GROWERS ASK MORE

Sheepmen Raise Prices and Buying Is Slower.

CONTRACTING IN OREGON

Several Clips Change Hands in Eastern Counties-Large Sales of Fat Sheep Wool at Coast Stock yards.

tracting in Eastern Oregon this week, hit buying operations have necessarily slowed down somewhat, as growers are asking more money. Several cities have been taken in the vicinity of Heppner and Arlington and across the river from the latter place. These deals were made at prices about the same as last years. It is estimated that fully haif a million pounds have been contracted for in Oregon to date, while In Western Idahe a million pounds or more have been bought on the sheep's back. Early shorn Washington wools are begining to be traded in. Shearing has started

In the Yakima section, where the Diffman clip has been bought at 18 cents. These weeks sold last year for 19 cents. A feature of the market now is the busisess in fat sheep wool at Coast stockyards, where shearing has been under way for some time. Theodore Bernhelm & Co. yester-day bought 200,000 pounds of such wool at Scattle at private terms,

Forward buying in other parts of the West continues, but not at the rapid rate of last week. Buyers are picking up stray clips where they are offered at going prices. Additional paraleulars were received yes-terday of the trading in Montana, where there was recently quite a wave of buying. More than 1,000,000 pounds of the clip of that state have been contracted. The clips include the J. B. Long Company's wool, from 45,000 to 50,000 sheep; also that grown by Felix Armstrong and Webb and Harry Armstrong, or from about 12,000 sheep. In addition the buyers secured the T. C. Fower and Leech clip, estimated to run about 120,and Leach clip, estimated to run about 120, 100 pounds, and the Thomas Shannon clip, placed at 50,000 pounds. They also have contracts for several smaller clips, aggregating about 300,000 pounds. The Armstrong wool is said to have changed hands at 16% cents and some of the other large bunches showed slightly better than 16 cents. For the long wool, the largest clip. in Northern Montana, close to 17 cents was paid. In Wyoming the same buyers got some wool cheaply at 11 cents a pound. Among the transactions in old citp wool, reported from Boston, are 75,000 to 80,000

In summing up the world's market situation a large importing house at Antwerp writes: "There is but very little doubt left bout the size of the Argentine crop, or which so much flour has been sold short if the Autumn of 1913 and on which the millers have been making their calculations. Our partner, down in Argentine, gives us low estimates of the quantity of good off the requirements of Argentine, Brazilian and South African milis, we are left with a quantity ranging from 7,500,000 bushels to 11,000,000 bushels of good wheat at the outand Bulgaria all gave us poor quality and admitting that the world's supplies may be pecially American, must command higher We know of one miller on the Rhine who in one day bought 320,000 bushels of American wheat and we do not un-derstand for what reason holders of the real wheat on your side do not try to get more

The local market for course grains was quiet. The feeling in bariey was firmer but oats dealers talked weak. Local receipts, in cars, were reported by CAR OF REDRIED HOPS IS SOLD Harris Lot That Went Down With Steambont Brings 13 Cents.

A lot of 94 bales of redried hops was sold at auction at Salem yesterday, and was bought by T. Rosenwald & Co. at 13 cents. This is the Harris lot that was damaged in the sinking of the steamer Oregona near Wilsonville some time ago. The hops were redried on the Nichols yard at Oregon City.

A three-year contract for 39,000 pounds 13% cents is reported to have been made by a Hubbard grower.

A London statistician figures the supply position of the English market as follows: "Imports of hops into Great Britain less exports for the months of September to January last, both Inclusive, were 198,325 dredweights for the corresponding period one year ago and 62,751 hundredweights two years ago. The quantity imported from the United States during the first above mentioned period was 157.113 hundredweights, equal to about $5,000 bales, This year's net imports of 198,325 hundredlights plus the 1913 English crop of 255,-541 hundredweights deducted from Grent Britain's estimated annual requirements of 600,000 hundredweights show a deficiency on January 51 last, as against requirements. of 146,034 hundredweights, or about 88,000

