

ROD AND GUN DRAW EXPERTS TO MEET

More Than 100 Marksmen and Bait Casters Take Part in Kenton Contests.

THORNTON AND BACKUS WIN

Out-of-Town Shooters Participate in Sunday Sport—Winners of Merchandise Shoot to Be Made Known at Dinner Tonight.

More than 100 shooters competed in three tournaments at the Portland Gun Club's Kenton traps Sunday, making it one of the biggest days in the history of the local traps. Fly and bait casters also were on hand and a tournament under the auspices of the Multnomah Anglers' Club was staged at the traps.

Representatives from many of the rod and gun clubs of the state were present and entered the various events. Dr. Thornton was the high man of the day in the trap-shooting contest, although P. Holohan, a professional, registered 96 per cent. W. P. Backus was the high point winner in the fly and bait-casting tournament winning three events and taking second in a fourth.

A special event in a merchandise shoot was held yesterday, but because of the number of contestants it was impossible to determine the winners. Final settlements will be made today, and will be announced at the "beef steak" dinner tonight.

Scores of the first five are placed to Portland's credit in the National telegraphic sheet.

GRAND JURY INDICTS SIX

PENDLETON MEN CHARGED WITH CONDUCTING GAMES. Warrant Out for W. N. Matlock, Son of Mayor—Some of Those Wanted Not Found by Sheriff.

PENDLETON, Or., March 16.—(Special.)—Six men were arrested last night and today by Sheriff Taylor in connection with the 26 indictments returned yesterday by the grand jury. In addition to these it is understood that a warrant has been issued for W. N. Matlock, son of Mayor Matlock, president of the Umatilla County Fish and Game Association and ex-president of the Western Tri-State League. The warrant has not been served on Matlock, for the reason he is now in Portland attending the state convention of sportsmen. It is said he is charged with gambling.

The six men arrested are Dave Smith, John Estes, Sam Greer, Mr. Briggs, Elmer Briggs and Walter Lindsey. Smith and Estes are proprietors of pool and billiard parlors. They have been charged with permitting gambling in their places of business, of allowing minors to participate in games of chance and of participating in the games themselves.

Sheriff Taylor said tonight he had not been able to find some of the men against whom indictments had been returned, and he is of the opinion that they have left the city.

HIGH TIDES SWEEP INLAND

Great Damage Done on Coasts of Normandy and Brittany.

PARIS, March 16.—A terrific gale and the highest tide of the year yesterday worked great havoc along the coasts of Normandy and Brittany. Huge waves dashed to an unusual height against the ramparts of Mont Saint Michel, on which is situated the famous old Benedictine Abbey, and the gardens and fields in Avranches, Genest and other villages and towns on the coast were flooded.

EMOTIONAL ACTRESS NOW VAUDEVILLE HEADLINER IN PORTLAND

OLGA NETHERSOLE, WHO IS PLAYING THIRD ACT FROM "SAPHO"

OLGA NETHERSOLE SUPERB AS SAPHO

Emotion of Daudet's Famous Character Depicted in Radically New Manner.

SUPPORTING CAST IS GOOD

Entire Orpheum Bill Has Artistic Worth—Singing, Farce Playlet, Musical Dancing Comedian and Bicyclist Features.

BY LEONIE CARR SAER. Olga Nethersole's superb performance of the third act of "Sapho" heads a bill of genuine artistic worth and attention-claiming at the Orpheum.

Miss Nethersole's triumph is all the more a triumph because she takes one act out of a colossal play and makes it stand for the entirety.

Miss Nethersole's production is made by herself from the dramatization of Daudet's "Sapho" by the late Clyde Fitch.

At the opening of the scene depicted on the Orpheum bill Jean Causin is chafing at the lison, which has become irksome, between him and Fanny Le Grand, known in the art life of Paris as "Sapho." Jean's uncle, Cesar, comes to visit the two and shows her a loophole of escape. He seizes on the chance and it is the breaking of the bonds between him and Fanny that makes the big third act.

Effect Intensely Dramatic. It is intensely dramatic, relieved occasionally by the lightsome bits of gaiety affected by Uncle Cesar and the bucolic banterings of Francine, Fanny's maid. The rest is somber and fraught with tremendous tragedy.

Miss Nethersole's Sapho has never been equaled, although the actresses who have followed and preceded her in the role of this colorful character have done well. Fanny's grief at Jean's desertion, in a radical departure from the traditional method of merely weeping, her depiction of grief is a deep, poignant, far-reaching expression and with her audience it became an impressive give-and-take, appeal-and-response affair.

Miss Nethersole is admirably supported and the scene is lavishly mounted, showing the sitting-room of Jean and Fanny's cottage, out from Paris.

Jan is given a highly-developed interpretation by A. E. Winnington. Barnes, Uncle Cesar is a clearly individualized conception in the art of Alfred Donno, and Constance Raymond plays Francine admirably.

Rest of the Bill is Good. The rest of the Orpheum is a show by itself. Herman Timberg, a versatile comedian, all done up in a gray union suit and a silk hat, has acutely nimble toes and an understanding of the violin. He made himself a great favorite with his songs, steps and fiddling. Parillo and Frabito, as street singers, wander along Harmony Lane and pick sweet flowers for their audience. They splash into comedy and keep everyone in high good spirits.

