

NEW JERSEY'S OLD PARTIES CONFIDENT

Republicans Quite as Sure of Victory as Are Democrats on Voting Eve.

GOVERNORSHIP IS AT STAKE

Success for Fielder Would Be Taken as Indorsement of Wilson Administration—Bull Moose Vote May Sway Election.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 3.—At the close of the campaign tonight, both Republican and Democratic leaders were confident of victory for their candidates at the polls tomorrow.

Friends of Everett Colby, Progressive candidate for Governor, are predicting Mr. Colby's election, but this is not taken seriously even by the rank and file of the Progressives.

James F. Fielder, the Democratic candidate for Governor, was the choice of President Wilson before the primaries. Secretary of State Bryan and others prominent in National politics came to New Jersey to appear in his behalf and asked voters also to elect a Democratic Legislature as a means of indorsing the President's Administration.

The result of the gubernatorial election, many say, will depend on the size of the vote polled by Mr. Colby.

Unless the early returns indicate a strong drift toward either Mr. Fielder or former Governor E. C. Stokes, the Republican candidate, the result may not be known until late.

The day before election found everything quiet except for some charges of false registration in the larger cities. Fielder, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and Stokes, the Republican nominee, made a tour today of Southern New Jersey and Colby, the Progressive candidate, made speeches in Elizabeth and other parts of Union County.

PITTSBURG CAMPAIGN BITTER

Conspiracy Charges Preferred on Eve of Mayoralty Vote.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 3.—One of the most exciting and bitter mayoralty campaigns in the history of Pittsburgh closed tonight. The rival candidates for honors tomorrow are Joseph G. Armstrong, ex-director of public works, and Congressman Stephen G. Porter, running on a non-partisan ballot.

Interest in the campaign was intensified today when Dr. E. R. Walters, County Delinquent Tax Collector, and Howard Bousler, Director of the Department of Supplies, were held under $500 bail each on a charge of conspiring to issue fraudulent tax receipts during the recent primaries.

About the same time a special grand jury, which investigated alleged gambling, made a presentation to Judge A. B. Held, who stated he would not make it public until the morning after election. G. Brown Hill, foreman of the grand jury, returned in addition to a special grand jury, returned indictments late today against Adolph Edlis, City Treasurer, and Dr. H. B. Burns, Acting Director of the Department of Health and Charities, charging them with frauds alleged to have been committed at the recent election. In the interest of Stephen G. Porter.

FINAL APPEALS ARE MADE

Philadelphia Leaders of Opposing Forces All Are Sure.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—Leaders of the opposing forces which have been working for the election of candidates for District Attorney, Registrar, City Collector of Taxes, City Treasurer, members of councils and other county officials, tonight expressed confidence that their respective candidates would be successful at the polls tomorrow.

Republican candidates addressed members of the city committee and made predictions of majorities ranging from 20,000 to 60,000.

Fusion speakers, who are claiming victory for the Democratic-Washington party candidates by a margin of about 10,000, continued their speaking tour tonight and made 11th-hour appeals to voters.

Local issues predominated throughout the state. The only state-wide candidates are judges of the Superior Court, who will be chosen on a non-partisan ballot.

RAIN DUE IN MASSACHUSETTS

Four of Six Candidates for Governor Foresee Triumph.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 3.—Six of the seven candidates for Governor made their final appeals tonight to the voters of the state in what has been the shortest and keenest campaign in recent years. Congressman A. P. Gardner, the Republican candidate, will speak at a noon rally at Lowell tomorrow.

In their arguments tonight four of the candidates claimed victory. These were Governor Eugene N. Foss, running independently for a fourth term after three terms as a Democrat; Lieutenant-Governor David L. Welsh, the Democratic candidate; Charles S. Bird, Progressive, and Congressman Gardner.

Predictions of rain tomorrow curtailed to some extent the expectations that the vote would closely approach that of last year—475,000.

BAKER CLEVELAND FAVORITE

Democratic Candidate for Mayor on Long End of Betting.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 3.—Although Mayor Newton D. Baker, the Democratic candidate for re-election, closed his speaking campaign Saturday night, the Republican candidate, Harry L. Davis, continued his speech-making up to the last minute, making four speeches tonight. Seven ballots are to be voted on tomorrow. Foss, Bird, Welsh and Gardner are the candidates.

