Even-Tempered Head of Frat Like Buzz Saw When Going.

PLAYERS SWEAR BY HIM

Magnates Think Talk of Strike Is All Bluff, but Those Who Know Dave Best Say He Is Dynamite When Bumped.

BY FRANK G. MENKE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11 .- (Special.)-Harken to a magnate discoursing on David L. Fultz and you'll picture a person ornamented with horns and cloven hoofs and other devilish quali-ties. Meet Dave Fultz face to face—and what a shock you'll get!

The most consplouous figure in the sporting world today is a medium-sized chap, quiet mannered, quiet voiced, gentle; the last person in the world that you'd imagine would head a revolt—until you had a chance to study his face, and then you arrive at a different conclusion.

Dave Fultz is a handsome chap—the kind that would win him 100 perfumed kind that would win him 100 perfumed notes a day had he chosen the stage or the movies for his means of live-lihood. Finely chiseled features, dark hair and dark skin, blue eyes—that's the face of the prexy of the ballplayers' frat. Not a fighting face, you No. But note his jaw and his "Goad me not," they seem to The wise man would heed their warning. The magnates probably won't And something is likely to hap-

Temper Always Even.

Dave Fultz never uttered an abusive nis temper in the way that most men and Peter J. Holohan tied for first honpossessed—that's the man who is fighting the baseball magnates now in behalf of the men. But some day somebody or something might get Dave sort of angry-like. And then—
"Davey is something like dynamite," one of his friends asserted. "If dynarisson won the trophy yesterday.

Following are the scores in the reguone of his friends asserted, "If dynamite isn't monkeyed with it's quite innocent and quite harmless. But begin fered a job as a major league base-bailer. He accepted it, and the name of Dave Fultz is written in indelible letters in baseball's hall of fame. "Chain-Lightning Dave" is what they called him in his day, because he was ranked as the fastest man in the game. He could hit too and as an outfielder structor. At other times, to relieve the monotony of legal work, he offi-ciates at the similar football combats in the East. For Fultz, you know, ranks among the foremost students of mad; quiet, unassuming Dave, who never uttered a cuss word in all his life, is close to losing his temper. If he does-well, we don't want to be in the immediate neighborhood."

Coast League Gossip.

plans are for the future are a sub-ject of conjecture. With Maggert and Killefer in the gardens he has the nucleus around which to build a strong outfield. He is known to regard Jackson as a player with some latent possibilities.

San Francisco, provided they meet with no unforseen setbacks, is news re-ceived with gratification by the fans. Koerner hit .276 last season.

Pitcher Brown was handicapped at San Francisco by the cold weather. Then, with Justin Fitzgerald crippled, Wolverton was forced to use him in the outfield last season frequently. "Curly" won 13 and lost 14 games, and allowed an average of 3.17 earned runs allowed an average of 3.17 earned runs per game, which is far from impressive on the bare face of the returns.

Southpaw Brown's record is about all that could be expected when one pauses and contemplates that he participated

While "Rube" Ellis doubtless would kee: William Hoon, of Jewell, Ia.; O. prefer to play in Los Angeles, that city being situated more conveniently in re-being situated more c lation to his orange ranch, he will have no difficulty in detecting the fine and friendly hand of Frank Le Roy Chance in keeping him in the league.

Several years ago when "Rube" Ellis ball game with Junction (was with the St. Louis Nationals, Roger Bresnahan took a dislike to him for The Oakland boys, 50 to 16. Bresnahan took a dislike to him for ne reason in particular, and decided to ship him to the Southern League. "Rube" wasn't adverse to leaving the majors, but he preferred the Coast League because his home is near Los Angeles. Getting wind of the scheme, Frank Le Roy Chance held up the deal whenever Bresnahan asked for waivers. After the P. L. refused to waive a few times Bresnahan asked him to explain himself. He knew that Chance did not need him on the Cubs. Frank declined to answer, merely continuing his re-fusal to waive. As a result of this stand "Rube" was enabled later to join the Los Angeles club Los Angeles club.

