CLASH SATURDAY

Portland Center of Football Interest in Northwest Conference Circles.

MANAGERS ON GROUNDS

Washington-Oregon Contest Expected to Be One of Finest on Record; Championship Games to Be Played Throughout Country.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.
Portland this week occupies the center of the football stage in the Pacific Northwest. With only two undefeated teams in the field and these two slated to fight it out for the championship Saturday on Multnomah Field, local enthusiasts are decidedly fortunate.

PRINCIPALS IN LIGHTWEIGHT BOXING MATCH LAST NIGHT IN NEW YORK CITY.

RITCHIE WONNER IN FIGHT WITH CROSS

Championship Match in New York Goes Full Ten Rounds to Referee's Decision.

WORLD'S TITLE INVOLVED

Contender Goes to Floor Twice but Comes Back Undaunted and Forces Champion to Go Limit to Win.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion of the world, defeated Leach Cross, of this city, in a 10-round bout, which went the limit at Madison Square Garden tonight.

rell, chairman of the National Board of Arbitration, the supreme court of minor league baseball, did not arrive tonight and the meeting of the board was postponed until tomorrow.

COACH STEWART FEARS SLUMP

Corvallis Football Mentor Preparing for State College Next Saturday.

Other Games Attract. Saturday will be productive of three big games in the Northwestern conference.

Whitman and Idaho are scheduled to battle Moscow and Washington State and the Oregon Aggies at Corvallis.

Both teams are expected to be hummers. Idaho walloped Washington State 3-0 and the Pulmanites defeated Whitman 22-0.

So far as the Corvallis game is concerned, Washington State gave Multnomah Club a fierce battle here, and coach Bender's crew is pretty certain to apply another test to the powerful Argyle machine.

Multnomah defeated the Aggies 6-0 and then tied them 7-7 in a return engagement on Wednesday.

Both teams were much alike, except that the Aggies had a good deal of skill in the 7-7 tie affair. If they play as they did on that momentous occasion at Corvallis or if they duplicate their performance against Oregon, Dr. Stewart's huskies should win.

But, if there is any let-up in the camp of the orange and black—look for trouble.

Championship Games in East. The East and Middle West Saturday likewise promise stiff competition.

At Minneapolis, Minnesota and Chicago battle for the Eight title; at New Haven, Princeton and Yale are carded for their annual clash, and while this big battle is being waged, Michigan and Pennsylvania will be fighting it out at Ann Arbor.

This last mentioned game will be interesting because of the strange contest that took place between these two teams last fall. It was by far the most sensational recorded in football history, resembling in the main the fierce match of a few days ago between Oregon and the Aggies.

Big Lead Overtaken. Pennsylvania defeated Michigan, but when the game opened it looked like a walkover for the Quakers. In the first period the Wolverines scored two touchdowns and added another in the third, the half ending in a score of 24-0.

Then the Pennsylvania team opened up an assortment of brilliant passes and runs by Mercer, Minds and Marshall were scored three touchdowns. But they had failed to kick one goal, which left the score 21-20 in Michigan's favor.

With less than a minute to play, Marshall caught one of Michigan's punts at midfield, and, by a brilliant bit of footwork, similar to Johnny Parrson's sensational sprints at Albany Saturday, the fleet-footed Penn star scored a touchdown, winning the game 27-21.

SCHOOL GAME IS POSTPONED. Washington High-Columbia Contest to Be Played Thursday.

Through the courtesy of the Columbia University the Columbia-Washington High football game scheduled for tomorrow has been postponed until Thursday.

The game was originally set ahead of Washington game put the East Siders in a poor condition, but with an extra day's rest Coach Earl expects his team to be in tip-top shape.

Tegart is the only member of the high school eleven who is seriously injured, having had his ankle twisted in Saturday's game. In all probability, he will play part of the game at tackle.

Other members of the team, although bruised and battered are rounding into form fast.

