

NIGHT AWAKENING SEEN BY WILFIELD

Secretary Says Wrecked and Wasted Lives Will Be Reduced to Minimum.

PEOPLE GROW IN VALUE

Response of Young People to Opportunities for Vocational Training Declared to Open Vast Train of Thinking.

DAYTON, O., Feb. 24.—An industrial awakening that will revolutionize the Nation's business, minimize the possibility of wrecked and wasted lives and elevate working men and women to positions that will keep them in safety and decency was predicted tonight by William C. Redfield, Secretary of Commerce, speaking on the human side of factory, commercial and industrial life before the Greater Dayton Association.

"I speak of this not in criticism; not as finding fault that more is not done, but rather as opening the door to a mighty hope," Mr. Redfield said.

"Good as our schools are, they leave much undone. We are not teaching our boys and girls how to work. We turn them out—speaking of the country as a whole—at 14 years of age, the larger part of them with a certain amount of academic knowledge, but without any training whatever for the real work of life. The boy suffers in his pay and in his product a good many years before he can pick up by questioning here and there or learn from mistakes how to support himself at a definite trade.

Girls Chief Sufferers. The girls suffer more, with a terrible cost to the Nation in wrecked womanhood.

"It is one of the real tragedies that has its pitiful reactions in every industrial home. The mechanic who has his son learn a trade well and not to struggle as his father did. A mother would have her daughter taught something which will keep her alive in decency and in safety and without the risks young working women so often must run.

"The thought of the Nation has been too supine on this matter, but it is now beginning to awaken and the quick response of the young people to vocational education in the states where it is furnished point to an educational movement which almost staggers the mind when one grasps what it may mean in destroying human misery and in relieving human want.

"Within every American mill and workshop today there is going on a process of evolution which is producing amazing results in a higher and yet higher effectiveness.

"I am thankful to say that there has come another and a greater factor, far more than any mere mechanical thing. This is the growing appreciation of the value of men and women in industry. This is the wisdom that teaches us that the human side of our factories is more valuable than the mechanical or the material side. It teaches us clearly that in the responsiveness of human beings to leadership lies an opportunity for production at a low cost with comfort to the worker and increased income also which will lead us to industrial victories greater than we have ever achieved.

"The improvement of our methods and the higher valuation put on the great human factor in our work have already begun to show in the increase in our competing power abroad as well as in great advances at home."

VILLA TO PRODUCE BODY

(Continued From First Page.) Visit of British Consul Percival to El Paso to supplement the American inquiry, though not to interfere with it. The Secretary then conferred again tonight with the President at the White House.

News of the hanging of Clement O. Vergara, an American citizen, by Mexican federalists near Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, directed attention to the Huerta government in the United States in behalf of Vergara had been made by the State Department some time ago, but no information about his whereabouts or the reported execution had been received tonight.

Far-Reaching Inquiry Ordered.

Details of the character of the American investigation were not officially known here until the publication of dispatches from London today, giving the text of Secretary Bryan's message to the British ambassador. The fact that the United States had instructed its nationals to have the body exhumed and examined, and to employ legal assistance and examine witnesses indicated the far-reaching nature of the inquiry.

In addition to this Secretary Bryan announced that a communication had been telegraphed for presentation to General Carranza by an American Consul, asking the constitutionalist commander-in-chief for more information about the Benton incident. The Secretary denied that this took the form of any general representations about foreigners, and was confined to the Benton incident.

In some quarters the sending of a communication to Carranza about Villa's act was regarded as involving a technical recognition of Carranza's jurisdiction over Villa, but Secretary Bryan said positively tonight that he regarded today's message as similar to others which previously have been presented by American Consuls to Carranza and de facto authorities in Mexico. Dealings with the de facto officers in the north Mr. Bryan regards as no different from the informal relations at Mexico City with the unrecognized Huerta government.

Villa Promises Statement. Secretary Bryan did not know tonight when the body of Benton would be given up by Villa. All the information he had was in a telegram from the consular agent, George C. Carruthers, at Juarez, who said General Villa had telegraphed him his willingness to give up the body, but not at this time. Villa said he would make an additional statement about the execution of Benton.

