

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

OREGONIAN TELEPHONES. Managing Editor Main 7070. A 6095. City Editor Main 7070. A 6095. Advertising Department Main 7070. A 6095. Composing room Main 7070. A 6095. Superintendent building Main 7070. A 6095.

AMUSEMENTS

HELLIG (Broadway at Taylor)—New York cast in "The Boomerang" tonight at 8. BAKER (Broadway at Sixth, between Alder and Morrison)—Alcazar Stock Company in "Ten Nights in a Barroom" tonight at 8.15.

PANTAGES (Broadway at Alder)—In-squared vaudeville. Three shows daily, 2.30, 7.15 and 9.15. HIPPODROME (Broadway and Yamhill)—Vaudeville and moving pictures, 2 to 5, 6.30 to 11 P. M. SATURDAY, Sunday, holidays, continuous, 1.15 to 11 P. M.

ETRIAND (Park, W. Park and Stark)—Vaudeville and motion pictures continuous. OAKS PARK—Open-air amusement resort on Williams River.

COUNCIL CHIEF—PARK—Open-air amusement resort on Council Creek. Take Portland Heights cars.

FORMER SOLDIERS TO PICNIC—Minnesota men will picnic at The Oaks Tuesday, July 17, not today, as has been reported incorrectly. The outing will be under the auspices of the Minnesota State Society and officers of that body assert interest in the event is much more general than in past years.

CAMPBELL MEMORIAL TODAY—Annual memorial services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the grave of David Campbell, fire chief who lost his life at the Union Oil Company fire June 26, 1911. The services will be attended by City Commissioners, fire officials and representatives of the various fraternal organizations.

MERCHANTS THANKED FOR DONATIONS—Members of the Army and Navy Auxiliary, who prepared boxes of lunch for the 167 naval recruits who left Portland last Thursday en route to San Francisco, feel especially grateful to many merchants of this city who contributed good things to go in the lunch boxes. Gifts were generous by the business houses of the city and auxiliary members, knowing the keen appreciation of the recruits for the courtesy shown them, desire to thank the merchants for their donations.

CITY DISCARDS MAHOFGYAN ROSTRUM—A mahogany rostrum which has been a part of the Council Chamber for more than 20 years, fell victim to the carpenter's hammer yesterday to make way for a new arrangement of the Council Chamber under the new administration. The rostrum was in such form that it could not be used for the present Council of five members, who have voted against its retention.

PORTLAND SCHOOL GARDENS FINE—Margit O. Evans, supervisor of school work in Tacoma, was a visitor in Portland yesterday. Mr. Evans made a survey of the Portland school gardens and found them in excellent condition and about ten days ahead of those of Tacoma, the weather here having been brighter, he stated, than that of the Sound City. Mr. Evans was accompanied in his tour of inspection by W. J. Kaderly, of the extension service of Oregon Agricultural College.

ARMY VILIPER CHARGED WITH VANDALISM—G. W. Chapman, who has the hands of the law again yesterday afternoon when he was arrested at Bond and Burnside streets by police Sergeant Ward and taken to the station. Chapman was arrested last week for using abusive language toward the Army and the enlisted men. At that time he was charged with being a representative of the "Home Industry League" and later released.

CITY ZONING IS TOPIC—City zoning will be the principal topic to be discussed by the Oregon Society of Engineers at its meeting at the Central Library, Thursday night at 8 o'clock. C. Lewis Mead will speak as representative of the City Board and A. G. Clark will speak on the "Home Industry League." Other speakers will be H. E. Plummer, E. B. MacNaughton, E. F. Lawrence and J. J. Sayer.

EMAN EUFATA'S "FRIEND" IS FOUND—City Detectives Hyde and Abbot arrested Zehr Katsauk late Sunday night and held him for investigation for alleged assault. Eman Eufata, identified Katsauk as the man who assaulted and robbed him of $90 and a gold watch in a house on North Nineteenth street Sunday afternoon. Katsauk will have a preliminary hearing in Municipal Court this morning.

