Appearance of fine weather may bring its periods of trouble for launch owners in not obeying Federal regu-lations governing lights, the carrying of life preservers, fire-extinguishing equipment and other gear. For the past three seasons an unbending campaign has been conducted by the Custom-House force and it is to be re-sumed this year as well. The Govern-ment officials feel that as one year was devoted to warning launch owners and since wholesale infringements have been stopped, there is no longer excuse for disobedience.