Accidental Death of British Ambassador. On complaint of several merchants of this place, who charge they were defrauded through an advertising scheme, Francis Hoyt was arrested at Drain today and will be returned to this place by George Phillips, Deputy Sheriff.

Hoyt, it is alleged, obtained amounts of money ranging from $3 to $4 from a number of local business men.

British Consul to Be Protected.

The Ambassador had been instructed to obtain from Secretary Bryan what amounts to safe conduct for British Consul Percival, who will investigate first hand the circumstances of the killing. Mr. Percival, whose post is Galveston, Tex., is charged with looking after British subjects in all parts of Texas and New Mexico and is fully authorized to act at El Paso. If it should become necessary for him to go into Mexico he will have all the protection the State Department here can secure for him, according to Mr. Bryan's promise to the Ambassador.

Consul Letcher reported today his inability to find Gustave Bauch in Chihuahua, although General Villa had been quoted as saying that Bauch was transferred from Juarez to the Chihuahua jail.

As Consul Letcher's report did not say whether he had sought Bauch in jail, a supplemental instruction was directed to him today to send a list of all Americans under arrest in Chihuahua. No news has been received concerning the whereabouts of Harry Compton and the ranchman, Curtis.

Congress Wants Information. Secretary Bryan intimated today that he has been considering the possibility of establishing a marine guard for the American legation at Mexico City, following the example of some of the European governments and Japan, but said that he had not reached a decision on that point.

In Senate circles the Benton incident was again a subject of discussion. That Congress wants information as to the inside facts indicated the dealings of the American government and Japan, but it was asserted tonight by several Senators that the Senate would adopt a resolution calling upon the Secretary of State for such information, if it is withheld much longer. Such a resolution was introduced last year by the executive department on the ground that it was "incompatible with public interest."

The Senate foreign relations committee will meet tomorrow to consider the Mexican problem, among other things, and Secretary of State Bryan will appear.

RICH CLUBMAN ACCUSED

WOMAN CAUSES ARREST AFTER TRAVELING IN COMPANY.

Violation of Mann White Slave Act Charged in Case Involving Also Miss Genevieve Hannan.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—A warrant for the arrest of J. Parker Whitney, millionaire clubman and bon vivant, was issued tonight by John W. Preston, United States District Attorney, charging violation of the Mann "white slave" act. George Burnham, chief deputy United States Marshal, received the warrant late today and left for Rocklin, near Auburn, where Whitney is residing on the $3,000,000 estate left him by his father. The warrant was issued after a Federal grand jury investigation.

The woman in the case is Miss Genevieve Hannan, who gives her address as the Plaza Hotel, New York.

According to the woman's story she met Whitney at the Plaza Hotel in the early part of 1913 and on his return she said that Whitney's affection for her had died and that he ignored her and refused to fulfill any of the promises that he had made.

DIRT ROAD CHAMPIONED

AUTO HIGHWAY PLANS AROUSE OPPOSITION IN HOUSE.

Missouri Member Declares Motorists Are Fighting $25,000,000 Good Roads Measure.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Transcontinental highways proposed by the American Automobile Association were characterized today as "lanes over which the members of this high-browed, joy-riding association may strut" by Representative Shackelford of Missouri, attacking what he called the "editorial canning factory" maintained by the organization to promote its measures.

With funds the association collected from its 451 subordinate automobile clubs and the like, Mr. Shackelford declared, a "nefarious" lobby was maintained in Washington and the "essential long green" was provided to fight the re-election of opponents of motor road bills. He read a letter from the president of the association to a member in Kansas City urging that support be withdrawn from the Shackelford bill, and the good roads bill now before the Senate, having passed the House.

The measure provides for dirt roads in rural free delivery districts.

EYE OF DEAD PUT ON FILM

Oculist Thinks Retina Will Retain Picture of Murderer.

AURORA, Ill., Feb. 24.—Authorities here photographed the eye of Theresa Hollander killed here week ago, State Attorney Tyler admitted today, saying it was the hope that the retina of the murdered woman retains the image of the murderer.

The picture was taken at the suggestion of an oculist, who said the retina of the slain girl's eye would show the last object before her conscious vision. The result was not made public.

ALLEGED SWINDLER HELD

Oakland, Or., Merchants Charge Advertising Scheme Fraud.

