Condemned Man Declared to Be No True Friend of Labor; Case Decided on Its Merits.

MACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 28 .- The sentence of Thomas J. Mooney, condemned to be hanged Decemer 13 in connection with the deaths of ten persons from a Preparedness day, July 22, 1916, was ommuted by Governor W. D. Stephens Medal for "Most Distinguished today to imprisonment for life.

In giving the announcement of the Governor's decision to the Associated Press his private secretary, Martin Madsen, said the commutation was igned early this evening, but that further than the written statement there would be no comment. The statement reviews the case fully and quotes in their entirety the two messages from President Wilson, in tation, says the Governor, reduces the case to the status of that of Warren

"It is not unreasonable to assume that a sympathy or even a definite relationship existed between those murderers and the propaganda and violence then being engaged in throughout the country by agents of the German government. The case, as presented to the California courts, was that of murder, without further evidence of motive than the impossible tenets of anarchists, whose sympathies for the German cause in the war are well known. Their wild pacifist theories fitted into the widespread activities of the Kaiser's agents in this country.

"A number of persons of pronounced anarchistic tendencies were arrested shortly after the explosion, and of these Warren K. Billings was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment and Thomas J. Mooney found guilty and sentenced to be hanged.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Nov. 28 .- The first aerial banquet in history was held today on an airplane 2800 feet above the new flying field of the United States air mail service, marking the inauguration of the field as the terminus of the aerial mail service between New York, Philadelphia and Washington. A few minutes after the mail plane, in charge of Pilot Max Miller, left the field, at 12:10 this afternoon, a big Hanley-Page machine rose under con-trol of Captain E. B. Waller, of the Royal Flying Porces and during a CONVICT HELD NO MARTYR Right of 22 miles above the grounds a real Thanksgiving dinner was served to nine persons.

Among the guests were Captain Benjamin B. Lipsner, superintendent of the air mail service, and Allan R. Hawley. Augustus Post and other officials of the Aero Club of America. Speaking of the proposed Nation-wide extension of the mail service, Captain Lipsner said "We will have machines which will carry a ton and a half of mail and the day's of freight and parcel post by air-

UNFORTUNATES ARE DINED

Old Man Thanksgiving, Interviewed, Tells Us What Is in Our Hearts, as Divined by Himself.

BY BEN HUR LAMPMAN. Everyone in Portland-in all the wide United States, for that matter-agrees that when those stern old psalm-singing ploneers, the Pilgrims, laid the spiritual masonry of Thanksgiving they started something that will go joyfully choing down the corridors of time for a thousand years or so to come. With this conviction comfortably stowed away, but agreeably conscious greetings that may well be termed gladsome, and ushered the presence into ing by radiator or fireplace and the tantalus of bronzing turkey and merry mince tiptoeing from the general direction of the kitchen. Interviewed by a great many thou--which the local room will tell you is the most sagacious time to tackle the prospect-Thanksgiving in Portland yesterday authorized the ensuing interview. The genial old Puritan was munching raisins at the moment, and, none ventured to interrupt.

Thanksgiving Discourses Thusly. "I bave always, ever since the 'stern and rockbound coast' days, been gifted with not a little psychic insight," said Thanksgiving. "Thus I perceive what is in the hearts of men, rather than the superficialities which reside aloft. And the former is by no means the least in importance, I assure you.

"May I not say-to borrow one of Woodrow's pet phrases-may I not say that I grip and hold fast this festal season a sentiment of gratitude that swells with every pulsebeat. It is phenomenal. Union Services Are Held.

In numerous instances, for the greater glory of the day, union services were held, with half a dozen or more congregations joined in mutual thanksgiving. At each of these the songs that were lifted were not all gospel hymns, for certain songs have been sanctified through battle and sacrifice, and of right maintained the prominence that was accorded them.

There were intermissions at all theaters, when soloists stepped forth and huge Thanksgiving audiences joined in the singing. Known as the "universal sing," the airs of American patriotism rang yesterday in all the theaters of America, from the "nickel movie"-a rare bird nowadays-to the "high-
