect a woman to fill it. Also it might be well to create an advisory executive committee to fill the places on such advisory executive committee with five leading Republican women from different parts of the state."

"Don't you think that this plan has the combined advantage of giving our 'sister politicians' an opportunity to get in touch with political conditions during their first state campaign with that load of worry and responsibility connected with the principal executive positions on the state committee? The fairness of this ought to appeal to the many able women in Oregon interested in public affairs."

The new law from Maine, coming today before the Democratic tariff bill has even become a law, has put Republicans here in fine spirits. Personally, I have felt a subconscious optimism about the result in Oregon next year ever since last Spring. If we have a vigorous stand-up-and-fight campaign next year along clean, progressive lines I believe the Republians will make a clean sweep from Senator to Constable. The party of protection will fight shoulder to shoulder next year once more—and to win. Even the Democrats here are freely predicting a Republican House next year."

JEWELL CASE DISMISSED

Judge Takes Verdict From Jury in Manslaughter Prosecution.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—The case against Benjamin Jewell, held by a coroner's verdict on a charge of manslaughter on account of the death of his young daughter, who was alleged to have died for lack of medical attention, when he had been dismissed in the Central Criminal Court. Jewell had employed a Christian Science practitioner in his family.

Friendliness was made by the judge after the prosecution had called three witnesses, all doctors. The third doctor was not allowed to complete his testimony, the judge declaring it would be clearly dangerous to convict a man on such evidence, and therefore there was no cause for the jury.