Emil Meusel has changed his views of life. When the fraternity fuss was first kicked up he announced his in-tention to strike if Fultz gave the order. This sounded strange, coming from a player just drafted from the bushes, and to get his chance in the majors. Emil is young and it is presumed that he spoke hastily. Now he declares that he will gladly play with Los Angeles if the Cubs decide not to use him this season.

The fact that Jerry Coleman has signed with Hamilton Patterson, of the Dallas club, will result in the case being carried to the National Commission. Thomas J. Darmody, of Vernon, contends that Coleman had previously accepted terms with Vernon.

Billy Burke has rejected an offer to train Detroit, according to word re-ceived here from Salt Lake. The con-tract offered by the Tigers carried with it only a little more money than he is receiving from the Bees.

21 TAKE PART IN PRACTICE SHOOT AT TRAPS.

James Seavey Leads Amuteurs by Breaking 92 Targets.

Twenty-one nimrods were at Everding Park yesterday practicing over the new cement traps. High gun in the regular event was James E. Reid, a professional, with 98 per cent, while the leading amateur was James W. Seavey, with 33 per cent.

A team race was held between a squad of six, captained by Peter J. Holohan and a squad led by J. P. Bull, both professionals. Mr. Holohan's sex-Dave Fultz never uttered an abusive tet won with 125 out of a possible 150, word in all his life, as far as anyone while J. P. Bull and his teammates knows. mite isn't monkeyed with it's quite innocent and quite harmless. But begin tossing it around, hammer it a little too much, and——"

Back in the bygone days, when Dave went to Brown University, many folks learned that Dave Fultz was a perfect cyclone. He was a footballer then; one of the greatest that ever romped over a gridiron. Brown still sings the songs of "Fighting Dave," of the man who never quit when once he began to fight.

After his graduation Dave was offered a job as a major league baseballer. He accepted it, and the name of Dave Fultz is written in indelible letters in baseball's hall of fame.

Everding 12, Peter J. Holohan 11, E. H. Keller 9, A. G. Hawman 7, Al Seguin 7,

"Chain-Lightning Dave" is what they called him in his day, because he was ranked as the fastest man in the game. He could hit, too, and as an outfielder he was a wonder.

Army Awaits Fults' Order.

Some years ago Fultz decided to retire from baseball to take up the practice of law—his real profession. At odd moments he was a Y. M. C. A. instructor. At other times, to relieve

SIX-DAY BICYCLE RACE STARTS

World's Record Broken in First Hour's Riding at Chicago.

Mickey Schilz showed the Los Angeles manager enough last year to warrant serious consideration for the coming season. With the veterans Killefer and Maggert, the P. L. probably will feel justified in carrying two other outfielders, these to be picked from among Jackson, Schilz and Meusel, providing that the latter can be secured from the Cubs.

That Phil Koerner and "Rube' Ellis are assured of jobs for the season with San Francisco, provided they meet with no unforseen setbacks, is news received with gratification by the fans. Koerner hit 276 last season.

Hour's Riding at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Twenty-two riders, paired into it teams, got away at 10:20 tonight in Chicago. The event will be finished next Saturday night. Clarence Carman, of Long Island, and George Wiley, of Syracuse, N. Y., were forced to withdraw, as Wiley was attacked with pneumonia. There is a chance Carman will get into the race later, as some of the other contestants may be forced to drop out.

Reggie McNamar, an Australian, and Francisco Verri, of Italy, are received with gratification by the fans. Koerner hit 276 last season.

One of the reasons that prompted Chance to make the recent big swap was the fact that he needed a southpaw "Curly" Brown never has had a fair abance to display his wares as a pitch-

Victor at Kansas City Shoot Gets Purse of $1575.

Southpaw Brown's record is about all that could be expected when one pauses and contemplates that he participated in 95 games, 52 of which were in the box. All the evidence shows that "Curly" was an overworked pitcher.

Frank Le Roy Chance has pulled off two of the biggest trades in the history of Pacific Coast League baseball.
