UNMARRIED SEEK DIVORCE

MIKE RABOW, DEFENDANT IN SUIT, SAYS HE IS SINGLE. Plaintiff Secures Marriage License, but Ceremony Is Not Performed.

To be compelled to resist a suit for divorce from a woman he never married is the peculiar situation in which Mike Rabow has been placed. He asserted yesterday in filing an answer to a divorce complaint filed by Barbara Rabow, who says she married the defendant in Portland on February 24, 1912. The purported wife charges extreme cruelty.

DUMARU SURVIVOR HOME

Claud Banfield Spends Nine Days on Raft in Pacific. Showing in lost weight and streaks of gray hair the result of terrible experiences after the wood steamer Dumaru was blown up 22 miles off Guam, Ladrones Islands, when bound from San Francisco for Manila, Claud Banfield, of her crew, has returned to his Portland home. He says the Dumaru, which was built here at the Grant Smith-Porter yard, was struck by lightning October 16, about 5:15 o'clock in the afternoon, and for nine days he and a few companions were adrift on a life-raft, being rescued by the transport Logan. They suffered terribly from thirst.

"LAUGHMAKER" TO RETURN

THOMAS DURAY TO APPEAR IN "FOR PITY'S SAKE." Countess de Leonardi to Be Extra Attraction of Comedy Feature at Orpheum.

Cy Spivens, remembered as a laugh-creator at the Orpheum last season, will be in town again tomorrow. On the hotel register, however, he will be recorded as Thomas Duray, his name in real life. Duray is the star of "For Pity's Sake," a travesty on the old-time melodrama, which is reputed to be the greatest laughing act in big-time vaudeville. This act is the headline attraction of the new Orpheum show.

Rudyard Kipling's

New Book Answers the call of Kipling lovers for a book with the Indian flavor. Can you imagine a trooper from India in France, sitting down and dictating letters to a scribe, recounting to his people at home the wonders he has seen, the habits of the new people he has observed, and the methods of conducting their affairs? All expressed in the manner of the East. You will enjoy it hugely. Net $1.00. At all booksellers. EYES OF ASIA Doubleday, Page & Company

WAR WORK TO CONTINUE

Red Cross Busy Making Hospital and Refugee Garments. With the change in policy, occasioned by the signing of the armistice, both Red Cross workrooms in Portland, located on the eighth floor of the Lipman-Wolfe building and the fourth floor of the Spalding building, have virtually ceased making surgical dressings, but have not closed.

Yakima May Get Hospital.

W. L. Steinhilber, chairman of the Yakima chapter of the Red Cross, has received from the Government a telegram asking for full particulars immediately regarding the Nob Hill Sanitarium, which the owner, H. Stanley Coffin, has offered to the Government for a reconstruction hospital for crippled and invalid soldiers.

"Flu" Cases Increase.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—A marked increase is shown in the number of influenza cases, and health officers are guarding against the spread of the disease. A party to be given tonight by the senior class to the students of the high school was postponed. An average of 10 new cases a day for the past three days have been reported.

U. S. Minister Again in Brussels.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Grand Whitlock, American Minister to Belgium, formally notified the State Department today of his reoccupation of the legation at Brussels, following the Spanish Minister, who cared for Americans during the German occupation.

Booth Tarkington's Great American Novel is a book that you and every other American will read with joy. It is about people who might be your people or your neighbor's and describes your town in its big growing time. There is no villain in it, but a girl you will surely fall in love with and a hero who turns out most unexpectedly to be a hero. Thousands are buying it now; tens of thousands will buy it before Christmas. If you have not read it you will be embarrassed. If you do read it you will thank us for reminding you. Net, $1.40.

Fighting Germany's Spies

By E. FRENCH STROTHER The inside story of many of Germany's plots to destroy our property, injure our citizens, and make trouble between our allies and us. Secret codes and the keys to them are given. German methods of securing information, getting passports for soldiers and many other of her diabolical machinations are laid bare. Mr. Strotcher, who is the Managing Editor of "The World's Work," was given exceptional opportunities to verify the accuracy of his statements. His revelations are authentic and thrilling. Many pictures of codes, telegrams, forged papers, and portraits of Germany's spies. Net, $1.50.

A True Spy Story

The Valley of the Giants Is a good story of the fight for a piece of redwood timber in big Rhode Island. The outcome depends very much on the extraordinary attitude of a charming girl with a will of her own. One man after reading it bought seven copies to give away. Net, $1.40. By Peter B. Kyne Doubleday, Page & Company.
