CALIFORNIA STARS BEATEN AT TENNIS

Miss McDowell and Mrs. Cushing Defeat Mrs. Ellis and Miss Newell.

MISS FORDING IS VICTOR

S. B. Cook, Veteran, Routs Frohman and A. B. McAlpin Loses to Bingham - Miss Campbell Wins Three Matches.

Remarkable tennis by Miss Mayme McDonald, all around athlete of Seattle, and Mrs. Cushing of Oakland, eliminated one of the most formidable teams in the women's doubles in the Oregon State tennis championship tournament on Multnomah club courts yesterday, Mrs. Ellis and Miss Newell scores of 7-5; 5-2 telling the story of one of the greatest matches of women's doubles played in Portland in many a day. The contest brought forth some beautiful tennis, Miss McDonald displaying beautiful forehand strokes and dashing net play and Mrs. Cushing uncovering some of the prettiest backhand strokes seen in Portland since Mary Browning and Hazel Hotchkiss were players here several years ago. Mrs. Ellis played a great defensive game but her partner, Mrs. Newell, had apparently been weak ened by her hard match with Stella Fording earlier in the afternoon.

This match, too, marked the eliminstino of a strong California contender for the title, Miss Fording winning, 6-4, 6-4, by a pretty exhibition of tennis. Miss Fording will meet Miss Irene Campbell today in another of the fea-ture matches, both being ex-champions of Oregon. Miss Campbell, by the way, had a fine day yesterday, first defeat-ing Miss Lucille Bronaugh in the sin-gles, 6-2, 6-1, and then eliminating Mrs. Mulder, one of the best Irvington Club players, 6-2, 6-3. Later, paired with Mr. Gray, of Lewiston, she defeated Lieutenant and Mrs. Witmer, Califor-nians of no mean ability, 6-1, 6-0, in the Decision Reached to Stay With "Big Game" to Finish Giving Services in Y. M. C. A. Work Benefiting Many Thousands.

BY JAMES J. RICHARDSON. Joe Pipal, the gray-haired football oach of the Oregon Aggies for the past two seasons, will not return to Oregon State Agricultural College this season or the duration of the war, but will continue his work with the physical training division of the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Kearney, San Diego, where it is said he will also handle football. Pipal originally signed up to give one Summer of instruction at Camp Kearney, but in a letter to a friend states that the type of work which he is engaged in is so useful that it is his eason or the duration of the war, but is engaged in is so useful that it is his is engaged in is so useful that it is his plain duty to throw up his job with Oregon State Agricultural College.