Malarkey and Philbin, two of the members of the Columbia University squad who have been injured, are in the best of condition again and will be seen in the game Thursday. Both teams had light workouts last night, with the Peninsula team scheduled for heavy scrimmage tonight.

DINNER SEATS SELL

Demand for Places at Banquet to Ballplayers is Large.

SITE OF FEAST UNDECIDED

First Plan of Having Board Set as Diamond Has Been Added To and Tables Will Be Put in Outfield to Seat 200 Dinners.

Continued demands for seats at the banquet to be tendered the world baseball tourists on November 18 by Portland baseball boosters caused an entire rearrangement of the seating plans at last night's meeting of the committees at the Hotel Portland.

E. S. Higgins, chairman of the banquet committee, recently outlined a plan to have the tables arranged in the shape of a diamond.

The increased demands of the committee decide to add a table in center field, another in left and a third in right.

It was decided to put in the players' benches. This will give a seating capacity of more than 200.

At that time there will be a scramble for places. Pitcher's box also will have a table in it.

This probably will be reserved for some of the dignitaries.

Because some of the players' wives have been mentioned as beauties, the committee decided to turn the women of the baseball party over to some of Portland's fanettes.

They will have a time all their own on a party which will not cross the path of their husbands all day.

The scene of the banquet is still a mystery. That appeared as a snag in the sailing of the banquet committee composed of Mr. Higgins, Ed Lyons and James Appleby, several days ago when the men decided to have the dinner at the hotel which was to house the players.

Then it developed that both the Multnomah and Oregon, through some mistake, had been assured of their stay.

The committee stuck to its decision to have the banquet at the hotel where they are to stay.

The decorations were lightly touched in the discussion. However, everything will be particularly "baseball-istic."

The walls will be decorated with Portland's baseball pennants, provided Judge McCredie will bring them, and hats, masks and chest protectors will be the center pieces of various schemes.

George L. Baker, toastmaster, will have a rubber home plate to start his sallies from.

Wilkins is Denied Delay. Alleged Slayer Must Go to Trial Thursday Without Affidavit.

The motion of attorneys for Lloyd H. Wilkins, charged with the murder of Lou L. Winters, that the trial be postponed 30 days so that depositions of Wilkins' mother, sister and two doctors at Moro, Wis., might be taken, was denied by Judge Morrow last night, and the case will go to trial Thursday.

CLUBS' POLICIES CONFUSED

Two Irvington Organizations Are Not Allied.

Confusion of the name of the Irvington Club with that of the Greater Irvington Club has caused some confusion in the minds of the members of the club, and it is feared that the policy of the club will be misunderstood.

Two Irvington Organizations Are Not Allied. The Greater Irvington Improvement Club will hold a meeting in the Irvington Club building tonight at which one of the principal subjects of discussion will be the movement to put a street through Holladay Park.

The Irvington Club itself is not in sympathy with this movement. "People confuse the two organizations continually," said one of the Irvington Club directors yesterday.

The Greater Irvington Improvement Club is composed chiefly of persons residing in Holladay Addition, and it pays a monthly rental to the Irvington Club for the privilege of meeting in our clubhouse.

W. P. Woodward is president of the Irvington Club and H. C. Thompson president of the Greater Irvington Improvement Club. Some of the movements advocated by the Irvington Club are veritable, but the plan to put a street through Holladay Park meets with the entire disapproval of the Irvington Club, and we are making efforts to prevent the policy being confused with the policies of our own club.

LION KEEPER IS SUSPENDED. Three Days' Illness Enforced for Allowing Nero to Escape.

As punishment for allowing Nero, the African lion at Washington Park, to escape from his cage Sunday, Charles Herman, animal tender, was suspended from the service yesterday for three days.

The suspension was ordered by Park Superintendent Mische, after an investigation which showed that the escape was due to Mr. Herman leaving the cage open.

Mr. Mische says the lion happened to get into a place where he could be captured, otherwise he might have made trouble. He has a bad record, having killed two persons before he was secured by Portland. Apparently he has not lost any of his viciousness.

