to provide a foundation fund for its new home. Seventy-five members of the senior and junior lodges are rehearsing daily for the performances under the direction of A. L. Marsh, a ministrel man of wide experience. Among the local celebrities who are expected to take part of Judge Morrow, Andy Weinberger, Judge Jones, Seneca Fouta, Jay H. Upton, Judge Gatens, Oscar W. Horne, Fred Coilier, Roy Imman, Rufus C. Holman and many others. C. Hoiman and many others.

While Portland lodge is only 3 years old, it has grown so rapidly that its present quarters in the Royal building are inadequate for its 2000 members

A recent brief campaign added 460 new names to the roster.

The Moose will build upon a plot of ground 60 by 100 feet, and perhaps 100 by 100 feet. Present sentiment in the lodge favors a 50-year rease, with right to purchase at any time within 10 or 20 years. Probably $100,000 will be invested in a site.

The members of the committee of arrangements for the minstrel show are Henry E. Reed, chairman; George L. Raker, Seneca Fouts, Jay H. Upton, A. G. Davidson, secretary. OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED
