

DANCING WEEK NOW FOR YOUNGER SET

Murlark Hall Tonight Is Scene of Party of Halloween Season.

JAPANESE CONSUL HOST

Friday Evening Will See Dance at Portland Heights Club—Wedding of Miss Johnson and Jacob Schiewe Pretty Event.

This is to be a dancing week, beginning with the evening, and the smart set will dance each evening during the week. The Friday Night Dancing Club's first dance of the season will take place tonight at Murlark Hall, the members including the younger members of society; tomorrow evening the Ladies' Guild will give a Halloween dance at Trinity Parish House. The Multnomah Club also will have their first dance of the season tomorrow evening, and the reception and dance to be given by the Japanese Consul and Mrs. M. Ida is scheduled for Friday evening. Another dance on Friday evening will be that given by the Portland Heights Club. Then, too, the Irvington Club gives a Halloween party this week.

Proceeding the Ladies' Guild will have a reception from 8 to 9 o'clock and excellent music has been provided for the entire evening. The dance will commence at 9 o'clock, and from that hour on, safety will reign supreme. Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Ritter (nee Lettie Sorenson), whose wedding was an event of October 14, returned Sunday from their wedding trip to San Francisco.

In honor of Mr. Franklin O. Catterlin, of Bandon, Mrs. Duane Abbott, 560 party at her home in Laurelhurst. Guests made up five tables of the same. The rooms were decorated prettily with asters and a profusion of autumn leaves. High score was made by Mrs. Charles Wolfgang and Mrs. Catterlin was awarded a handsome guest prize.

Mrs. Ida Conrad entertained at a bridge luncheon Thursday for her daughter, Mrs. Franklin O. Catterlin, who is visiting her from Bandon. Or. Covers were laid for 12 and the decorations were in keeping with the Halloween spirit.

One of the prettiest of the Fall weddings was that of Miss Zella J. Johnson to Jacob G. Schiewe, which took place October 22 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Johnson, 433 East Twenty-third street. The parties were artistically decorated with pink and white crepe paper intermingled with pink and white carnations, autumn branches and ferns being combined to form a bower where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. D. Hornschuch, of the First English Evangelical Church. The bride was attractive in her gown of cream chiffon trimmed with lace and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, which was afterwards placed by Miss Earleen E. Smith.

Miss Lola Pio was bridesmaid. She was attired in a gown of pink cascade trimmed with white lace and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Schiewe, of Oregon City. He was attended by Newton Johnson, brother of the bride. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Ollie Jones, of Oregon City. "Foot Love" was sung by Dorothy Johnson, accompanied by Miss Katherine Voegelien.

A wedding supper was served to about 60 guests. Misses Schiewe, cousins of the bridegroom, and the Misses Kate Harder, Wava Daugherty, Elma Fish and Mrs. N. E. Graves, relatives of the bride, presided in the dining-room. Misses Dorothy and Verena, sisters of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. The bride is a popular young East Side girl, having graduated from the June '11, class of Washington High. Many valuable and beautiful gifts were received by the young couple, who will pass their wedding trip visit their home in American Falls, Idaho.

Mrs. F. W. Hill, who accompanied Mr. Hill East, is now visiting her mother in Chicago, where she will remain a short time. She plans to join a party of relatives and friends from New York and Havana in a trip to Europe, expecting to spend most of the time in Italy and Paris. She probably will be away for the winter, intending to return to Portland in the Spring.

Mrs. C. P. Blanchard and her daughter, Miss Ruth Blanchard, left yesterday on the steamer Beaver for California. A large number of friends assembled at the dock to bid the travelers a happy journey. Miss Blanchard has been ill for some time, and with her mother she will visit California and Arizona. Her friends are hoping that her homecoming may find her with health restored.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caswell returned to Portland yesterday from California. Mrs. Caswell has been sojourning in the East for several months where she went last July to place her daughter, Miss Louise, in school in Providence, R. I. Mrs. Caswell passed some time in New York and Boston and en route home was joined in California by Mr. Caswell.

HOUSEKEEPERS Must be Watchful

For great efforts are being made in this vicinity to sell baking powders of inferior class, made from alum acids and lime phosphates, both undesirable to those who require high-grade cream of tartar baking powder to make clean and healthful food

THE OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT tests have shown Royal Baking Powder to be a pure, healthful, grape cream of tartar baking powder, of highest strength, and care should be taken to prevent the substitution of any other brand in its place.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price per pound, and is cheaper and better at its price than any other baking powder in the world.
