SHORT ROUTE IS USED

COPRA CARGO'S ROUTING TO TEXAS IS CHANGED.

Freight Switched From O.-W. R. & N. Company to Southern Pacific Under Federal Arrangement.

Probably the first application on water-front business of the new system of handling railroad movements by the Government is in the case of 700 tons of copra brought on the barkentine Alta from Apia, which is destined for Houston, Tex. It was understood that the shipment was to be routed via the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railroad, but officials of that line yesterday decided it properly should move via the Southern Pacific, the latter route being 650 miles shorter.

Mariners regard that decision as a positive demonstration of the short or direct-haul advantages held by Portland on cargo, the North Bank and O.-W. R. & N. lines down the Columbia affording traffic the shortest haul from a number of important Eastern points. While the copra business is moving in the opposite direction, it is a rule that can be applied both ways if tonnage is made available for handling shipments to and from the Columbia River.

There is considerable copra on the way here, six more vessels being listed from the South Seas with that class of cargo. The bulk of it is consigned to the Kaola Company at Portland.

The cargo was consigned to A. O. Andersen & Company, and all but the 740 tons going south will be used by the Kaola Company.

Marine Notes.

Port of Portland Commissioners are to meet in special session at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Business pertaining to the issuance of a new tariff, probably a decision as to a new towboat and other matters will be disposed of.

In tow of the tug Onsenta, the schooner M. Turner, which reached the river from San Francisco yesterday, was shifted to Prescott yesterday to load lumber. The trip from the Golden Gate was made in tow of the steamer F. S. Loop.

Preparatory to leaving for Astoria tomorrow morning in tow the schooner Spokane, lumber laden, has been shifted to the stream from Mersey dock.

Bound for Portland with freight consigned to the Parr-McCormick line, the steamer Wapama, Captain John Foldat, sailed from San Francisco yesterday at 1 o'clock morning. She reached the Golden Gate from San Pedro the day before.

Two arrivals from San Francisco yesterday were the steamers Ernest H. Meyer and Nehalem, both having cargo for the Parr-McCormick line.

When the steamer Georgiana is overhauled she will be returned to the Portland-Asiatic route, says Captain Hosford, manager of the Hoffma fleet. She was withdrawn a week ago and yesterday a contract was let to overhaul her boiler. When that is finished her engine will be gone over and certain new work carried out, so she will go into service again in a few weeks.