Pete Burns, a roiling tenor, Kilmer and Grady are a trio of musical lads who are capital exponents of that "close harmony stuff." They had many recalls.

Julia Nash and company offer a farce playlet which develops hilarity. It's a tribute to woman's wit—a woman wrote it, two clever women get the most out of its lines and its about woman's ways. Opening the act are the Blessings, who do not come in disguise, but openly. One Blessing (Mrs.) is a feminine Samson, who tosses and twirls Blessing (Mr.) with dexterity and amusing ease.

Closing the bill is a bicycle act with a lot of comedy departures, offered by Mosher, Hayes and Mosher.

HI GILL APPOINTS CHIEF

EX-COUNCILMAN GRIFFITHS, DEFEATED FOR MAYOR, IS NAMED. New Police Head Is Attorney and Says Best Department in Any City Will Be His Aim.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 16.—Austin E. Griffiths, ex-councilman, who was defeated for Mayor in the primaries preceding the election March 3, when Hiram C. Gill was elected by the largest majority ever given a candidate for that office in Seattle, announced tonight that he would accept the appointment as Chief of Police tendered him by Mr. Gill. Mr. Griffiths at first told Mayor-elect Gill he would not consider the offer, but his friends prevailed upon him to reconsider.

Mayor-elect Gill, in announcing last night that he had offered the post to Mr. Griffiths, said that if the ex-councilman accepted he would not interfere in any way with the administration of the police department. In announcing his acceptance tonight Mr. Griffiths said: "I will try to make the city clean and wholesome. I have formulated no plans for administering the department and shall meet each question as it arises. My sole endeavor shall be to give Seattle the best police department in the country."

Mr. Griffiths, who is an attorney, served three years in the City Council, resigning at the opening of the recent campaign to run for Mayor. He received the endorsement of the Ministerial Federation.

Claude G. Bannick retired as chief at midnight tonight, taking advantage of the Civil Service law to assume his former rank as captain. Mayor-elect Gill will become Mayor at noon tomorrow.

JOHN D. BUYS BIG BOULDER

Rockefeller to Make Fountain Out of 125-Ton Rock.

NEW YORK, March 16.—Speculation over the use which John D. Rockefeller intended to put a huge boulder which he recently bought for his estate at Pocantico Hills was set at rest yesterday when it became known that the rock it to be placed in front of his new house and carved into a huge fountain. The boulder, which is said to weigh 125 tons, is 29 feet wide and is too large to be placed on a flatcar, so a boat has been chartered to take it to Tarrytown. There it will be transferred to a great truck and drawn to

TERRIBLE RASH ALL OVER BODY

Worse On Arms. Itched and Burned. Sores Would Fester. Suffered Day and Night. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Completely Cured.

R. F. D. No. 5, Sturgis, Mich.—"Last summer I picked cucumbers about a week before I noticed I was being poisoned. All at once I broke out with a terrible rash all over my entire body. It looked like pimples only was much smaller. On my arms it seemed to be worse than any place else. It would itch and burn so I would scratch and make small sores that would fester. I suffered day and night for about two weeks but could find no relief.

"I used and and and many others but they all failed to bring relief. At last I was advised to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Every two or three times a day I would wash with the Cuticura Soap and at night I would apply the Cuticura Ointment. After using them one month I was completely cured." NEW RELIGION IS PROPOSED

San Francisco Rabbi Would Put All Good in His Creed.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—The principles of a new religion were outlined in a sermon by Rabbi Jacob Nieto at Temple Shalom today. Rabbi Nieto proposes a religion embracing all that is best in human life and existing religious and based on social service.

"It is unbelievable that God favors a part of mankind against any other part," he said. "The religion of the future will be non-sectarian."

Temperatures of from 80 to 90 degrees were reported from Western Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma. In Kansas City the thermometer reached 82 degrees. The day was

Blood Outbreaks—AVOID

Their Return by Giving Your Blood a Good Searching Bath

If you should meet anyone varnishing a blood outbreak with greasy ointment, your best advice would be to quit such things and attend to the blood.

To successfully fight any blood trouble, some eruptive skin affliction—call it eczema, lupus, psoriasis, malaria or what you will—there is but one sure, safe way to get rid of it. Ask at any drug store for a bottle of S. S. S. and you are then on the road to health. If we are to believe the students of science the action of this remarkable remedy is just as direct, just as positive, just as certain in its influence as that the sun rises in the east. It is one of those rare medical forces which act in the blood with the same degree of certainty that is found in all natural tendencies.

Out through every skin pore acids and other blood impurities are forced in the form of invisible vapor. The lungs breathe it out, the liver is stimulated to consume a great proportion of impurities, the stomach and intestines cease to convey into the blood stream the catarrhal, malarial germs; the bowels, kidneys, bladder and all excretories of the body are marshaled into a fighting force to expel every vestige of skin eruption.

There is scarcely a community anywhere but what has its hale and hearty example of the results of S. S. S. Get a bottle of this famous remedy to-day, and if your case is stubborn or peculiar, write to The Swift Specific Co., 200 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have several headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid waste retained in the juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Adv.
