LEFT TO RIGHT, MANAGER M'GRAW, OF THE GIANTS; EX-MANAGER HERZOG, OF THE REDS, AND MANAGER MATTHEWSON, OF THE REDS.

Matty received a wonderful ovation at the Polo Grounds on his first appearance there as manager of the Reds. Strange sight to the eye was Matty in the regalia of the Cincinnati club, and the fans so far forgot themselves as to root for a Red victory.

With Pitcher Allen going after a bounding ball in the seventh, he was knocked unconscious and had to be carried from the field. He probably will be in the game again within a few days.

Charley Hall, Tigers' New Pitcher, Is Hailed as Greatest Five-Inning Twirler—Career Will Be Watched.

What is going to become of Honus Mitze, the catcher whose name was linked with that of Pitcher Roy Mitchell in the recent salary limit rumpus in the Pacific Coast League?

For a while it was rumored that he was about to don the spangles of the Oakland ball club. This has been knocked in the head by the fact that Catcher Walter Cadman, of the Seattle Northwestern League club, has been purchased by Del Howard and will make his first appearance in an Oakland uniform in Portland this afternoon.

Mitze, who was slated to be on his way to manage the St. Joseph club, of the Western League, apparently halted at the last moment, for reports from Los Angeles say that Honus has been on a two-weeks' fishing trip with Walter Roy Hill, and that nothing was farther removed from his mind than reporting to St. Joseph.

Perhaps the veteran is still on the Vernon payroll ready to jump in the breach in case Bert Whaling or Tub Spencer gets hurt.

Ernest Sargent Barnard, one of the officials of the Cleveland American League baseball club, arrived in Portland yesterday. He admits frankly that he came direct to Portland from Cleveland in order to make an endeavor to close a deal whereby Louis Guisto will graduate to Lee Fohl's Indians.

Nothing new on the Guisto matter cropped out yesterday, outside of the arrival of the Cleveland official and his admitting the reason of his trip. He will be in Portland for four days, according to his present plans, and will return from here directly to Cleveland.

Del Howard will make his debut in Portland today as manager of the Oakland baseball club. The former leader of the San Francisco club, who has been popular in this city because of his fighting qualities. He assumed charge of the Oakland club at the latter part of last week and according to the reports from the South, the Acorns have taken a new lease on life.

Nothing was done today regarding our getting the boy but I have obtained Walter McCredie's promise to hold off closing for him for a few days so that we will have a chance to perfect a deal. I will leave Portland before I leave Portland," concluded Cleveland's special envoy.