Besides the choosing of city officials, local and state issues are to be decided. On the ballots for Mayor and

COUNCILMAN, VOTERS MAY MARK THEIR FIRST, SECOND AND THIRD CHOICES.

Designations do not appear on the ballots. Betting has favored Mayor Baker, but the Republicans appear hopeful of victory.

Light Virginia Vote Expected.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 3.—It is indicated that an extremely light vote will be cast in Virginia tomorrow for state officers, as there is no opposition to the regular Democratic ticket, headed by Henry C. Stuart for Governor. The lower branch of the general assembly, members of which are to be elected, will be overwhelmingly Democratic.

CLUBS TO DISCUSS MEXICO

Programmes of Admen and Rotarians Deal With Troubled Nation.

Mexico and her troubles have seized the attention of both the Portland Ad Club and the Rotary Club and their programmes this week will deal with the situation in that country.

F. A. Spencer, Mexican Consul, will be the speaker at the Rotary Club luncheon today and C. V. Cooper, manager of the Costillia Rubber Plantations, will also give a talk on the Mexican situation. The luncheon will be at the Commercial Club.

The subject of the Mexican programme at the Ad Club luncheon at the Portland Hotel tomorrow will be: "Shall the United States Government proceed to armed intervention in Mexico?"

FORECAST OF TODAY'S ELECTIONS IN EASTERN STATES.

New York—Election one Mayor and one Assemblyman. All indications point to overrider of Tammany and election of John Purroy Mitchell, fusion candidate.

There are three candidates for Assemblyman, but Mitchell will probably carry William Sulzer, the impeached Governor and candidate of the Progressives, to victory with him.

Massachusetts—Election Governor. David I. Walsh, Democrat, seems to have the lead, but Charles Sumner Bird, Progressive, will poll a heavy vote. There are several tickets in the field.

New Jersey—Election Governor. James F. Fielder, Democrat, appears to be leading Edward S. Stokes, Republican, and Everett Colby, Progressive.

Virginia—Election Governor. Henry C. Stuart, Democrat, has no opposition.

Maryland—Election United States Senator. Blair Lee, Democrat, has a slight lead over Thomas Herrat, Republican. George L. Wellington, Progressive, may draw enough votes from Republicans to elect the Democrat.

Illinois—Local-option elections in 23 towns. With women voting, it is thought four counties will be added to the "dry" map and that probably only five of the towns will retain saloons.

Indianapolis—Election Mayor. Three candidates in the race. The streetcar strike will strengthen the Democrat and Socialist candidates, and the Progressives will weaken the Republican chances. The Democrats have the best prospect of winning.

Pennsylvania—Election two Judges of the Superior Court. It is thought one Republican and one Democrat will be elected.

Cincinnati—Election municipal officers. Looks like easy victory for Democrats. In other Ohio cities honors will probably be evenly divided.

Philadelphia—Election District Attorney, Register of Wills, receivers of taxes and council members. Republicans have made a hot campaign and predict victory.

Pittsburg—Election municipal officers. Two city officials were indicted on eve of election for alleged frauds in the interest of non-partisan ticket, and the result is in doubt.

GRANGE PROGRAMME MADE

State Library Commission to Supply Books for Year.

H. A. Darnall, state lecturer of the Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, has issued the monthly programmes for the year beginning with November and ending with September, 1914. The State Library Commission at Salem will supply reference books, which are to be returned after they have been used. The programmes for the months of November and December of the present year are as follows:

November—"Harvest Festival" (Ceres Day), "Origin of Thanksgiving," "Season's Reward," "First Thanksgiving Proclamation," "Lessons of the Year," to be discussed; "How to Keep Fruit and Vegetables for Winter Use," "Seed Selection in Practice," "Thanksgiving Day is Here," "Lecturer's Scrap Book."

December—"The Prospective Garden in Preparation," "How the Ready-made Garment Interferes With Domestic Economy," "Effects in Our School System," "Agricultural Co-Operation in Practice."

