Hood Orchardists Plan to Resist Japanese Ownership.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Sept. 4.—(Special.)—Public sentiment against a further ownership by Japanese of local fruit lands has developed until orchardists are determined, they say, to wage a concerted campaign for state and federal legislation to prohibit property ownership by the Nipponese. Growers of different sections of the valley have called a meeting for tomorrow night to consider the Japanese problem. Captain George R. Wilber, ex-state senator from this and Wasco counties, who introduced a bill in the 1917 legislature against Japanese land ownership, will address the meeting. Recent heavy real estate purchases by Japanese individuals and corporations have aroused orchardists to action.
