

TOURNAKING ENDS FOOTBALL SEASON

Intersarsity Games Scheduled on Gridirons of Large Colleges of East.

QUAKERS TO PLAY CORNELL

Carlisle Indians Will Oppose Brown and Penn State Clashes With Pittsburg—Army-Navy Teams Drill for Big Contest.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The old custom of playing the final game of the football season on Thanksgiving day is still adhered to by a few of the Eastern colleges, and as a result several intersarsity contests are scheduled for tomorrow. The feature game is the meeting of Pennsylvania and Cornell at Franklin field, Philadelphia. Cornell and Pennsylvania have been defeated or held to tie games several times this year, yet the success of their season will hinge, to a certain degree, on the outcome of the final contest of the schedule. To date, the annual series have been overwhelmingly in favor of Pennsylvania, for in the 20 games played since 1893 Cornell has won only one game and tied one. In 1901 the red and white ran up a 23 to 6 score and in 1906 the teams played a scoreless tie.

As a result of past and present season showings the Quakers are favored to continue the annual triumph over Cornell, although it is conceded that the game will be close and hard fought.

Next in importance is the contest between the Carlisle Indians and Brown at Providence. Brown, with a team considerably below the standard set by preceding seasons at Providence University, is not likely to do more than hold the red men in reasonable check. Other games scheduled in the East and South include Penn State-Pittsburg, at Pittsburg; Franklin and Marshall-Gottysburg, at Lancaster, Pa.; Lafayette-Dickinson, at Easton, Pa.; Holy Cross-Georgetown, at Washington, D. C., and Virginia-North Carolina, at Richmond, Va.

ARMY LINEUP STILL IN DOUBT

Only One of West Point Regulars Out of Final Practice.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Except for the final signal drill which will come tomorrow, the Army is ready for its big battle on the gridiron with the Navy on Saturday afternoon. The team through a snappy signal practice today in secret. All the regulars were in the lineup except Jones, right guard. Both Hickey and O'Hara were used in Jones' position. Goodman was tried for a while at center, but his poor passing made it a hurry call for McFadden. Benedict Hoge, Hodgson, Hobbs and Joutet were used behind the line.

Just who Coach Daly will start against the middies behind the Army line is unknown. Present indications point to Hoge, Benedict and Hodgson as the best combination, with Hobbs, Joutet, Milburn, Lanphier and Ford in reserve. Leo Leary, a Harvard coach, arrived today and worked with the Army ends.

The Army squad will leave here for New York at 8:30 Friday morning. They will practice on the polo grounds in the afternoon. A large number of Army coaches arrived today to assist Daly in rounding out the team.

The average weight of the team is 178-1-11 pounds. This is a lighter team than the Navy's, but Army supporters are counting on strategy and the castles in the air to offset the forward pass to baffle the middies.

THREE BIG GAMES SCHEDULED

Syracuse Has Chance to Redeem Laurels at St. Louis.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—There are three Thanksgiving day football games of interest in this central city. At St. Louis Notre Dame's fast and powerful eleven will play the University of Texas team.

Syracuse, despite its beating by Michigan, has a chance to redeem itself and Eastern football in the game at St. Louis.

Case and Western Reserve meet in annual battle at Cleveland.

The schedule includes Notre Dame vs. Texas, at Austin; Case vs. Western Reserve, at Cleveland; Syracuse vs. St. Louis, at St. Louis; Cincinnati vs. Cincinnati, at Cincinnati; South Dakota vs. Creighton, at Omaha.

PLAY DATE MAY BE CHANGED

Yale Would Hold Annual Harvard Contest Thanksgiving.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 26.—A proposal to have the annual Harvard-Yale football game played on Thanksgiving day, instead of on the Saturday preceding the holiday, has been communicated unofficially to the Harvard football management. The proposition comes from Yale officials and is said to have found favor at New Haven.

The football game at Yale on Saturdays and Yale has only a week between the Princeton and Harvard games, while the Crimson has comparatively easy game between its two big contests.

A conference of Harvard, Yale and Princeton managers may be held to consider this problem.

OVERCONFIDENCE NAVY'S FEAR

Academy Team Expects Victory Over Army Next Saturday.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 26.—While the Academy band furnished accompaniment to the song that will boom across the field toward the Army hosts on Saturday, the Navy football team and scrubs went to the Harvard football game on the home ground today. The work was light and there was no scrimmaging. Formations which will be used for the first time against West Point were gone through repeatedly.

Confidence in the ability of the team to win from the Army is manifested among the midshipmen and it is being made by those in authority to check overconfidence.

DIXIE GRIDIRONS WILL RING

Important Games Are Scheduled at Southern Colleges.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 26.—With the Notre Dame-Texas contest as the chief of those which tomorrow will close the football season in the South, other games of more than local interest are scheduled.

At Oklahoma City the eleven of the University of Colorado and the University of Oklahoma will meet. In addition to the Virginia-North Carolina contest at Richmond, other important games in the South tomorrow will include: Sewanee vs. Vanderbilt at Nashville; Tennessee vs. Kentucky State, at Lexington; Texas Aggies vs. Louisiana, at Houston; Tulane vs. Arkansas, at New Orleans.