BENEFIT TONIGHT WILL BE IN Y. W. C. A.—For the benefit of the Red Cross, Delta Sigma Society will give a play, "The Reveries of a Bachelor," tonight in the Y. W. C. A. The society is made up of little girls to 12 years of age. A special feature will be the dancing of Winifred Ridings, a clever little girl who will present several specialties.

AUTO DRIVER CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER—The preliminary hearing of Hugh L. Putnam, held in default of $2000 bail on a charge of manslaughter as the result of the automobile accident at Fifth and Stark streets last Friday, in which Mrs. Anna Petersen was killed, was postponed yesterday until Wednesday. A coroner's jury recommended that Putnam be held.

VMY RIDGE BATTLE TO BE RETOLD—"Up Vimy Ridge With the Canadians" will be the subject of the address by Willard Hamilton at the luncheon of the Rotary Club at the Benson Hotel today at noon. Mr. Hamilton was wounded in the battle of Vimy Ridge and is home on leave. He will give a personal description of how things seem on the fighting fronts of Europe.

HONOR GUARD MEETS TONIGHT—The Glize National Honor Guard of Portland will hold a special meeting tonight in Library Hall. Final plans will be made for the summer camp at Columbia Beach. Members of the guard requested to attend. Other matters of importance will be discussed.

H. J. FALLING'S FUNERAL TODAY—The funeral services for the late Henry J. Falling, vice-president of the Lumbermen National Bank, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock, at Finley's undertaking parlors. The body will be sent to Handolph, Ia., for burial.

LIGHT PEDDLER FINED $75—Herbert Keller was found guilty of selling intoxicating liquor yesterday and fined $75. He was arrested last Friday night by Detective Swennes and Patrolman Whitehead.

CAVALRY DANCE NOT HELD TONIGHT—The First Oregon Cavalry dance was held at the Multnomah Hotel last Friday night and is not scheduled for tonight, as was erroneously stated yesterday.

METHODS FOR PRIMARY TEACHERS—Third Summer session will be held from June 25 until July 6. W. C. A. auditorium. Ruby Shearer, Brennan, conductor.

FOR RENT—Beautifully furnished, modern home, in best residence district. Marshall 1266.—Adv.

DR. LLOYD W. BROOKS has returned.—Adv.

ARMY WEEK IS HERE

Uncle Sam Wants 70,000 Men by Saturday Night.

TEN RECRUITED YESTERDAY

Captain Heubacher Receives Orders to Push Enlistments—Men Will Be Accepted for Regular Army and the Third Oregon.

Denial that she made an attempt at suicide, as intimated in newspaper accounts of her collapse Sunday night at the T. B. Eilers Mallan. An unusually fine programme has been prepared and the funds will be used to make up Clackamas County's quota.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars. The other one desired to join the Third Oregon, and was assigned to that command. In addition to enlisting men for the regulars, Captain Heubacher is authorized to enlist men also for the Third Oregon and the Second Washington, neither of which is quite up to full war strength.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

ARMY WEEK IS HERE

Uncle Sam Wants 70,000 Men by Saturday Night.

TEN RECRUITED YESTERDAY

Captain Heubacher Receives Orders to Push Enlistments—Men Will Be Accepted for Regular Army and the Third Oregon.

Denial that she made an attempt at suicide, as intimated in newspaper accounts of her collapse Sunday night at the T. B. Eilers Mallan. An unusually fine programme has been prepared and the funds will be used to make up Clackamas County's quota.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

ARMY WEEK IS HERE

Uncle Sam Wants 70,000 Men by Saturday Night.

TEN RECRUITED YESTERDAY

Captain Heubacher Receives Orders to Push Enlistments—Men Will Be Accepted for Regular Army and the Third Oregon.

Denial that she made an attempt at suicide, as intimated in newspaper accounts of her collapse Sunday night at the T. B. Eilers Mallan. An unusually fine programme has been prepared and the funds will be used to make up Clackamas County's quota.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft Age Acceptable. This has been designated as Army week by President Wilson in an official proclamation, and all over the country efforts are being made to induce 70,000 men to enlist. That number is needed to fill the ranks of the regulars in two branches—infantry and field artillery.

Men Above Draft