RIGHT TO DEMAND SUFFRAGE IS CITED

Time for Saying "Please Give Us Vote" Over, Says Dr. Anna Howard Shaw.

SOUTHERN WOMAN SPEAKS

That Ballot Is Not Wanted by Dixic Fair Sex Denied in Fervent Address of Alabama Leader. Convention Is Opened.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. - Enthusiasm over reports on what already has been accomplished by the woman suffrage movement, and even greater enthusiasm over prophecies of what the future will bring forth, marked the formal opening sessions here today of the forty-fifth annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association.

In calling to order the delegates from all over the country. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the organization, said:
"The time is past when we say please let women vote.' This has been changed to 'we demand an amendment to the Rederal Constitution enfranchisling women."

Right to Demand Cited.

The victories already gained, she as-serted, meant that women now had a right to make such demands.

The Illinois suffrage victory this year was celebrated tonight, six speakers from that state telling how the result had been accomplished. All the speeches were greeted with long appliance.

The annual address by President Shaw and one by Miss Lucy Burns, of this city, on "National Amendment" were also on the night programme. Three street meetings in various parts

Three street meetings in various parts of the city were held, as will be done every day during the convention.

"Every delegate here will have an equal right to vote and to speak," Dr. Shaw announced in opening the convention. "We will have democratic freedom here. The convention is yours, women. Let us proceed to business," and the work of the week was started.

First Day's Work Smooth. The first day's session ran as smoothly as an observatory clock. Without a hitch or a cetay or a single change in the programme, speeches of welcome and responses, reports of various committees, addresses and other business held the convention's

The purple and yellow flags of the various state suffrage societies decothe center hung a great banner de-manding in letters of gold the "amend-ment to the Federal Constitution en-ment to the Federal Constitution en-franchising women."

No greater reception was given to any speaker than to Mrs. Patty A. Jacobs, of Birmingham, Ala., when she said that it was an "indictment of the Southern woman's intellect." to say that she did not want the ballot. She was responding to the welcome to the convention by Mrs. Nina Allendare and Miss Alice Paul, of this city.

Southern States Stirring. "The women of Virginia, Louisiana, Tennessee, Kentucky, Florida, North Carolina, Alabama," continued Mrs. Jacobs, "in fact in all the Southern States, are stirring, are realising the vote is the only honorable, dignified and sure means of securing recognition of their aspirations and of their needs.

"I would not have you infer, however, that this great National association is composed only of Southerners; it knows no section, for it embraces not only the great white West and the whitening East, but the gray states of the North. In its ranks are women following the vision of their souls, from sweatshops and drawing-room, from factory and office, from school and home; women who, with long movement pass them by — for they would see their daughters have the fighting chance denied them; women of leisure, whose souls burn to equal. of leisure, whose souls burn to equalize some of the hideous unfairness of life; a vast army of women, awake to the spirit of the age in which we live, an age vibrant with social consciousness."

The convention admitted delegates from North Carolina and South Carolina, although the organizations from those states had not yet formally been accepted into the National association. Dr. Shaw said the convention would reserve the theory of present marriage laws of the country and make it easy to come into the convention, but hard to get out.

Government Ownership Wanted. Government ownership of railroads was suggested as a result of woman suffrage when Miss Marie V. Smith, of New York, reported that difficulty had been found in getting reduced rullroad fares for delegates. Dr. Shaw exclaimed, "when we vote, we'll own the railroads."

Glorification of municipal life, reform of the schools, jalls, poorhouses and saloons and a feminine influence in settling National and international problems—all this was prophesied for

MEAT ORDINANCE DRAFTED

Present Law Controlling City's Supply Considered Antiquated.

With the appointment of L G, Stick-ney, a veterinary surgeon of Portland, as meat inspector, arrangements are early today by sawing the cell bars being made for the commencement at once of a campaign against unfit meat, a great deal of which is said to be tentiary in Jefferson City in a similar coming into the city. City Health Officer Marcellus is at work on a meat ordinance which will establish a new standard for the supply and will pro-vite restrictions which can be en-forced by Meat Inspector Stickney and his assistant, who has not been appointed as yet.

"I am desirous of getting an ordinance which will be fair to all and yet will make it possible for us to keep absolute tab on the city's meat supply and prevent the importation of unclean or unfit meat," said Dr. Marcelus yesterday. "There is an ordinance on the books at present, but it has never been enforced. It is considered to be out of date."

SENATOR MYERS CHAMPIONS PLAN TO GIVE SAN FRANCISCO WATER.

Borah, Works and Smoot Oppose Act on Ground Reservoir Would Mar Part of Yosemite National Park.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 .- San Franisco's need for authority to use part of the Hetch-Hetchy Valley in Yosemite National Park for a city water supply reservoir was urged on the Senate today at the fight for the passage of the Raker bill, passed by the House last Summer, beginning with the new session of Congress. The Senate is to vote on the bill on Saturday.

Senator Myers, chairman of the public lands committee, said there was a "pressing emergency" in California, and that "comfort and safety of human life" depended on the action of Congress in giving the city the opportunity if seeks to be the public of Scots who were attempting to prevent the said of Scots who were attempting to prevent the said of Scots who were attempting the prevent and the public of Scots who were attempting to prevent the said of the volumes. John Gribbel Recovers Glenriddle Copies for Which Scotchmen and Britons Have Sought Since

Their Sale in Liverpool.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1 .- Mystery surrounding the whereabouts of the Glenriddell manuscripts of the poet Burns, which were sold by the Athe-naeum Library of Liverpool last Summer and for which a committee of Scots in England and Scotland have been searching, was cleared up here tonight, when John Gribbel, vice-president of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, an-nounced that the two volumes were in

Mr. Gribbel made the announcement at a dinner of the St. Andrews' Society He said he had purchased the manu-scripts from a dealer and he would restors them to Scotland, forever pro-tected by a deed of trust, as a gift to the people who gave Robert Burns to the world.

As he finished speaking the two quarto volumes, bound in old polished calf, were taken from a steel fire-proof box and laid before the guests.

History of Volumes Told. Mr. Gribbel recounted how Burns, between 1783 and 1791, prepared a octween 1735 and 1731, prepared a manuscript volume containing his selected poems finished as he wanted them known to posterity and also a volume containing his manuscript letters. He also told of Burns presenting them to his friend Riddell, of Glenriddell. Riddell died in 1794 and his widow returned the voumes to Russes.

In 1853 the volumes came into the cossession of the Liverpool Athenneum Library, where they remained for 60 years. Continuing Mr. Gribbel said: "During the Summer just passed the English reading world was shocked to read in the public press that the au-thorities of Liverpool Athenaeum had manuscripts. Having an aversion to the possession of property of a cer-tain class I refused to consider them as any possible possession of my own, priceless though they are; but here they are sold as merchandise in the market place and in my possession, but with a purpose which I am sure you will approve.