EGG CANNING INDUSTRY OF CHINA Operations Are in Hands of Foreign Corpo-

Further particulars as to the egg pro-ducing and shipping business of China are given by United States Consul Albert W. Pantius, of Nanking, as follows:

The important egg-producing district of China comprises the Yellow River and the Yangtee Ever provinces. The senson of greatest production is February to May. Eggs are either sold in open market or col lected by interior agents and delivered to the factory or to the experter. There is a local desiccated egg factory at this port which purchases eggs much below the mar ket price-it paid 8 and 10 cents per doze packed in bamboo crates with sawdust or straw. Eggs are canned at Nanking and ill kinds from domesticated fowls are for this purpose. Workmen in these used for this purpose, discount of this purpose, working in these factories receive about 10 cents per day. EGG MARKET WEAK AND LOWER Northern Buyers Temporarily Out—Chinese Eggs Coming.

The egg market was weaker yesterday. Twenty cents was the general quotation on round lots and some sales were made at 19% Outside buying has temporarily cents. Outside buying has temporarily ceased. Further shipments of Chinese eggs are coming to the Coast. The steamer due at Vancouver, B. C., on the 9th will base 8 8000 cases and there will be 3100 cases on the steamer due the 15th. Some of these eggs will come to Portland.

The poultry market was firm in spite of larger receipts. Good chickens of all kinds brought 18 cents. Dressed meats were There was no change in the butter mar ket, as there was a fair local cleanup, but the undertone is weak. The drop in the California market will probably pull prices

New Haven Develops Strength in Later Dealings and Closing Tone Is Steady - Coppers Influenced by Trade Reports.

NEW YORK, March 5 .- Closing quotation NEW YORK, March 5.—Closing quotations today showed general losses, which were the largest among the railroad stocks. The market made a small advance in the early trading, under the stimulus of active speculative busins. The steel stocks, yesterdisy's strong points, were again the favorites. A severe break in Chesapeake & Okio effectively checked the movement. The provision of the Chesapeake & Ohio note issue calling for expenditures of $17.000,000 for improvements in the next five years before dividends are paid caused the stock to sell down.

Canadian Pacific and Baltimore & Oblo showed decided weakness at times and Reading, Lehigh, Union Pacific and other stocks also gave way materially. New Haven developed marked strength in the late decident. dealings.

Copper shares were heavy on less favorable trade reports. Texas Company continued to advance, reaching a new high record at 149%.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Essier European cables and continued large santos receipts appeared responsible for an opening decline of 5 to 8 in coffee today. There was some scattering liquidation of September, which was well taken around the opening figures, but offerings otherwise were restricted by reports of a steady cost and freight situation and the market rallied on covering or local bull support. The livestock market continued fairly stendy yenterday, with an average midweek run, and sales were made within the range of prices already established. Trading was devoid of feature.

Seven or eight loads of cattle were disposed of, stears bringing from $5.25 to $7.40. The butcher cattle offered was mainly poor.

Most of the early business was in the box division, where top grade light hogs found buyers at $5.50 and $5.65.

Two bunches of fair-grade lambs were sold at $6.30.

Receipts were 181 cattle, $535 hogs and $20 sheep. WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Kansas Estimate Could Shrink 25, 000,000 Bushels and State Would Still Have Immense Yield. Coarse Grains Heavy.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Prospects, which appeared so excellent for the Winter crop yield, made the wheat market today fal under bearish control. Prices finished yield, made the wheat market today fall under bearish control. Prices finished heavy at a decline of % 5 ½c to ½c net. Corn showed a loss of ½ 5 ½c to ½c and oats ½ ½c to ½c. Provisions wound up with a gain of 2½ 55 ½c to 10c. Kansas gave the keynote to speculators in wheat. Advices from that state declared the growth conditions to be such that even 25,000,000 bushels' shortage there from any unforced developments could not destrive unforescen developments could not deprive the commonwealth of a crop totaling 125,5 occ.009 bushels.

Although corn at first showed considerable disposition toward an advance, the market later suffered from a decided break.

Oats weakened with corn.
Shorts in provisions had to bid up prices before packers and other longs would come to the rescue. The most urgent call was The leading futures ranged as follows:
