WOLVES PERFORM POORLY

Only Two Runs Earned by Beavers Off of Lefty Williams—Higginbotham Allows Four Pitches to Die at Third Sack.

Portland, W. L. P. C. ... Los Angeles 84 71 543 Sacramento. 68 88 428 ...

Yesterdays Results ... At Veneno—Portland 2, Sacramento 3. At San Francisco—San Francisco 9, Angeles 1.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 3.—(Special.)—Harry Wolverton, the man without a country, duked for cover today and left his orphans lying on a strange doorstep. Irve Higginbotham, the only pitcher in the league who has won more games than he has lost, opened the every club in the league, gave them a good try, but did not let them get away with anything. The rest of the Beaver family took second on the festivities and while the orphans were kicking things around these Beavers slipped in with a 6-2 win.

Eleven hits were made off Higginbotham, but even though four of those hits were made with men on bases, it required the addition of a sacrifice fly to put over a second run for the Beavers. Four Wolves died on third—that's how effective Hig was when he tightened up.

As far as Lefty Williams alone was concerned, it might have been a drawn battle, for the Beavers earned only two runs against him. Rodgers opened the fourth with a single, took second on the sacrifice and scored when Kores' fly to right fell short of Shinn, who threw low to Hallinan. Kores rounded to third on the play and scored on Shinn's single. Higginbotham's single, Derrick's triple, Hallinan's wide peg to first, Davis' double and Coy's muf of Ryan's fly tell the tale of four Beaver runs in the fifth.

Jimmy Shinn saved the orphans from a shutout. He opened the fourth and sixth with doubles, scored on a sacrifice. Burgess' single chased him around the first time. Tennant's single and Hallinan's fly to Kores did the trick the second time. Score: Sacramento—Beavers, 6 to 2.

VENICE SHUTS OUT OAKLAND

Three Pitchers Do All Possible to Halt Venetians; One Wins.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 3.—Venice took another game from Oakland today, 2 to 0. Oakland gave most assistance toward this result.

Off him Venice got but one out and no runs in the closing two innings. Jackson, another Oakland reeling, lasted one lone inning. Score: Oakland—Venice, 0 to 0.

GIANTS RUSH BACK TO FIRST POSITION

McGraw Happy by Taking Double-Header.

Along comes Jawn McGraw with a plaint as to the unfairness of His Umps in the National League. Only a few days ago McGraw had made a big fuss to the effect that the Giants were getting more than their share of favor. Oher managers sided with George, possibly hoping they might squeeze in a victory once in a while as the result of a holler. John's statement that four of the umps, at least, incidentally some baseball pitchers, but that is about all.

With the departure of the Davis cup one is forced literally to hunt high and low to see if there are any left.

Of course, there is Dootin's Tincup, a few steins and a few tankards, but they are not the same as the Davis cup, but that is about all.

We rather think that the individual who has been so successful in getting out the Federal attendance figures this year must have been purchased by the Giants, possibly hoping they might squeeze in a victory once in a while as the result of a holler. John's statement that four of the umps, at least, incidentally some baseball pitchers, but that is about all.

At that, a recent purchase was actually made by a Russian nobleman and since the war broke out. One Madden, of Lexington, Ky., has just sold his 13-year-old stallion, Vice Commodore, a 2:11 pacer, and has received the money. But the stallion is to remain in this country until the war is over. A wise precaution, we may add, editorially.