Christians to Play Indians.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 26.—The Christian Brothers' football team, of St. Louis, had a light workout today in preparation for its game here tomorrow with the eleven from the Haskell Indian School. The St. Louis team is in good condition, with the exception of Quarterback Gallagher, who probably will not play tomorrow. Murray will take his place. The Haskell team had a brief practice at Lawrence today and will come to Kansas City tomorrow morning.

SPORT CONVENTION PLANNED

Anglers' Club Fathering Meeting for January 16 and 17.

A convention of the sportsmen of Oregon will be held in Portland on January 16 and 17. Such a convention has been planned by the Multnomah Anglers' Club for some time and at the regular monthly meeting of the club further plans to interest men from all parts of the state will be broached.

Future of Northwestern League in Portland to Be Decided—Overall Case Not Scheduled to Be Considered Officially.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—The annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Baseball League will be held here December 3 in the St. Francis Hotel. The delegates will assemble the day before to discuss affairs of the California League. The call for the meetings was mailed to the various directors and club owners by President Baum today.

Bud Tells Leach Cross He's No Real Fighter

Not Recognizing Caller at Bedside as Man Who Beat Him Five Hours Before, Vancouver Boy Pays Respects to Winner.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—When Bud Anderson was in the hospital at Los Angeles, after being operated upon for appendicitis, a few days after his battle with Leach Cross, in which Anderson was knocked out, he found himself being visited by one of whom sat down in a chair by the bedside. The caller began asking Bud about the fight and what his opinion was.

FIELDER AGAIN DENIES

JONES SAYS HE WILL NOT BOSS CINCINNATI NATIONALS.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 26.—Any slight doubt felt by Harvard men as to whether James Wray, the Crimson's English rowing coach, is to be retained when his contract expires next summer was dismissed today by a statement from Captain Reynolds, of the Harvard crew.

DEPENDER'S FRAME IS LIGHT

Easily Driven and Steady Hull Is Object of Vanderbilt Syndicate.

BRISTOL, R. I., Nov. 26.—A glimpse of the frame materials assembled today for the Vanderbilt Syndicate's America cup candidate showed them to be much lighter than those used in any defender that has yet been turned out at the Bristol yards. It was stated that by placing the supports closer together lighter steel could be used.

"GO TO ROCK BULK"

Oregon Is Conceded Chance in Game With Multnomah.

PUNTS WILL BE FEATURE

Fenton Is Expected to Star Behind Line for Collegians—Old Grads on Hand for 20th Annual Thanksgiving Battle.

University of Washington at Seattle and Idaho tangles with the Oregon Aggies at Corvallis. The University should win by two touchdowns and the same is true of the Oregon Aggies. At Walla Walla Whitman meets Montana, but this is not a conference game.

Although Multnomah has a post-season game with Idaho for New Year's afternoon, today drops the curtain on the official season of pigskinning in the Northwest states.

Thus it is that even the most staid and sober business men of the city, many of whom haven't seen a game this fall are talking a weird jargon of equal parts of football and Turkey dinner vernacular, and will be on the sidelines today with business cars carefully tucked away in the commercial canyons of the business district.

Business Men Advertise Game. As if to emphasize their pride in the closing gridiron classic, a number of the larger firms have decked their windows with displays of the lemon-yellow of the State University and the crimson-white of the Winged M institution. ## IDAHO TEAM IS CONFIDENT

Aggies Will Appear Today Against 172-Pound Aggregation.

With grim determination stamped all over their faces, the University of Idaho football warriors stopped off yesterday in Portland for a few hours en route to Corvallis, where they will clash with the Oregon Aggies this afternoon.

Coach Griffith, one of the foxiest in the business, realizes that he is up against a great team and, while not oversanguine of success, hopes to defeat the Aggies if he gets the breaks in luck.

Idaho's team will average around 172 pounds and the Aggies around 176 pounds, which is not enough difference to materially affect the score.

Coach Griffith thinks he has two men who are entitled to consideration by the all-star bugs this fall—Willie Johnson, Lawrence, Wis., and Lockhart, halfback.

Officials for today's battle will be: Stanley Borleske, of Spokane; referee; Dr. De. Johnson, of Lawrence, Wis., and Fenstermacher, Portland, head linesman.

The two teams will line up about as follows:

Oregon Aggies Position.		Idaho.
Huntley	180	R. R.	154
Lee	180	Lawrence	172
Levine	180	O'Rourke	170
Moore	180	Lockhart	170
Morgan	180	Johnson	170
Wright	180	Johnson	170
Yardley	180	Johnson	170

Cabe, Henderson, Everett, Nelson, Anderson, Stemler, Humphries and Mumford.

The game will be played on the campus field at 2:30. Manager Dwyer expects his team to retrieve the honors which the Eugene part of the University of Oregon lost to Willamette in the recent battle.
