BOARD AND ROOM $24

Judge Benson Refurns.—After serving two weeks on the bench in one of the extra departments of the Multnomah Circuit Court, Judge Benson, of Klamath Falls, left last night for his home, where he will open court Monday. The last case decided by Judge Benson was that of the City of Portland against Mary Thompson, in which he fined the woman $20 and sentenced her to 30 days in jail on a vagrancy charge. She was convicted first in Municipal Court, the case being heard yesterday by Judge Benson on appeal.

WOMAN GETS DIVORCE.—Circuit Judge McGinn granted a divorce yesterday to Mrs. Nina Sater from Frank Sater, and placed a minor son of the couple in the custody of the mother. The divorce was granted on grounds of desertion. The couple were married in Bent County, Colorado, in January, 1908. WAY FOR SUIT LAID OUT

Supreme Court Decision Necessary in Plan to Settle Question of City's Title to Proposed

Abigail Scott Duniway, as an invited guest, is to be a speaker at the regular weekly Progressive luncheon, in the main parlor of the Portland Hotel, at 12:15 o'clock today. Dr. Cora C. Little is chairman of the day.

The Mysterious Kinn The whole. By vote of three to two City Com meeting this morning, to commence work of constructing the public auditorium on the Market block, situated between Second and Third and Clay and Market streets. The instructions will be in the form of a resolution prepared by City Attorney LaRoche.

As soon as pessible Commissioner Brewster will commence work on the Market block, and it then will be up to some citizen to bring a suit in the Circuit Court to enjoin the city from using the block, on the ground that it is for market purposes only. The entire action of the Commission today will be to open the way for such a suit so THE MYSTERIOUS KIND.—The wholesome bread that mother baked was truly the mysterious kind and it has ever been the Royal's aim to solve mother's secret. "Table Queen" is the answer. Best grocers are pleased to furnish it.—Adv. be to open the way for such a suit so that it will be possible to get the case before the State Supreme Court and get a decision on the question of the city's title to the Market block.

The Peninsula Park Rose Show will be given in Peninsula Park June 9 and 10 in connection with the Portland Rose Festival. It is intended to enappear and take up the question so that the ruling can be secured. He says he expects a number of volunteers to appear, inasmuch as there are many people who do not favor the use of the Market block for the auditorium and therefore will try to stop the city from using it and thereby require its construction on the East Side.

It has been decided that it will not be pecassary for the Council to name and works are to Bushing and a summer of the owners of the financing of expenses of the show.