FINE RESIDENCE IS BOUGHT. M. A. Poppleton, Owner of Handsome New House in Irvington.

M. A. Poppleton, of 545 East Morrison, secretary of the Portland Seed Company, purchased yesterday from A. R. Rice and J. E. Meehan, for $28,000, the new residence at the corner of Irvington and Holladay streets.

The building was completed only a short time ago and is one of the finest residences in that section. It is of brick, in the Southern colonial style of architecture.

TILLMAN REUTER PRAISED. Dry Farming Congress Official Sends Congratulations to Oregon.

Among the many congratulations that have been received at the Portland Commercial Club since its success in winning the sweepstakes prize at the International Dry Farming Congress in Tulsa, Okla., recently, has come a letter from John T. Reuter, executive secretary of the congress, in which he expressed to Secretary Chapman, of the Oregon Development League, his personal admiration of the exhibit, and commends the work of Tillman Reuter, of Madras, in assembling the winning exhibit.

Mr. Reuter's letter follows: "The unusual honor conferred upon the State of Oregon through the exhibit of Oregon products made at our exhibition in this city, has no doubt, been a source of great pride to your organization, but I cannot refrain from expressing my personal appreciation of OMAR has revolutionized the cigarette sales of the country in less than 400 days! OMAR is the greatest success in cigarette history.

Two years ago, in the dissolution of the old American Tobacco Company by the U. S. Supreme Court, we lost our established brands of Turkish Blend Cigarettes.

The success of these brands had clearly shown us that the taste of smokers throughout the nation was turning to Turkish Blend.

We immediately set about to produce a NEW and BETTER Turkish Blend Cigarette. Experience had taught us how the Turkish Blend could be IMPROVED. All the knowledge we had gained in 25 YEARS in the making of BILLIONS of cigarettes, was CONCENTRATED on this NEW Turkish Blend.

Our leaf-buyers in Turkey and America were consulted. These men—the greatest leaf-experts in the world—were instructed to select the tobaccos that in their judgment were BEST SUITED to such a blend.

Our blend-experts then took these carefully selected tobaccos and FOR MONTHS experimented with a THOUSAND VARIATIONS of blend.

When OMAR was finally perfected, we KNEW that we had absolutely the FINEST Turkish Blend cigarette that could be produced.

We were confident that American smokers would CONFIRM our estimation of OMAR—and they HAVE. OMAR is UNQUESTIONABLY the greatest success, in the SHORTEST PERIOD OF TIME, in the history of cigarette making.

COAST MAGNATES MEET

PACIFIC DELEGATION FINDS EIGHT INCHES SNOW AT COLUMBUS.

First Deal, by Which Leard Goes to "Nap" Hogan, Is Announced—Other Trades Soon May Be Made Known.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—Headed by President Al Baum, the majority of the Pacific Coast baseball men, including Del Howard, manager of the San Francisco club, who will attend the convention of the National Association of Professional Clubs here, arrived today and will have headquarters at the Nell House.

It was announced tonight that a deal has been completed whereby Bill Leard, second baseman of the Oakland club, has been sold to Manager Hogan, of the Venice club.

The purchase price, it was said, was about $2000. Significance, it was said, attaches to the arrival from Philadelphia today of Patsy O'Rourke, of the Venice club. Gossip has it that Patsy may land a managerial position in the Western league.

None of the Pacific Coast delegation is strongly in favor of the proposed three-cornered series between the pennant winners in the Association, International and Coast Leagues. They believe the expense would be too great and the difference in the time of clearing too much to make the series a success.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—The six Portland high school boys, members of the Lincoln football team who did not get away with the rest of the team Saturday, left for home at 9:30 tonight on the Spokane, Portland & Seattle train.

They had little to say during the day except that they had been telegraphing to members of the school faculty and expected to have funds for their transportation wired to them. It was late in the day before they got the matter arranged. They admit having been out late, but do not consider their conduct cause for disciplining for breaking of training rules.
