MRS. TUCK INQUEST TODAY

Widower and Woman Lodger Charged With Murder.

Inquest into the shooting of Mrs. Edna Tuck, 31, who died of a gunshot wound through the heart at 4:30 Saturday morning, will be held in the courthouse at 8:30 tonight, Coroner Smith announced yesterday. Police have arrested Eugene Tuck, widower of the dead woman, and Mrs. Marie Middleton, a lodger in the Tuck home at 1023 Interstate avenue, and charged them with murder.

Police say Mrs. Middleton's husband complained to the authorities about the Americans in Ireland Predict Home Government Soon.

DUBLIN, May 10 .- Michael F. Ryan, ormer Governor Edward Dunne of Illinois and Frank P. Walsh, representatives of Irish societies in the United States, today visited the Sinn Fein prisoners in Mount Joy prison and later called on Archbishop Walsh. At a reception tendered them by the lord mayor, members of the corporation adopted resolutions wishing the Americans success in their efforts to secure Irish freedom. Mr. Ryan, replying, said he believed the United States meant when it entered the war that all peooles should have the right to determine the government under which they lived. The Irish people, he concluded, had selected their own form of government and it would come six months, perhaps within a year.