OAKLAND, Or., Feb. 24.—(Special.)—On complaint of several merchants of this place, who charge they were defrauded through an advertising scheme, Francis Hoyt was arrested at Drain today and will be returned to this place by George Phillips, Deputy Sheriff.

SHARP "UPPERMOST" FOR POST.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Representative Sharp, of Elvira, O., it became known tonight, is uppermost in the mind of President Wilson at present for appointment as Ambassador to Russia. Senator Pomeroy has been urging the appointment, as have other members of Congress.

BANKS IN RESERVE REPRESENT 10 PER CENT

Number of National Institutions Applying Now 99.75 Per Cent of Total.

FIGURES ARE ANALYZED

New System to Be Launched With Capital of At Least $100,000,000. Sixty State Banks and Trust Companies on List.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Official count today by Treasury officials showed 7455 National banks have applied for membership in the Federal reserve system; that 18 banks have notified the organization that they will not apply and ten have not been heard from.

The capital of the banks applying amounts to $1,954,522,554, which is 99.75 per cent of the capital of all National banks in the country. The capital of banks not accepting is placed at $1,990,000, and that of the ten not heard from at $570,000.

Non-Acceptance Is Explained. In an official announcement giving these figures, the reserve bank organization committee tonight said, although explanations had not been sent with the notifications of non-acceptance by the 18, in several instances the records show that the banks had arranged some time ago to go into liquidation and one bank had been absorbed by another. The 10 not heard from, two had filed papers asking permission to liquidate and three had been too recently organized to pass the necessary resolutions of acceptance, so only five are really considered as being in the class of those yet to respond.

The figures for the state banks and trust companies have not been tabulated, but 69 such institutions have asked for approval of their applications, and it was estimated tonight that their capitalization will be sufficient to put the total of all banks applying to date beyond the $1,100,000,000 mark.

Committee Members Pleaded. It is known that Secretaries McAdoo and Houston and Controller of the Currency Wilson, who make up the organization committee, are planning in a manner in which the banks have responded. Figures for the surplus funds of banks which are coming into the system were not completed today, but it is certain that the new system will be launched with authorized capital of at least $100,000,000.

The organization committee is working away now on the definition of the limits of the reserve districts and its location of the reserve cities and its conclusions are expected in a few days.

When their report is ready the banks will be required to subscribe 6 per cent of their capital stock and surplus to the stock of the reserve bank in their districts, one-half to be taken within 10 months. The other half will be required to be paid in 10 months.

State Bank Rules Issued. The organization committee tonight issued regulations for the guidance of state banks which wish to apply for membership in the system and for institutions enter in the usual way by becoming National banks, or they can apply as state institutions under certain conditions. The regulations contemplate the surrender by the railroad company or any of its stockholders of the right to bring action for damages on account of past misappropriations of funds.

"I object to such loose statements as that 'somebody has stolen $200,000,000 from the stockholders of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad precipitated a warm discussion in the Senate today, several of the New England Senators insisting that Senator Norris was guilty of loose and unwarranted language."

Senator Norris retracted nothing, however, insisting that his statements were warranted and that the adoption of his resolution under debate would have a salutary effect.

The resolution contemplated specifically between the Attorney General and the railroad provides for immunity from prosecution to any one connected with the railroad and similar immunity to the stockholders of the railroad company or any of its stockholders of the right to bring action for damages on account of past misappropriations of funds.

Germany and France Agree on Exchange of Information.

BERLIN, Feb. 24.—Germany and France, from March 1, will communicate to each other the names, residences and other details in regard to all automobilists who have been convicted for violations of the traffic regulations in the respective countries.

An agreement to this effect was announced today. The arrangement was reached on Germany's initiative.

Celluloid Eyeshade Fatal.

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—A spark from an electric arc today ignited a celluloid eyeshade worn by E. W. Miller, employed at the Blue Island Power Plant.

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If tongue is coated or if cross, feverish, constipated give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour wastes.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul wastes, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again.

Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—Charges by Senator Norris, of Nebraska, that someone had stolen $200,000,000 from the stockholders of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad precipitated a warm discussion in the Senate today, several of the New England Senators insisting that Senator Norris was guilty of loose and unwarranted language.

SHAM DEATH SAVES LIFE

Wife by Pretending She Is Dead Escapes Murderous Spouse.

GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 24.—Presence of mind saved Mrs. James McConnell's life when she was being pursued today by her husband, who was attempting to shoot her. McConnell fired twice at the fleeing woman, the first shot striking the rim of her glasses and causing a slight wound in the forehead, while the second was imbedded in her hair.

When the second shot was fired Mrs. McConnell dropped apparently lifeless into the bathtub, and her husband believing he had killed her left the room. McConnell turned the weapon on himself and fired two bullets into his head. He is expected to die.

Gift of $175,000 for Missions.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—(Special.)—The largest gift which has ever come to the board of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church has just been announced by Secretary F. M. Norris. The gift, in cash and securities, amounts to $175,000, to be permanently invested in the mission work of the board. The donor desires to remain unknown.

SAMPLE BOTTLE OFTEN PROVES BENEFICIAL

Some time ago I was afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble and was unable to obtain any relief from other medicines, so sent for a sample bottle of your Swamp-Root. I received so much benefit from this small bottle that I purchased a large bottle of the drug. It continued the use of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root until I regarded myself as cured and am now in very good health. I recommended it to a neighbor who has used it with the same results.

I regard your remedy, Swamp-Root as a preparation that will do all you claim for it.

DIGGS' COMPANION HELD

Paul Spott Must Stand Trial on Charges Made by Girl.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—With Maury I. Diggs and Walter Gilligan, Paul Spott, of Oakland, must stand trial in the Superior Court on the charges of criminal assault preferred against all three by Ida Pearrin, a girl who swears she is only 17 years old. Judge Crist held Spott today in Police Court to answer and set the bonds at $10,000, the sum in which Spott is now at liberty.

Diggs and Gilligan, also held to answer by Judge Crist, have been unable to find bondsmen and are confined in County Jail, awaiting trial.

Spott's attorneys made no defense today. When Judge Crist denied their motion to dismiss the charges, they said they preferred to take their case to the higher court.

AGE STAYS JAIL SENTENCE

Cincinnati Society Man Pays Fine on Complaint of Young Girl.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 24.—Colonel Brent Arnold, general freight agent and superintendent of terminals of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, a clubman and social leader of this city, was arrested today charged with contributing to the delinquency of a 15-year-old Mildred Crane. He pleaded guilty and was fined $750 in the municipal court.

In passing sentence, the court said that it would not impose a jail sentence, owing to the advanced age of the defendant, who is 48 years old.

Warrants were also issued for Hugo Goldsmith, a manufacturer; Isaac Newton Fox, a jeweler, and C. B. House, a wealthy farmer, charging them with contributing to the delinquency of Miss Crane.

Substitution and Cut Prices

usually go hand in hand They comprise the greatest evils that are practiced on an unsuspecting public. Do you know why dealers attempt to sell you their own article or something "just as good" in place of what you call for? It's a matter of profit—they make more money on that article regardless of your health. It is not fair to your judgment nor to us as manufacturers, who have told you through truthful advertising the immense amount of good

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has done for others and will do for you.

How It Is Done! A retailer advertises Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey (which is made to sell at $1 a bottle and well worth every penny of it) at a cut price, sometimes below cost, to attract trade to his store, and when you ask for Duffy's, finds out what you want for, then tries to sell you something unknown something "just as good." He does not spend his time trying to substitute for nothing? Not true! If he sells the substitute he is the one who profits, not you. He makes money on this article and is willing to chance a loss on the genuine, hoping to sell you—his clerks are probably getting a bonus for pushing the substitute as well.

The retailer (and there are many of them) who gives you what you ask for without quibble, is the one who has your interest, as well as his own in mind—he should get your business. You feel comfortable while trading with him.

We do not approve of price cutting—for cut prices, along with substitution, means destruction—not competition. But—if prices are cut to attract your attention—insist on what you ask for. Get Duffy's and benefit yourself—don't help the dealer who tries to fool you by accepting an unadvised, and possibly an unworthy product.

Remember—the concern that can advertise a reliable article year in and year out for many years, has something of worth to sell you or they couldn't advertise.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold in sealed packages—never in bulk. The Company's signature is on the label—the Company name blown in the bottle. Get the Genuine. Sold by most druggists, grocers and dealers at $1.00 a bottle.