EDITOR'S LIBEL CASE SET

Court Member Accused of Selling Liquor on Sunday.

OREGON CITY, Or., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—The November term of the Circuit Court opened here today with Judge J. J. Campbell on the bench. Only a few cases were set and those were placed toward the end of the calendar.

The libel case against M. J. Brown, editor of the Courier, a weekly paper, is set for November 11, and that against J. W. Smith and others, charged with selling high on Sunday, is scheduled for November 14.

The interest in the second case centers about the fact that Smith is a member of the union, which recently ordered others who were indicted with him are prominent farmers of the county.

The story that led to Brown's indictment is said to have been part of his opposition to the former County Court.

OPERA ON; TAXICABS OFF

Chauffeurs Walk Out Just When Society Would Ride.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—A general strike of taxicab drivers began here tonight. The strikers count on the fact that the grand opera season opened tonight and that it is election eve to make the strike especially effective.

Leaders of the union, which recently demanded that the drivers be paid $2.50 a day instead of 20 per cent of the gross receipts of their cars, ordered the men out tonight after the demand had been refused.

Chauffeurs in the garages of the big hotels were the first to leave their machines, orders having been given to picket the opera-house and campaign headquarters of the various political parties.

The striking chauffeurs at a mass meeting tonight announced that 600 members of the union had joined the strike.

Motor Truck Hurts Laborer.

William Fix, a laborer residing at 51 North Third-street, was run down by a motor truck at the corner of Fourth and Jefferson streets last night and badly injured. He was rushed to a hospital. The truck was driven by R. Culbertson, of 508 Jefferson street, and is owned by C. F. Miller, of 262 Stout street.

Sand Slide Buries Boys.

BELOIT, Wis., Nov. 3.—A toy wagon, abandoned near a sandpit, led to the discovery today of the bodies of two boys—Willard Harris and Raymond Gettke. The boys evidently were buried alive by a sand slide while playing near the pit.

GUNMEN AWAITED AT GOTHAM POLLS

New York Preparing for Intimidation—New Danger Threatens Election.

PRECINCT CAPTAINS SHIFT

Alleged Illegally Registered Voters Will Receive Warrant Instead of Ballot—Tammany Smiles, Predicting Victory.

(Continued From First Page.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The probable political complexion of the assembly, the lower branch of the Legislature, is of chief state-wide interest on the eve of the elections. The present assembly contains a strong Democratic majority. Republicans tonight predicted they would regain control, while Progressives leave the new assembly, of 150 members, would contain 62 Progressives.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

be found by the subpoena servers. Wood is the man whom Hennessy, ex-Governor Sulzer's graft investor, said gave him the information that Edward E. McCall, Tammany's candidate for Mayor, had borrowed money from ex-Police Inspector W. W. McLaughlin to pay for his nomination as Supreme Court Justice in 1902.

District Attorney Whitman announced at today's hearing that Wood left town Saturday, the day after Hennessy testified, and that his subpoena servers had been unable to find a trace of him since. In his stead, the prosecutor called the police inspector's son, W. W. McLaughlin, Jr., who presented corroborated Hennessy's accusations by swearing, in an affidavit published in the New York World, that he had seen a photograph of a check for $21,000 which he said McCall had given his father in payment of the alleged loan.

McLaughlin was questioned closely by the District Attorney and retorted that he had heard his father and mother discuss the debt and that he had heard his father say he had loaned the money to Judge McCall to pay for his nomination. The hearing will be continued Thursday.

ASSEMBLY CHIEF STATE ISSUE

Republicans and Progressives Each Sure of New York Victory.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The probable political complexion of the assembly, the lower branch of the Legislature, is of chief state-wide interest on the eve of the elections. The present assembly contains a strong Democratic majority. Republicans tonight predicted they would regain control, while Progressives leave the new assembly, of 150 members, would contain 62 Progressives.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.

Four constitutional amendments will be voted upon to permit the Legislature to enact laws for excess condemnation by municipalities of land for public improvements, under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court; for a workmen's compensation act; for additional county judges in Brooklyn, and for storage reservoirs on state forest lands for purposes of municipal water supply or for power purposes.